

F. Environment

We have analyzed this rule under Department of Homeland Security Directive 023–01, Rev. 1, associated implementing instructions, and Environmental Planning COMDTINST 5090.1 (series), which guide the Coast Guard in complying with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4321–4370f), and have determined that this action is one of a category of actions that do not individually or cumulatively have a significant effect on the human environment. This rule involves a safety zone encompassing an area extending 500-feet out from a cargo vessel in vicinity of Fenix Marine Services and will last only for the inbound transit. It is categorically excluded from further review under paragraph L60 (a) of Appendix A, Table 1 of DHS Instruction Manual 023–01–001–01, Rev. 1. A Record of Environmental Consideration supporting this determination is available in the docket. For instructions on locating the docket, see the ADDRESSES section of this preamble.

G. Protest Activities

The Coast Guard respects the First Amendment rights of protesters. Protesters are asked to call or email the person listed in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section to coordinate protest activities so that your message can be received without jeopardizing the safety or security of people, places, or vessels.

For the reasons discussed in the preamble, the Coast Guard amends 33 CFR part 165 as follows:

PART 165—REGULATED NAVIGATION AREAS AND LIMITED ACCESS AREAS

■ 1. The authority citation for part 165 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 46 U.S.C. 70034, 70051, 70124; 33 CFR 1.05–1, 6.04–1, 6.04–6, and 160.5; Department of Homeland Security Delegation No. 00170.1, Revision No. 01.3.

■ 2. Add § 165.T11–128 to read as follows:

§ 165.T11–128 Safety Zone; Port of Los Angeles, San Pedro Bay, CA.

(a) Location. The following area is a safety zone: all navigable waters of the port of Los Angeles, from surface to bottom, within a circle formed by connecting all points 500-feet out from the vessel, M/V ZHEN HUA 23, during the vessel's transit within the Port of Los Angeles and the waters inside the Federal breakwaters bounding San Pedro Bay or on the waters within three nautical miles seaward of the Federal breakwaters, respectively.

(b) Definitions. As used in this section, Designated representative means a Coast Guard coxswain, petty officer, or other officer operating a Coast Guard vessel designated by or assisting the Captain of the Port Los Angeles–Long Beach (COTP) in the enforcement of the safety zone.

(c) Regulations.

(1) Under the general safety zone regulations in subpart C of this part, you may not enter the safety zone described in paragraph (a) of this section unless authorized by the COTP or the COTP's designated representative.

(2) To seek permission to enter, contact the COTP or the COTP's representative by hailing Coast Guard Sector Los Angeles–Long Beach on VHF–FM Channel 16 or calling at (310) 521–3801. Those in the safety zone must comply with all lawful orders or directions given to them by the COTP or the COTP's designated representative.

(d) Enforcement period. This temporary safety zone will be enforced from 7 a.m. July 20, 2023, to 12 p.m. July 22, 2023, only during the M/V ZHEN HUA 23's inbound transit to Fenix Marine Services, Pier LA 302, or as announced via Broadcast Notice to Mariners.

(e) Informational broadcasts. The COTP or a designated representative will inform the public of the enforcement date and times for this safety zone via Local Notices to Mariners.

Dated: July 12, 2023.

R.D. Manning,

Captain, U.S. Coast Guard, Captain of the Port Sector Los Angeles–Long Beach.

BILLING CODE 9110–04–P

POSTAL SERVICE

39 CFR Part 233

Circulars and Rewards

AGENCY: Postal Service™.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Postal Inspection Service has the authority to issue monetary rewards for certain types of offenses against the United States Code. Changes in the relevant regulation will be made to reflect an increase in monetary reward amounts and a reclassification of the types of offenses for which rewards can be issued.

DATES: Effective August 21, 2023.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Louis DiRienzo, Chief Counsel, U.S. Postal Inspection Service at 202 268–2705 or ljdirienzo@uspis.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: 39 CFR 233.2 gives Postal Inspection Service the authority to issue monetary rewards for certain types of offenses against the United States Code. 39 CFR 233.2 will be changed to reflect an increase in monetary reward amounts and a reclassification of the types of offenses for which rewards can be issued. Specifically, the rule change will reclassify offenses by categories which were previously classified by monetary amount. Reward amounts for the recategorized offenses will be increased to reflect current valuations and severity of such offenses.

These changes will be mirrored in the publication of the Postal Service's Poster 296, embedded in the footnote of 39 CFR 233.2, which in turn, will facilitate a better understanding of the Postal Service's reward system to the general public. Such changes will further enhance any investigation of the listed offenses and provide a deterrent incentive to the commission of crimes against the Postal Service. Additionally, the new rule adds a reward for mail fraud offenses. These changes will give the Chief Postal Inspector the discretion to authorize rewards exceeding Poster 296 amounts, and to offer rewards for other offenses not specifically listed in Poster 296.

The Postal Service is publishing a final rule to update Postal Service regulations regarding the 39 CFR part 233.2, Circulars and Rewards. The circumstances which created the need for the update were as follows: (1) 39 CFR 233.2 was published as a final rule on March 29, 2004; (2) since the publication of 39 CFR 233.2, no updates have been made; (3) changes to Poster 296 will be simultaneously made with this rule change to increase reward amounts and to recategorize the types of offenses for which rewards can be offered (4) an update to 39 CFR 233.2 is required to ensure its consistency to the current Poster 296 changes.

