Increased Forty-Year Term for Loan Modifications

AGENCY: Office of Housing, HUD.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: HUD's regulations allow mortgagees to modify a Federal Housing Administration (FHA) insured mortgage by recasting the total unpaid loan for a term limited to 360 months to cure a borrower's default. This rule amends HUD's regulation to allow for mortgagees to recast the total unpaid loan for a new term limit of 480 months. Increasing the maximum term limit to 480 months will allow mortgagees to further reduce the borrower's monthly payment as the outstanding balance would be spread over a longer time frame, providing more borrowers with FHA-insured mortgages the ability to retain their homes after default. This change will also align FHA with modifications available to borrowers with mortgages backed by the Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac), which both currently provide a 40-year loan modification option. This final rule adopts HUD's April 1, 2022, proposed rule without change.

DATES: Effective May 8, 2023.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) was established by Congress in 1934 to improve nationwide housing standards, to provide employment and stimulate industry, to improve conditions with respect to home mortgage financing, to prevent speculative excesses in new mortgage investment, and to eliminate the necessity for costly second mortgage financing.¹ HUD's regulations for Title II FHA single family forward mortgage insurance are codified in 24 CFR part 203. These regulations address mortgagee eligibility requirements and underwriting procedures, contract rights and obligations, and the mortgagee's servicing obligations. These regulations also address a mortgagee's obligations to offer loss mitigation options when a mortgagor defaults on a loan, as provided in 24 CFR 203.501.

Over time, HUD has expanded and revised the regulations regarding the loss mitigation options that mortgagees are required to consider utilizing including special forbearance, recasting of mortgages, partial claims, pre-foreclosure sales, deeds in lieu of foreclosure, and assumptions as ways to mitigate losses to the Mutual Mortgage Insurance Fund.² In 1996, the Balanced Budget Downpayment Act, I (Pub. L. 104–99, approved January 26, 1996) amended sections 204 and 230 of the National Housing Act to provide that HUD may pay insurance benefits to a mortgagee to recompense the mortgagee for its actions to provide an alternative to the foreclosure of a mortgage that is in default. These actions may include special forbearance, loan modification, and/or deeds in lieu of foreclosure, all upon terms and conditions as the mortgagee shall determine in the mortgagee's sole discretion, within guidelines provided by HUD.³ In response, HUD promulgated an interim
