SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Section 106(g) of the No Surprises Act, enacted as part of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021, div. BB, tit. I, Public Law 116–260 (Dec. 27, 2020), requires the Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Secretary of the Transportation (the Secretaries) to establish and convene an advisory committee for the purpose of reviewing options to establish quality, patient safety, and clinical capability standards for each clinical capability level of air ambulances. The Advisory Committee is governed by the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA), Public Law 92–463 (Oct. 6, 1972), as amended, 5 United State Code Appendix.

II. Charter and General Responsibilities

The Advisory Committee, established on August 24, 2022, is tasked with reviewing options to establish quality, patient safety, and clinical capability standards for each clinical capability level of air ambulances. As outlined in Section 106(g) of the No Surprises Act, the Advisory Committee shall study and make recommendations, as appropriate, to the Congress regarding each of the following with respect to air ambulance services:

- Qualifications of different clinical capability levels and tiering of such levels.
- Patient safety and quality standards.
- Options for improving service reliability during poor weather, night conditions, or other adverse conditions.
- Differences between air ambulance vehicle types, services, and technologies, and other flight capability standards, and the impact of such differences on patient safety.
- Clinical triage criteria for air ambulances.

The Advisory Committee must submit these recommendations no later than 180 days after the date of its first meeting.

III. Eligibility for Membership

The Advisory Committee shall consist of not more than 13 members, including:

- The Secretary of Health and Human Services, or the Secretary’s designee, who shall serve as Chair of the Committee;
- The Secretary of the Transportation, or the Secretary’s designee;
- One representative, to be appointed by the Secretary of Health and Human Services, of each of the following:
 - ++ State insurance regulators;
 - ++ Health care providers;
 - ++ Group health plans and health insurance issuers offering group or individual health insurance coverage;
 - ++ Patient advocacy groups;
 - ++ Accrediting bodies with experience in quality measures.
- Three representatives of the air ambulance industry, to be appointed by the Secretary of Transportation, and
 - Three additional representatives, not covered above, as determined necessary and appropriate by the Secretary of Health and Human Services and Secretary of Transportation.

Individuals applying for membership should keep in mind that Committee members will be selected based on their ability and willingness to effectively represent the interests of all stakeholders in their category, as distinct from their parochial or personal interests. For example, an individual selected to serve on the Committee as a representative of consumer advocacy groups would represent not only his or her own organization, but all consumer advocacy groups. As such, the individual would be expected to consult with other consumer groups in bringing issues to the table and making decisions on proposals before the Committee.

IV. Nomination Process

The Secretaries are requesting nominations for membership on the
