Announcement Type: Initial.

Statutory Authority: The statutory authority for grants under this program announcement is contained in the Elder Justice Act, section 2042(b) of title XX of the Social Security Act [Pub. L. 74–271] [As Amended Through Pub. L. 115–123, Enacted February 9, 2018] as referenced in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2023, Public Law 117–328.

Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) Number: 93.698.

DATES: The deadline date for the submission of the Elder Justice Act—Adult Protective Services Letter of Assurance is 11:59 p.m. EST (30 days after date of publication).

I. Funding Opportunity Description

The Administration for Community Living (ACL) is establishing the “Elder Justice Act—Adult Protective Services funding opportunity in accordance with section 2042(b) of subtitle B of title XX of the Social Security Act, otherwise known as the Elder Justice Act (EJA) as authorized and funded through the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2023, Public Law 117–328. In accordance with these statutes, the purpose of this opportunity is to enhance and improve adult protective services provided by States, the District of Columbia, and the Territories. Funds awarded to States and Territories under this opportunity will provide Adult Protective Services (APS) programs in the States, District of Columbia, and Territories with resources to enhance, improve, and expand the ability of APS to investigate allegations of abuse, neglect, and exploitation. Examples of activities consistent with the purposes of the statute include:

- Costs and salaries for hiring permanent or temporary staff members, extended hours/over-time for current staff, and associated personnel costs;
- Costs associated with providing goods and services to APS clients;
- Costs associated with community outreach, including public awareness campaigns and other resources designed to increase the public’s awareness and understanding of APS’ role in the community;
- Training costs, including state-wide training conferences for APS staff;

- Acquiring personal protection equipment and supplies;
- Improving and enhancing technology systems, including supporting remote work, such as the purchase of communications and technology hardware, software, or infrastructure in order to provide adult protective services;
- Improving data collection and reporting at the case worker, local-, and state-levels in a manner that is consistent with the National Adult Maltreatment Reporting System (NAMRS);
- Improving or enhancing existing APS processes for receiving reports, conducting intakes and investigations, planning/providing for services, making case determinations, documenting and closing cases, and continuous quality improvement;
- Working with tribal adult protective services efforts, such as conducting demonstrations on state-Tribal APS partnerships to better serve tribal elders who experience abuse, neglect, and exploitation, partnering with Tribes within the state to include tribal elder abuse data in the state’s National Adult Maltreatment Reporting System (NAMRS) reporting, and undertaking demonstrations to better understand elder abuse experienced by tribal individuals living in non-tribal communities and served by state APS programs;
- Establishing or enhancing the availability for elder shelters and other emergency, short-term housing and accompanying “wrap-around” services for APS clients;
- Establishing, expanding, or enhancing state-wide and local-level elder justice networks for the purpose of removing bureaucratic obstacles and improving coordination across the many state and local agencies interacting with APS clients who have experienced abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
- Costs associated with establishing new, or improving existing processes for responding to alleged scams and frauds;
- Costs associated with assisting APS clients secure the least restrictive option for emergency or alternative housing, and with obtaining, providing, or coordinating with care transitions as appropriate;
- Costs associated with transporting APS clients to necessary appointments, such as medical visits; and
- Costs associated with establishing grants or contracts to address gaps in the APS program identified in the environmental scan previously completed.

Awards authorized under the EJA section 2042(b) shall be provided to the agency or unit of state government having the legal responsibility for providing adult protective services within the state, District of Columbia, or territory. Funding under this opportunity may be used to serve any APS client who meets their state’s statutory or regulatory criteria for client eligibility for APS services. This funding must supplement and not supplant existing funding for APS provided by states and local units of government. Additionally, award recipients will be required to submit federal financial reports and annual program reports related to the activities performed.

II. Award Information

III. Submission Requirements

A. Letter of Assurance

A Letter of Assurance is required to be submitted by the eligible entity in order to receive an award. The Letter of Assurance must include the following:

1. Assurance that the award recipient is the agency or unit of state government legally responsible for providing adult protective services in each state and territory.

2. Assurance that funds will supplement and not supplant existing APS funding.

3. Select one of the following:

a. Assurance that the award recipient’s previously submitted and approved 3–5 year operational plan for improving and enhancing their APS system at the state and local level remains accurate, and that they intend to follow that plan in expending their FY 2023 grant funds; OR

b. Assurance that the award recipient has included an initial spend plan for the FY 2023 funds and will provide an updated 3–5 operational plan within 90 days of award.

