(3) Should the Office modify any aspect of the MTA Pilot Program? Should the Office continue to provide the options of receiving preliminary guidance and being able to revise an MTA, as currently implemented?

(4) Assuming the MTA Pilot Program should remain, should any aspect of preliminary guidance, as currently provided by the Board, be changed?

(5) What barriers, if any, exist that the Office can address to increase the effectiveness of the MTA procedure?

(6) Should the Office modify its practice of when the Board can or should raise a new ground of unpatentability, and if so, how? For example, should the PTAB's decision in the Hunting Titan case continue to guide when and how the Board can and should raise a new ground of unpatentability? If so, why and how?

(7) Should the Office involve patent examiner assistance in relation to MTAs? Should the Office conduct a prior art search in relation to proposed substitute claims in certain situations? If so, under what circumstances? And should examiner assistance or prior art searches be limited in any way?

(8) Should the Office clarify in its rules where the burden of persuasion for Board-raised grounds lies? Who should bear that burden?

(9) Should any other aspects of the MTA rules (37 CFR 42.121, 42.221), including as they relate to the Board's discretion to grant or deny an MTA, be changed, and if so, how?
