SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a, governs the means by which the U.S. Government collects, maintains, uses and disseminates personally identifiable information. The Privacy Act applies to information about individuals that is maintained in a “system of records.” A system of records is a group of any records under the control of an agency from which information about an individual is retrieved by the name of the individual or by some identifying number, symbol, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual. See 5 U.S.C. 552a(a)(4) and (5).

Individuals may request access to records containing information about themselves under the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a(b), (c) and (d). However, the Privacy Act authorizes Federal agencies to exempt systems of records from access by individuals under certain circumstances, such as where the access or disclosure of such information would impede national security or law enforcement efforts. Exemptions from Privacy Act provisions must be established by regulation pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(j) and (k).

The Office of Inspector General (OIG) maintains the INTERIOR/OIG-02, Investigative Records, system of records to help facilitate the OIG’s various responsibilities under the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended. The OIG is statutorily directed to conduct and supervise investigations relating to programs and operations of the DOI, to promote economy, efficiency, and effectiveness in the administration of programs and operations, and to prevent and detect fraud, waste, and abuse in such programs and operations. Accordingly, records in the system are used during the course of conducting investigations on individuals and entities suspected of misconduct, fraud, waste, and abuse, other illegal or unethical acts, and in conducting related criminal prosecutions, civil proceedings, and administrative actions. The system also contains records of complaints, requests to investigate, and administrative referrals; records of case initiation; reports, correspondence, notes and memoranda generated by OIG regarding investigations; and records on complainants, subjects, and victims.

The system notice for INTERIOR/OIG-02, Investigative Records, system of records was previously published in the Federal Register at 76 FR 60519 (September 29, 2011), modification published at 86 FR 50156 (September 7, 2021). An updated system of records notice was published elsewhere in the Federal Register denoting updates to the modified INTERIOR/OIG-02, Investigative Records, system of records.

Under 5 U.S.C. 552a(j) and (k), the head of a Federal agency may promulgate rules to exempt a system of records from certain provisions of the Privacy Act. The INTERIOR/OIG-02, Investigative Records, system contains records related to law enforcement investigations that are exempt from provisions of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a(j) and (k). The DOI previously promulgated regulations at 43 CFR 2.254 to exempt records in this system from all provisions of the Privacy Act except subsections (b), (c)(1) and (2), (e)(4)(A) through (F), (e)(6), (7), (9), (10), and (11), and (i) pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2); and to exempt records from subsections (c)(3), (d), (e)(1), (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I), and (f) of the Privacy Act pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(2).

In this notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM), DOI is proposing to claim additional exemptions from subsections (c)(3), (d), (e)(1), (e)(4)(G), (H), and (I), and (f) of the Privacy Act pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(1), (k)(3), and (k)(5) because this system of records contains material that support activities related to investigations. The OIG may waive exemptions on a case-by-case basis where a release would not interfere with or reveal investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, or reveal records on suitability,
