

the term. The National Association of State and Territorial Apprenticeship Directors will be represented by its current President on the public group. Additionally, the Secretary will appoint one of the public members to serve as the ACA Chairperson. After appointments are made, the ACA members will elect two co-chairs—one from the members representing the employers and one from the members representing the labor organizations. Representatives from the U.S. Departments of Commerce, Education, Energy, Health and Human Services, Housing and Urban Development, Transportation, and the Office of Personnel Management will be invited to serve as non-voting, ex officio members. The Acting Assistant Secretary of Labor for ETA will also serve as a non-voting, ex officio member.

Membership Terms: Members will be appointed for a specified term as designated by the Secretary. Appointments to vacancies occurring during the terms of such appointments will be for the unexpired portions of those terms. To the extent permitted by the Federal Advisory Committee Act and other laws, Committee membership should also be consistent with achieving the greatest impact, scope, and credibility among diverse stakeholders. The diversity in such membership includes, but is not limited to, race, gender, disability, sexual orientation, and gender identity.

Candidate Background Checks: In accordance with Departmental policy, all nominees under consideration to serve on the ACA will undergo a candidate background check to ensure there are no adverse legal or enforcement issues with the Department of Labor. Additionally, prior to appointment, final candidates will be required to complete form DLMS 1–900, Appendix A, a self-certification letter regarding criminal background. This form will be shared under separate cover as appropriate.

General Expectations for ACA Members: Candidates for consideration to be members of the ACA must be representative of a constituent base connected to apprenticeship activities. ACA Members should also have:

1. A demonstrated interest in the national apprenticeship system.
2. The ability and readiness to devote time and effort to attend all public ACA meetings, actively participate in ACA deliberations, advocate for the apprenticeship system, and participate in other member activities that are planned. Appointed ACA members will meet publicly on a quarterly basis. The time commitment for these public meetings will range from two to four hours for a virtual meeting and one to two days for an in-person meeting. Meeting locations will vary and consist of a mix between in-person and virtual meetings. Attendance of these quarterly public meetings is mandatory except for limited circumstances. In such limited circumstances, an appointed ACA member will have the opportunity to send a delegate to participate in their place. Delegates should be capable of fully representing the interests of the appointed member and their constituency base. However, ACA membership is not transferable to a delegate and this opportunity should be utilized on a limited and as-needed basis to ensure the balance of perspectives of the appointed membership. Additional tasks of appointed ACA members may include participation in subcommittee meetings, site visits, and/or participation in other group engagement activities. Appointed members, or their delegate in limited circumstances, are expected to attend at least 50% of these additional tasks as scheduled.

3. The ability to analyze issues related to the apprenticeship model and to be a part of the deliberative process of advising the Secretary of Labor regarding innovative and emerging apprenticeship models and best practices.

4. The ability to remain objective and work well as a member of the Committee.
