Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Office of the Chief Privacy Officer, General Services Administration, (GSA).

ACTION: Rescinding of a system of records notice.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, notice is hereby given that the General Services Administration (GSA) proposes to rescind the GSA/HRO-3 Occupational Health and Injury Files SORN. GSA is rescinding the system of records notice, GSA/HRO-3 Occupational Health and Injury Files. The rescinded system of records described in this notice no longer maintains any Personally Identifiable Information (PII). Additionally, GSA uses the Employees' Compensation Operations & Management Portal (ECOMP) system to report an incident. GSA uses the ECOMP system to track injuries and illnesses. Link to ECOMP system at DOL: <https://www.ecomp.dol.gov>.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b) of the Privacy Act, all or a portion of the records or information contained in this system may be disclosed to authorized entities, as is determined to be relevant and necessary, outside GSA as a routine use pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3) as follows:

a. In any legal proceeding, where pertinent, to which GSA is a party before a court or administrative body.

b. To disclose information to any source from which additional information is requested in the course of processing a grievance, to the extent necessary to identify the individual, inform the source of the purpose(s) of the request, and to identify the type of information requested.

c. To authorized officials engaged in investigating or settling a grievance, complaint, or appeal filed by an individual who is the subject of the record.

d. To a Federal agency in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee; the issuance of a security clearance; the reporting of an investigation; the letting of a contract; or the issuance of a grant, license, or other benefit to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to a decision.

e. By GSA or the Office of Personnel Management in the production of summary description statistics and analytical studies in support of the function for which the records are collected and maintained, or for related work force studies. While published statistics do not contain individual identifiers, in some instances the selection of elements of data included in the study may be structured in such a way as to make the data individually identifiable by inference.

f. To officials of the Merit Systems Protection Board, including the Office of Special Counsel; the Federal Labor Relations
