DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

Solicitation of Nominations for Organizations To Serve as Non-Voting Liaison Representatives to the Advisory Committee on Women’s Services (ACWS) Subcommittee on Maternal Mental Health; Second Notice

AGENCY: Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), Department of Health and Human Services.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) within the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), is soliciting nominations from qualified organizations to be considered for non-voting liaison representative positions on a subcommittee of the Advisory Committee for Women’s Services (ACWS) focused on maternal mental health.

DATES: Nomination period is open until May 31, 2023.

ADDRESSES: All nominations should be sent to Valerie Kolick, Designated Federal Officer, Advisory Committee on Women’s Services, SAMHSA, 18th Floor, 5600 Fishers Ln., Rockville, MD 20857. Nomination materials, including attachments, may be submitted electronically to valerie.kolick@samhsa.hhs.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Valerie Kolick, Designated Federal Officer, Advisory Committee on Women’s Services, SAMHSA, 5600 Fishers Ln., Rockville, MD 20857. Telephone number (240) 276–1738. Inquiries can be sent to valerie.kolick@samhsa.hhs.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The ACWS subcommittee will consist of 5 non-voting liaison representatives who are nominated by their organizations to serve as the representatives of their organizations and selected by the ACWS DFO. The ACWS’s role is to advise the Associate Administrator for Women’s Services (AAWS) on appropriate activities to be undertaken by the agencies of the Administration with respect to women’s substance use and mental health services, including services which require a multidisciplinary approach. These may include discussion on the development of policies and programs regarding women’s issues; plans to standardize and enhance the collection of data on women’s health, and other emerging issues concerning women’s substance use and mental health services. In particular, this subcommittee will focus on maternal mental health issues (which includes substance use) including prevention, screening, diagnosis, treatment, equity and community-based interventions. These five non-voting liaison representative positions will be occupied by individuals who are nominated by their organizations to serve as representatives of organizations concerned with maternal mental health. Organizations will be designated to occupy the positions for a two-year term to commence during the 2023 calendar year. Nominations of qualified organizations are being sought for these five non-voting liaison representative positions. The organizations chosen for representation on ACWS subcommittee will be selected by the Designated Federal Officer (DFO) or designee during the 2023 calendar year. Details of nomination requirements are provided below.

The purpose of the ACWS is to advise the Associate Administrator for Women’s Services (AAWS) on appropriate activities to be undertaken by the agencies of the Administration with respect to women’s substance abuse and mental health services, including services which require a multidisciplinary approach. These may include discussion on the development of policies and programs regarding women’s issues; plans to standardize and enhance the collection of data on women’s health, and other emerging issues concerning women’s substance abuse and mental health services.

Management and support services for Committee activities are provided by staff from the HHS SAMHSA. The ACWS charter is available at <https://www.samhsa.gov/about-us/advisory-councils/acws/committee-charter>. ACWS meetings are held not less than two times per fiscal year. The ACWS shall consist of not more than ten (10) members to be appointed by the Assistant Secretary for Mental Health and Substance Use, a majority of whom shall be women, who are not officers or employees of the Federal Government. Members shall be from among physicians, practitioners, treatment providers, and other health professionals, whose clinical practice, specialization, or professional expertise includes a significant focus on women’s substance use and mental health conditions.

Subcommittees of the ACWS may be established with the approval of the Assistant Secretary or the AAWS. The advice/recommendations of a subcommittee must be deliberated by the parent committee. A subcommittee may not provide advice or work products directly to the agency. The Department Committee Management Officer will be notified upon the establishment of each subcommittee and will be provided information on its name, membership, function, and estimated frequency of meetings.

Nominations

SAMHSA is requesting nominations of organizations to fill five non-voting liaison representative positions for the ACWS Subcommittee on maternal mental health. The organizations for representation will be selected by the
