On April 26, 2011, OFAC issued GL 5 to authorize certain transactions otherwise prohibited by Executive Order (E.O.) 13566 of February 25, 2011, “Blocking Property and Prohibiting Certain Transactions Related to Libya” (76 FR 11315, March 2, 2011). On July 1, 2011, OFAC incorporated the prohibitions of E.O. 13566 into the Libyan Sanctions Regulations, 31 CFR part 570 (LSR). On August 19, 2011, OFAC issued GL 6 to authorize certain transactions otherwise prohibited by the LSR or E.O. 13566. On September 23, 2011, OFAC issued GL 8A to authorize certain transactions otherwise prohibited by the LSR. Each GL was made available on its website (www.treas.gov/ofac) when it was issued.

On December 16, 2011, OFAC issued GL 11 to unblock all property and interests in property of the Government of Libya, with which transactions were authorized pursuant to GL 8A. On August 8, 2012, the interim Transitional National Council of Libya, the internationally recognized Libyan government with which transactions were authorized pursuant to GLs 5 and 6, dissolved and transferred power to the Libyan General National Congress. OFAC is revoking GLs 5, 6, and 8A and will remove the GLs from OFAC's website. The text of these GLs is provided below.

U.S. persons are authorized to engage in transactions with or involving Qatar Petroleum or the Vitol group of companies related to oil, gas, or petroleum products exported from Libya under the auspices of the Transitional National Council of Libya (the "TNC"), provided that neither the Government of Libya nor any other person whose property and interests in property are blocked—with the exception of Arab Gulf Oil Company ("Agoco"), as an entity operating in areas controlled by the TNC and under the auspices of the TNC—receives any benefit from such transactions.

U.S. persons purchasing oil, gas, or petroleum products from Qatar Petroleum or the Vitol group of companies pursuant to this general license are required to submit a report to the Office of Foreign Assets Control detailing such transactions within 30 days of the transactions, including information describing due diligence mechanisms to verify that neither the Government of Libya nor any other person whose property and interests in property are blocked, with the exception of Agoco, is receiving any benefits from such transactions. Guidance and General License With Respect to the Transitional National Council of Libya as the Legitimate Governing Authority for Libya

On February 25, 2011, the President issued Executive Order 13566 ("E.O. 13566") in response to the violent actions of Colonel Muammar Qadhafi and his government against the people of Libya, as well as to protect Libyan state assets from misappropriation. E.O. 13566 blocks all property and interests in property of, inter alia, the Government of Libya, its agencies, instrumentalities, and controlled entities, and the Central Bank of Libya, as well as all property in which Colonel Qadhafi, certain members of his family, and certain senior members of his regime have an interest, unless otherwise authorized. On July 15, 2011, the Secretary of State announced that, until an interim authority is in place, the United States recognizes the Transitional National Council of Libya as the legitimate governing authority for Libya. In light of this recognition, E.O. 13566's prohibitions now technically encompass the Transitional National Council of Libya, its agencies, instrumentalities, and controlled entities (the "TNC"), in addition to the Qadhafi regime, including its agencies, instrumentalities, and controlled entities. To address this, the Office of Foreign Assets Control is issuing the following general license to broadly authorize transactions with the TNC, as follows:

(a) Effective July 15, 2011, all transactions involving the TNC are authorized, subject to the following limitations:

(1) The transactions do not involve any other person whose property and interests in property are blocked; and

(2) All property and interests in property blocked pursuant to E.O. 13566 or the Libyan Sanctions Regulations as of August 19, 2011, remain blocked.

(b) Except to the extent otherwise provided, all property and interests in property of the Qadhafi regime and persons who are included on OFAC's list of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons (the "SDN List") remain blocked, and all transactions involving the Qadhafi regime and persons who are included on the SDN List, including the making of any contribution or provision of funds, goods, or services by them, to them, or for their benefit, continue to be prohibited.