4. Assurance that funds will be spent in ways consistent with the Elder Justice Act section 2042(b) and guidance provided by ACL, including the examples of activities consistent with the purposes of the authorizing legislation contained in the Federal Register Notice:

- Personnel costs;
- Providing goods and services to APS clients;
- Community outreach;
- Training;
- Acquiring personal protection equipment and supplies;
- Improving and enhancing technology systems;
- Improving data collection and reporting at the case worker, local-, and state-levels in a manner that is consistent with the National Adult Maltreatment Reporting System;
- Improving or enhancing existing APS processes;
- Working with tribal adult protective services efforts;
- Establishing or enhancing the availability for elder shelters and other emergency, short-term housing and accompanying “wrap-around” services;
- Establishing, expanding, or enhancing state-wide and local-level elder justice networks;
- Improving and supporting remote work;

- Assisting APS clients secure the least restrictive option for emergency or alternative housing, and with obtaining, providing, or coordinating with care transitions as appropriate; and
- Establishing grants and contracts as needed.

5. Assurance to provide federal financial reports and annual program reports related to the activities performed.

B. Initial Spend Plan

An Initial Spend Plan is required only if the previously submitted and approved 3–5 year operational plan needs to be updated. The Initial Spend Plan should outline how the state/territory intends to spend their FY 2023 allotment in response to the needs and challenges to their APS program. The plan should be consistent with the purpose of the authorizing legislation and the description and examples outlined above. The Initial Spend Plan submitted in response to this opportunity is considered a preliminary framework for how the state/territory will plan to spend these funds. The Initial Spend Plan should have the following format: 3–5 pages in length, double-spaced, with 12pt font and 1” margins, with a layout of 8.5” x 11” paper.

C. Unique Entity ID Number

All grant applicants must obtain and keep current a Unique Entity ID (UEI). On April 4, 2022, the unique entity identifier used across the federal government changed from the DUNS Number to the Unique Entity ID (generated by SAM.gov). The Unique Entity ID is a 12-character alphanumeric ID assigned to an entity by SAM.gov. The UEI is viewable in your SAM.gov entity registration record.

D. Intergovernmental Review

[Docket No. FDA-2022-N-2688]

Analay Rico: Final Debarment Order

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA or Agency) is issuing an order under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FD&C Act) permanently debarbing Analay Rico from providing services in any capacity to a person that has an approved or pending drug product application. FDA bases this order on a finding that Ms. Rico was convicted of a felony under Federal law for conduct relating to the development or approval, including the process for development or approval, of any drug product under the FD&C Act. Analay Rico was given notice of the proposed permanent debarment and was given an opportunity to request a hearing to show why she should not be debarred. As of March 3, 2023 (30 days after receipt of the notice), Ms. Rico had not responded. Ms. Rico's failure to respond and request a hearing within the prescribed timeframe constitutes a waiver of her right to a hearing concerning this action.

DATES: This order is applicable June 8, 2023.

ADDRESSES: Any application by Analay Rico for special termination of debarment under section 306(d)(4) of the FD&C Act (21 U.S.C. 335a(d)(4)) may be submitted as follows:

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Section 306(a)(2)(A) of the FD&C Act (21 U.S.C. 335a(a)(2)(A)) requires debarment of an individual from providing services in any capacity to a person that has an approved or pending drug product application if FDA finds that the individual has been convicted of a felony under Federal law for conduct relating to the development or approval, including the process of development or approval, of any drug product under the FD&C Act. On October 18, 2022, Ms. Rico was convicted as defined in section 306(l)(1) of the FD&C Act in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, Miami Division, when the court accepted her plea of guilty and entered judgment against her for one count of conspiracy to commit mail fraud and wire fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. 1349.

The factual basis for this conviction is as follows: As contained in the Information, entered into the docket on March 16, 2021, and the Factual Proffer in support of Ms. Rico's guilty plea, entered into the docket on August 8, 2022, both from her case, Ms. Rico was a clinical research coordinator employed at Tellus Clinical Research, Inc. (Tellus). Tellus was a medical research clinic that conducted clinical trials on behalf of pharmaceutical company sponsors. Among the clinical research trials conducted by Tellus were two different studies of an investigational drug intended to treat opioid dependency sponsored by
