Proposal Under OMB Delegated Authority To Extend for Three Years, With Revision, the Following Information Collection

Collection title: Survey of Household Economics and Decisionmaking.

Collection identifier: FR 3077.

OMB control number: 7100–0374.

General description of collection: The SHED is an ad hoc voluntary survey covering topics such as individuals' overall financial well-being, employment experiences, income and ability to pay bills, economic preparedness, banking and access to credit, housing and living arrangement decisions, education and human capital, student loans, and retirement planning. The overall content of the SHED depends on changing economic, regulatory, or legislative developments as well as changes in the financial services industry. The Board uses the SHED to monitor usage of emerging financial products and understand how macroeconomic conditions are affecting households.

Proposed revisions: The Board proposes to revise the FR 3077 by removing the qualitative ad-hoc surveys, effective November 30, 2023 (however, the annual SHED may still include qualitative components). This revision is to reduce duplication across information collections.

The Board also proposes adding two minutes to the quantitative survey time per response and slightly reducing the potential number of respondents, also effective November 30, 2023. The increase in survey length reflects two adjustments. First, it is intended to provide additional flexibility for new topics related to financial well-being that are covered in the survey. For example, in recent years the survey has included questions on inflation, cryptocurrency, and buy now pay later products which are valuable for understanding financial well-being, and this additional minute will allow the Board to cover these and other emerging issues more thoroughly. Second, because the burden is calculated for all contacted respondents, and response rates have increased in recent years, the computed time per respondent has increased. The slight reduction in potential respondents similarly reflects that the final stage response rate for the survey has exceeded expectations in recent years, thereby requiring fewer contacted respondents.

Frequency: Annually.

Respondents: Non-institutionalized individuals who are 18 years of age and older.

Total estimated number of respondents: 20,500.

Total estimated change in burden: 495.

Total estimated annual burden hours: 8,200.¹
