

On July 1, 2022, EPA published the RFS annual rules for 2020, 2021, and 2022. Renewable Fuel Standard (RFS) Program: RFS Annual Rules, 87 FR 39600 (July 1, 2022) (“2020–2022 RFS Annual Rule”). On July 20, 2022, CBD filed a petition for review of the 2020–2022 RFS Annual Rule challenging whether EPA complied with the consultation requirements of ESA section 7(a)(2), 16 U.S.C. 1536(a)(2); the CAA, 42 U.S.C. 7545(o)(2)(B)(ii)(I); and the APA, 5 U.S.C. 706. On September 27, 2022, CBD filed a motion for summary vacatur of the 2020–2022 RFS Annual Rule. Center for Biological Diversity v. Environmental Protection Agency, Case No. 22–1164 (D.C. Cir.), Doc. 1966328.

Under the proposed settlement agreement, EPA would commit to complete its ESA section 7(a) consultation for the RFS rule subsequent to the 2020–2022 RFS Annual Rule that EPA proposed on December 30, 2023. Renewable Fuel Standard (RFS) Program: Standards for 2023–2025 and Other Changes, 87 FR 80582 (December 30, 2022) (“2023–2025 RFS Set Rule”). If either the Fish and Wildlife Service or the National Marine Fisheries Service issues a biological opinion in connection with this ESA consultation, EPA would also agree to issue a determination addressing any conservation recommendations, terms and conditions of any incidental take statement, and/or reasonable and prudent alternatives within the time frames set forth in that biological opinion. CBD would agree to dismiss with prejudice its challenge to the 2020–2022 RFS Annual Rule within five days of receiving notice from EPA that it has terminated the ESA section 7(a) consultation for the 2023–2025 RFS Set Rule.

The proposed Settlement Agreement also includes standard language regarding resolution of costs and attorneys’ fees, stipulation of extensions, lapses in appropriations, disputes in implementation, preservation of Agency discretion, and the CAA section 113(g) process.

In accordance with section 113(g) of the CAA, for a period of thirty (30) days following the date of publication of this document, the Agency will accept written comments relating to the proposed settlement agreement. EPA or the Department of Justice may withdraw or withhold consent to the proposed settlement agreement if the comments disclose facts or considerations that indicate that such consent is inappropriate, improper, inadequate, or inconsistent with the requirements of the CAA.

III. Additional Information About Commenting on the Proposed Settlement Agreement

Submit your comments, identified by Docket ID No. EPA–HQ–OGC–2023–0212, via <https://www.regulations.gov>. Once submitted, comments cannot be edited or removed from this docket. EPA may publish any comment received to its public docket. Multimedia submissions (audio, video, etc.) must be accompanied by a written comment. The written comment is considered the official comment and should include discussion of all points you wish to make. For additional submission methods, the full EPA public comment policy, information about CBI or multimedia submissions, and general guidance on making effective comments, please visit <https://www.epa.gov/dockets/commenting-epa-dockets>. For additional information about submitting information identified as CBI, please contact the person listed in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section of this document. If you submit an electronic comment, EPA recommends that you include your name, mailing address, and an email address or other contact information in the body of your comment. This ensures that you can be identified as the submitter of the comment and allows EPA to contact you in case EPA cannot read your comment due to technical difficulties or needs further information on the substance of your comment. Any identifying or contact information provided in the body of a comment will be included as part of the comment that is placed in the official public docket and made available in EPA’s electronic public docket. If EPA cannot read your comment due to technical difficulties and cannot contact you for clarification, EPA may not be able to consider your comment.

Use of the <https://www.regulations.gov> website to submit comments to EPA electronically is EPA’s preferred method for receiving comments. The electronic public docket system is an “anonymous access” system, which means EPA will not know your identity, email address, or other contact information unless you provide it in the body of your comment.

Please ensure that your comments are submitted within the specified comment period. Comments received after the close of the comment period will be marked “late.” EPA is not required to consider these late comments.
