American Indian Probate Regulations; Corrections

AGENCY: Bureau of Indian Affairs, Office of the Secretary, Interior.

ACTION: Correcting amendments.

SUMMARY: On December 20, 2021, the Department of the Interior (Department) published a final rule to update the regulations governing probate of property that the United States holds in trust or restricted status for American Indians. We are publishing several corrections to that final rule in this document. These corrections are editorial in nature and involve no substantiative changes to any applicable regulations.

DATES: These corrections are effective on June 20, 2023.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Rachel Lukens, Counsel to the Director, Office of Hearings and Appeals, 801 N Quincy Street, Suite 300, Arlington, VA 22203; (703) 223–9934; email: rachel_lukens@oha.doi.gov. Individuals in the United States who are deaf, deafblind, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability may dial 711 (TTY, TDD, or TeleBraille) to access telecommunications relay services. Individuals outside the United States should use the relay services offered within their country to make international calls to the point-of-contact in the United States.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of the Interior finalized updates to its regulations on December 20, 2021 (86 FR 72068) governing probate of property that the United States holds in trust or restricted status for American Indians, in an effort to continually improve the services the Department provides to individual Indians and Tribes. These updates allow the Office of Hearings and Appeals (OHA) to adjudicate probate cases more efficiently. Following publication, the OHA Probate Hearings Division (Ph.D.) realized that, due to the reorganization of the regulations, multiple cross-references within the regulations were now incorrect. In a number of instances editorial changes created ambiguity in the final language. And the final published version does not contain the correct website address for Ph.D. This action makes the necessary editorial corrections to the Department's regulations.

Administrative Procedure

We have determined, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(3)(B), that prior notice and opportunity for public comment are impractical and unnecessary. Public comment could not inform this correction process in any meaningful way. We have further determined that, under 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(3), the agency has good cause to make this rule effective upon publication, as it is important for the proper administration of our programs for our rulemaking documents published in the Federal Register to be complete and accurate.