We will publish an appropriate amendment to 39 CFR part 223 to reflect these changes.

Defrauding the USPS Workers' Compensation Program by any current or former postal employee.

Related Offenses

The United States Postal Service also offers rewards as stated above for information and services leading to the arrest and conviction of any person: (1) for being an accessory to any of the above crimes; (2) for receiving or having unlawful possession of any mail, money, or property secured through the above crimes; and (3) for conspiracy to commit any of the above crimes.

General Provisions

1. The Postal Inspection Service investigates the above-described crimes. Information concerning the violations, requests for applications for rewards, and written claims for rewards should be furnished to the nearest Postal Inspector. The written claim for reward payment must be submitted within 6 months from the date of conviction of the offender, the date of arrest of a previously convicted fugitive, the date of formally deferred prosecution, or the date of the offender's death if the offender was killed while committing a crime or resisting lawful arrest for one of the above offenses.

2. Reward amounts shown above are the maximum amounts that may be paid; however, the Chief Postal Inspector may authorize rewards in excess of the maximum amounts for specific matters. The maximum reward amount that may be paid for information leading to the apprehension of fugitives, or for information and services leading to the arrest and conviction of any person for specific matters, or incidents may be set forth in the specific circular or notices and may be less than the maximum amount listed above.

3. Overall, the actual amount paid on any reward will be based on the significance of information provided or services rendered, character of the offender, risks and hazards involved, time spent, and expenses incurred.

4. The term "custodian" as used herein includes any person having lawful charge, control, or custody of any mail matter, or any money or other property of the United States under the control and jurisdiction of the United States Postal Service.

5. The Postal Service reserves the right to reject a claim for reward where there has been collusion or criminal involvement, or improper methods have been used to effect an arrest or to secure a conviction. It has the right to allow only one reward when several persons were convicted of the same offense, or one person was convicted of several of the above offenses. Postal employees are not eligible to receive a reward.

6. Rewards for additional offenses not specifically listed in this notice may be offered upon approval of the Chief Postal Inspector [39 U.S.C. 404 (a) (7)].

(c) Authorization. The Chief Postal Inspector or his delegate is authorized to pay a reward to any person who provides information leading to the detection of persons or firms who obtain, or seek to obtain, funds, property, or services from the Postal Service based upon false or fraudulent activities, statements, or claims. The decision as to whether a reward shall be paid and the amount thereof shall be solely within the discretion of the Chief Postal Inspector or his delegate and the submission of information or a claim for a reward shall not establish a contractual right to receive any reward. The reward shall not exceed one-half of the amount collected by the Postal Service as a result of civil or criminal proceedings to recover losses or penalties as a result of false or fraudulent claims or statements submitted to the Postal Service. Postal employees assigned to the Postal Inspection Service, the Law Department, or USPS Office of Inspector General are not eligible to receive a reward under this section for information obtained while so employed. The Chief Inspector may establish such procedures and forms as may be desirable to give effect to this section including procedures to protect the identity of persons claiming rewards under this section.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

40 CFR Part 52

[EPA-R09-OAR-2023-0035; FRL-10594-02-R9]

Finding of Failure to Attain the 1987 24-Hour PM₁₀ Standards; Pinal County, Arizona

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is taking final action to determine that the West Pinal County, Arizona nonattainment area ("West Pinal County" or "area") did not attain the 1987 24-hour national ambient air quality standards (NAAQS or "standards") for particulate matter with a diameter of 10 micrometers or smaller (PM₁₀) by its December 31, 2022 "Serious" area attainment date. This action is based on the EPA's calculation of the PM₁₀ design value for the nonattainment area over the 2020-2022 period, using complete, quality-assured, and certified PM₁₀ monitoring data. With this final determination that West Pinal County has failed to attain the PM₁₀ NAAQS by its attainment date, the State of Arizona is required to submit a revision to the Arizona state implementation plan (SIP) that, among other elements, provides for expeditious attainment of the PM₁₀ standards and for a five percent annual reduction in the emissions of direct PM₁₀ or a PM₁₀ plan precursor pollutant in the nonattainment area.

DATES: This rule is effective on August 21, 2023.

ADDRESSES: The EPA has established a docket for this action under Docket ID No. EPA-R09-OAR-2023-0035. All documents in the docket are listed on the <https://www.regulations.gov> website. Although listed in the index, some information is not publicly available, e.g., Confidential Business Information (CBI) or other information whose disclosure is restricted by statute. I. Summary of the Proposed Action

On February 15, 2023, the EPA proposed to determine that the West Pinal County nonattainment area failed to attain the 1987 24-hour PM₁₀ NAAQS by its December 31, 2022 "Serious" area attainment date.¹ For a PM₁₀ nonattainment area classified as Serious under the CAA, such as the West Pinal County area, section 188(c)(2) of the CAA states that the area's attainment date is "as expeditiously as practicable but no later than the end of the tenth calendar year beginning after the area's designation as nonattainment."
