Comments

You may access the information collection instrument with instructions, or additional information by visiting the Federal eRulemaking Portal site at: <http://www.regulations.gov> and enter USCIS–2007–0034 in the search box. All submissions will be posted, without change, to the Federal eRulemaking Portal at <http://www.regulations.gov>, and will include any personal information you provide. Therefore, submitting this information makes it public. You may wish to consider limiting the amount of personal information that you provide in any voluntary submission you make to DHS. DHS may withhold information provided in comments from public viewing that it determines may impact the privacy of an individual or is offensive. For additional information, please read the Privacy Act notice that is available via the link in the footer of <http://www.regulations.gov>.

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of This Information Collection

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The 15-member RAC advises the Secretary of the Interior, through the BLM, on a variety of public land issues in the Southwest District, which consists of the Gunnison, Tres Rios, and Uncompahgre field offices.

The RAC will conduct a float trip on the Gunnison River on June 14, 2023, putting in at the Gunnison Forks Day Use Area and taking out at the Orchard Boat Ramp. Planned agenda items for the June 15, 2023, meeting at the Uncompahgre Field Office include field manager updates, the election of a RAC chairperson, and recreation-related discussions.

The RAC will conduct a field tour on October 10, 2023, to view BLM trail systems near the Town of Silverton. Planned agenda items for the October 11, 2023, meeting at the Gunnison Field Office include field manager updates, recommendations by the RAC's Sheep Grazing Subcommittee to the full RAC regarding domestic sheep grazing in bighorn sheep habitat, and further discussion of trail issues identified during the field tour.

Depending on weather conditions, the RAC will conduct a field tour on February 6, 2024, to view feral horses in Canyons of the Ancients National Monument or tour curation facilities at Canyons of the Ancients Visitor Center and Museum. Planned agenda items for the February 7, 2024, meeting at the Tres Rios Field Office include field manager updates and discussions on livestock grazing allotments.

All meetings are open to the public. Participants wishing to attend virtually must register in advance. Registration, participation information, and final agendas will be posted on the RAC web page at <https://www.blm.gov/get-involved/resource-advisory-council/near-you/colorado/southwest-rac>.

All field tours are open to the public. Group size for field tours may be limited. Members of the public planning to attend field tours must provide their own meals and transportation, including watercraft and shuttles, and must RSVP 1 week in advance to the Southwest District contact listed in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section of this notice. Please make requests in advance for sign language interpreter services, assistive listening devices, or other reasonable accommodations. We ask that you contact the person listed in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section of this notice at least seven (7) business days prior to the meeting to give the BLM sufficient time to process your request. All reasonable accommodation requests are managed on a case-by-case basis.

A 30-minute public comment period is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. during each of the meetings. Depending on the number of people who wish to comment during the public comment period, time for individual comments may be limited. Written comments may be submitted in advance to the contact listed in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section of this notice. Comments received at least 1 week in advance of the meeting will be provided to RAC members prior to the meeting. Please include "RAC Comment" in your submission.

Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Detailed summary minutes of the RAC meetings will be maintained in the Southwest District Office and will be available for public inspection and reproduction during regular business hours within 90 days following the meeting. Minutes and agendas are also available on the RAC's web page.
