

Standards and Practices

1. What are the standards and practices used for selecting interpreters and translators?
2. What technical support activities related to interpretation and translation can you identify and share? Are the technical support activities consistent across the State or districts?
3. Under what circumstances are interpreter and translator services utilized? What types of tasks, activities, or situations are interpreter and translator services used for? Examples might include oral and written communication related to school events or student services, parent-teacher conferences, and programs implemented to identify English language learners, IEP or 504 meetings.
4. How are interpreters and translators staffed by the school or program? Are they permanent employees who are either on-site or available as needed, or are they acquired through a service contract and available on demand?
5. How are interpreter and translator services funded?
6. When and how do districts determine if a translator or interpreter is needed?

Written Policies

7. What written policies do you rely on regarding interpreter and translator services? What policies, if any, are there on standards or practices at the State or district level?
8. What research, if any, was used to draft policies and procedures related to interpretation and translation?

Training

9. What training is required for initial certification as well as for maintaining the certification of interpreters and translators?
10. What trainings are provided to school staff or volunteers to facilitate the coordination of interpreter and translator services for families and students?

Data

11. What data, if any, can you share on the use of interpreters and translators? For example, how often are the services requested by school staff or students, parents, or legal guardians? How are the services categorized? Are the services primarily oral, written, or both?

Commenters are encouraged to include written policies and procedures used by schools, districts, or States.

The Department is committed to improving the public's access to, and the discoverability of, education research. In service of that goal, we encourage responders to share any publications with us, and we invite authors, those who hold copyright, or their authorized representatives to consider depositing eligible content into ERIC, the Institute of Education Sciences' bibliographic and full-text database of education research (<https://eric.ed.gov/>). More information about submitting content to ERIC, including our selection policy and how to access the online submission portal, can be found at <https://eric.ed.gov/submit/>.

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA)

Advisory Committee for Nuclear Security; Notice of Renewal

AGENCY: Office of Defense Programs, National Nuclear Security Administration, Department of Energy.
ACTION: Notice of renewal.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Federal Advisory Committee Act, and following consultation with the Committee Management Secretariat, General Services Administration, notice is hereby given that the charter for the Defense Programs Advisory Committee (DPAC) will undergo a major amendment and DPAC will be renamed the Advisory Committee for Nuclear Security (ACNS or the Committee). The charter is being renewed for a two-year period.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The ACNS will provide advice and recommendations to the Department of Energy's Under Secretary for Nuclear Security and Administrator of the National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA) on the activities and operations of the NNSA, including but not limited to, the stewardship, governance, and maintenance of the Nation's nuclear deterrent; nuclear security; nonproliferation; counterterrorism; counterproliferation; and nuclear incident and accident response.

The renewal of the Committee has been deemed essential to the conduct of the Department's business and in the public interest in conjunction with the performance of duties imposed upon the Department of Energy by law and agreement. The Committee will operate in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act and the rules and regulations in implementation of that Act.
