COMMISSION ON CIVIL RIGHTS

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: United States Commission on Civil Rights.

ACTION: Notice of a new system of records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, the United States Commission on Civil Rights (Commission) proposes to establish a new system of records titled, "CCR/Internal—Advisory Committee Records." This system of records will include information that the Commission collects and maintains on applicants to advisory committees.

DATES: Submit comments on or before April 20, 2023. This new system is effective upon publication in the Federal Register, except for the routine uses, which are effective April 25, 2023.

ADDRESSES: You may submit written comments to publicaffairs@usccr.gov and/or sccoart@usccr.gov. All submissions received must include the agency name and docket number for this Federal Register document. The general policy for comments and other submissions from members of the public is to make them available for public viewing on the internet at www.usccr.gov/news/advisory-committees-news and/or <https://www.usccr.gov/news/commission-news> as they are received without change, including any personal identifiers or contact information.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For general questions, please contact: David Ganz, General Counsel, United States Commission on Civil Rights at dganz@usccr.gov or Tina Louise Martin, Director, Office of Management, U.S. Commission on Civil Rights at tmartin@usccr.gov. Please put “CCR/Internal State Advisory Committee Records SORN” in the subject line of your email.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, the Commission proposes to establish a new system of records titled, “CCR/Internal—State Advisory Committee Records.” This system of records covers the Commission’s collection and maintenance of records on applicants for Advisory Committees.

The USCCR’s Advisory Committees were created to hold briefings with expert/public testimony and produce reports and advisory memoranda, which are then sent to the Commission. The Commission was established by the Civil Rights Act of 1957, Public Law 815–315, and subsequently codified in the Civil Rights Commission Amendments Act of 1994, Public Law 103–419. The Commission, including its 56 Advisory Committees for all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and five U.S. territories, publishes reports following investigations; the Commission’s reports include findings and recommendations to inform the President, Congress, and the public on important civil rights issues.

The USCCR identifies candidates for Advisory Committee membership through a variety of methods, including, but not limited to, public requests for nominations; recommendations from existing advisory committee members; consultations with knowledgeable persons outside the USCCR; requests to be represented received from individuals and organizations; and Commissioners’ and USCCR staff’s professional knowledge of those experienced in civil rights issues. Following the application and identification process, the USCCR develops a list of proposed members with the relevant points of view needed to ensure membership balance. The Commissioners then votes to appoint individuals to serve.

The collection of information is necessary to support the USCCR Advisory Committees. Pursuant to the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA), an agency must ensure that a committee is balanced with respect to the viewpoints represented and the functions to be performed by that committee. Consistent with this, in order to select individuals for potential membership on an advisory committee, the USCCR must determine that potential members are qualified to serve on an advisory committee and that the viewpoints are properly balanced on the committee.

The Commission has provided a report of this system of records to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(r) and OMB Circular A–108, “Federal Agency Responsibilities for Review, Reporting, and Publication under the Privacy Act,” dated December 23, 2016. This system will be included in the Commission’s inventory of record systems.

U.S. Commission on Civil Rights.

David Ganz,
General Counsel.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

The Civil Rights Act of 1957, Public Law 815–315, and subsequently modified in the Civil Rights Commission Amendments Act of 1994, 42 U.S.C. 1975a; 45 CFR part 703 (Operations and Functions of State Advisory Committees); Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA), Public Law 92–463 codified as 5 U.S.C. App. 2; 41 CFR part 102–3 (Federal Advisory Committee Management Regulations.)

PURPOSE(S) OF THE SYSTEM:

The purpose of this system of records is to allow the Commission to collect and maintain records on applicants to State Advisory Committees.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Applicants to State and Territory Advisory Committees.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

- Applicant’s name and address;
- Applicant’s contact information;
- Applicant’s experience in civil rights;
- Applicant’s resume, prior education and professional experience;
- Applicant’s personal information that was voluntarily submitted as part of their Advisory Committee application, which may include, political and ideological identification, race/ethnicity, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, languages spoken, disability status, age, religion, and veteran status and, if, any, journal publications or social media handles;

