

III. Sanction

Where, as here, the Government has established grounds to revoke Respondent's registration, the burden shifts to the registrant to show why he can be entrusted with the responsibility carried by a registration. Garret Howard Smith, M.D., 83 FR 18882, 18910 (2018). When a registrant has committed acts inconsistent with the public interest, he must both accept responsibility and demonstrate that he has undertaken corrective measures. Holiday CVS, L.L.C., dba CVS Pharmacy Nos 219 and 5195, 77 FR 62316, 62339 (2012) (internal quotations omitted). Trust is necessarily a fact-dependent determination based on individual circumstances; therefore, the Agency looks at factors such as the acceptance of responsibility, the credibility of that acceptance as it relates to the probability of repeat violations or behavior, the nature of the misconduct that forms the basis for sanction, and the Agency's interest in deterring similar acts. See, e.g., Robert Wayne Locklear, M.D., 86 FR 33738, 33746 (2021).

Here, although Respondent initially requested a hearing, he withdrew his hearing request and did not otherwise avail himself of the opportunity to refute the Government's case. As such, Respondent has made no representations as to his future compliance with the CSA nor made any demonstration that he can be entrusted with registration. In fact, despite having already been subject to state action and a Federal citation in 2017 and thus put on notice of the impropriety of his actions, Respondent failed to change his ways and continued to commit much of the same misconduct. Moreover, the evidence presented by the Government clearly shows that Respondent violated the CSA, further indicating that Respondent cannot be entrusted. Accordingly, the Agency will order the revocation of Respondent's registration.

Order

Abstract: Capital punishment information is collected by the Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) annually as part of the National Prisoner Statistics data series (NPS-8). These establishment surveys provide BJS with the capacity to report annually on changes in the size and composition of persons under State or Federal sentence of death and changes to the laws regulating the imposition and implementation of death sentences in the United States. The NPS-8 covers all persons held in a State or Federal correctional facility under sentence of death at any time during the calendar year. The coverage includes capital prisoners transferred from death row to non-correctional institutions, such as mental hospitals, and prisoners who may have escaped custody. Excluded are capital prisoners who for any reason remain in local correctional institutions outside the jurisdiction of State or Federal correctional authorities from whom data are collected for this series.
