

Program grants totaling $1,600,000 to the International Transportation Learning Center (ITLC) and the New Orleans Regional Transit Authority (NORTA) to redesign a transit bus compartment to improve safety for operators. As the initial piece of this program comes to a close, FTA is interested in hearing from stakeholders on the outcomes of that research and both the short-term and long-term strategies for designing buses of the future.

II. Meeting Participation

This meeting is open to the public. However, FTA particularly invites participation from:

- Labor Unions;
- Disability Community;
- Academia and Researchers;
- Transit Vehicle Manufacturers and Component Manufacturers;
- Standard Development Organizations;
- Professional Associations; and
- Recipients of FTA Funding

Read-ahead materials, including questions for consideration, are available at <https://www.transit.dot.gov/research-innovation/redesign-transit-bus-operator-compartment-improve-safety-operational-efficiency>. Although FTA will engage with virtual attendees during the meeting, FTA recommends that stakeholders submit comments to the docket for consideration. The meeting will be live-captioned and recorded and made available after the webinar on the web page noted above.

This listening session will help FTA gather broad stakeholder input on key issues, including operator safety, passenger safety, accessibility, bus component safety, reduction of bus customization, and emerging technologies related to transit vehicles.

III. Docket Information

FTA requests that anyone who cannot participate in this online listening session submit written comments to the docket as soon as practicable. In addition, FTA will place any written materials it receives during the meeting in the docket.

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 5312.

Nuria I. Fernandez, Administrator.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Department of the Treasury.

ACTION: Notice of a modified system of records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, the Department of the Treasury (“Treasury” or “Department”), Treasury proposes to propose to modify a current Treasury system of records titled, “Department of the Treasury—.018 E-Rulemaking System of Records” under the Privacy Act of 1974 for the online collection through the Federal Docket Management System and/or Regulations.gov of public comments to notices of proposed rulemaking, proposed orders, and other policy or regulatory actions that are published in the Federal Register or rules or rule amendments, petitions, and other input collected from the public that may not be associated with statutory or regulatory notice and comment requirements.

DATES: Submit comments on or before July 17, 2023. The new routine uses will be applicable on July 17, 2023 unless Treasury receives comments and determines that changes to the system of records notice are necessary.

ADDRESSES: Comments may be submitted to the Federal eRulemaking Portal electronically at <http://www.regulations.gov>. Comments can also be sent to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Privacy, Transparency, and Records, Department of the Treasury, 1500 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20220, Attention: Revisions to Privacy Act Systems of Records. All comments received, including attachments and other supporting documents, are part of the public record and subject to public disclosure. All comments received will be posted without change to www.regulations.gov, including any personal information provided. You should submit only information that you wish to make publicly available.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For general questions and questions regarding privacy issues, please contact: Ryan Law, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Privacy, Transparency, and Records (202–622–5710), Department of the Treasury, 1500 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20220.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. E-Rulemaking

In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, the Department of the Treasury (“Treasury”) proposes to modify the system of records titled, “Department of the Treasury—.018 E-Rulemaking System of Records.”

Treasury collects comments on rulemakings and other regulatory actions, which it timely publishes on a website to provide transparency in the informal rulemaking process under the Administrative Procedure Act (“APA”), 5 U.S.C. 553. The Treasury also may solicit comments or other input from the public that may not be associated with statutory or regulatory notice and comment requirements.

During an informal rulemaking or other statutory or regulatory notice and comment process, Department personnel may manually remove a comment from posting if the commenter withdraws his or her comments before the comment period has closed or because the comment contains obscenities or other material deemed inappropriate for publication by the Treasury. However, comments that are removed from posting will be retained by the Department for consideration, if appropriate under the APA.

Below is the description of the modified Treasury—.018 E-Rulemaking System of Records.

Treasury has provided a report of this system of records to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, and OMB, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(r) and OMB Circular A–108, “Federal Agency Responsibilities for Review, Reporting, and Publication under the Privacy Act,” dated December 23, 2016.

II. The Privacy Act

Under the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, a “system of records” is defined as any group of records under the control of a Federal Government agency from which information about individuals is retrieved by name or other personal identifier. The Privacy Act establishes the means by which