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Information is obtained from the individuals who submit their application to the State and Territory Advisory Committee.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b) of the Privacy Act, all or a portion of the records or information contained in this system may be disclosed outside the Commission as a routine use pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3) as follows:

a. To the Department of Justice, including Offices of the U.S. Attorneys; another Federal agency conducting litigation or in proceedings before any court, adjudicative, or administrative body; another party in litigation before a court, adjudicative, or administrative body; or to a court, adjudicative, or administrative body. Such disclosure is permitted only when it is relevant or necessary to the litigation or proceeding, and one of the following is a party to the litigation or has an interest in such litigation:

(1) The Commission, or any component thereof;

(2) Any employee or former employee of the Commission in his or her official capacity;

(3) Any employee or former employee of the Commission in his or her capacity where the Department of Justice or the Commission has agreed to represent the employee;

(4) The United States, a Federal agency, or another party in litigation before a court, adjudicative, or administrative body, upon the Commission's General Counsel's approval, pursuant to 5 CFR part 295 or otherwise.

b. To the appropriate Federal, State, or local agency responsible for investigating, prosecuting, enforcing, or implementing a statute, rule, regulation, or order, when a record, either on its face or in conjunction with other information, indicates or is relevant to a violation or potential violation of civil or criminal law or regulation.

c. To a member of Congress from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry made at the request of the individual to whom the record pertains.

d. To the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) for records management inspections being conducted under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

e. To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (1) the Commission suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records; (2) the Commission has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach, there is a risk of harm to individuals, the Commission (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the Commission's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

f. To another Federal agency or Federal entity, when the Commission determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (1) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (2) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach.

g. To contractors, grantees, experts, consultants, or volunteers performing or working on a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement, or other assignment for the Commission when the Commission determines that it is necessary to accomplish an agency function related to this system of records. Individuals provided information under this routine use are subject to the same Privacy Act requirements and limitations on disclosure as are applicable to Commission employees.

h. To another Federal agency or commission with responsibility for labor or employment relations or other issues, including equal employment opportunity and reasonable accommodation issues, when that agency or commission has jurisdiction over reasonable accommodation.

i. To an authorized appeal grievance examiner, formal complaints examiner, administrative judge, equal employment opportunity investigator, arbitrator, or other duly authorized official engages in investigation or settlement of a grievance, complaint, or appeal filed by an individual who requested a reasonable accommodation or other appropriate modification.

j. To another Federal agency, including but not limited to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Office of Special Counsel to obtain advice regarding statutory, regulatory, policy, and other requirements related to reasonable accommodation.

k. To another Federal agency or entity authorized to procure assistive technologies and services in response to a request for reasonable accommodation.

l. To first aid and safety personnel if the individual's medical condition requires emergency treatment.

m. To another Federal agency or oversight body charged with evaluating the Commission's compliance with the laws, regulations, and policies governing reasonable accommodation requests.

n. To another Federal agency pursuant to a written agreement with the Commission to provide services (such as medical evaluations), when necessary, in support of reasonable accommodation decisions.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

The records in this system of records are stored electronically on the Commission's local area network or with FedRAMP-authorized cloud service providers segregated from non-government traffic and data, with access limited to a small number of personnel. In addition, paper records are stored in locked file cabinets in access-restricted offices.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS:

Records may be retrieved by name or other unique personal identifiers.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF RECORDS:

Records in this system of records are maintained in accordance with the General Records Schedule 2.3 and are destroyed three years after separation from the agency or all appeals are concluded, whichever is later, but longer retention is authorized if requested for business use.

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

Records in the system are protected from unauthorized access and misuse through various administrative, technical, and physical security measures. Commission security measures are in compliance with the Federal Information Security Modernization Act (Pub. L. 113-283), associated Commission policies, and applicable standards and guidance from the National Institute of Standards and Technology. Strict controls have been imposed to minimize the risk of compromising the information that is stored. Access to the paper and electronic records in this system of records is limited to those individuals who have a need to know the information for the performance of their official duties and who have appropriate clearances or permissions.

RECORDS ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Individuals seeking notification of and access to their records in this system of records may submit a request in person or in writing to the Office of the General Counsel, United States, Commission on Civil Rights 1331 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Suite 1150, Washington, DC 20425 or by emailing dganzz@usccr.gov.
