SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Agenda

Tuesday, December 5, 2023

After brief announcements, the Council will receive reports on recent activities from its Chair and Executive Director, the GARFO Regional Administrator, the NOAA Office of General Counsel, the Northeast Fisheries Science Center (NEFSC) Director, the Mid-Atlantic Fishery Management Council liaison, and representatives from the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission (ASMFC), the U.S. Coast Guard, NOAA's Office of Law Enforcement, the Northeast Trawl Advisory Panel, and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. The Council then will receive a progress report from its Risk Policy Working Group, which is continuing to work on revisions to the Council's Risk Policy Statement. Next, members of the public will have the opportunity to speak during an open comment period on issues that relate to Council business but are not included on the published agenda for this meeting. The Council asks the public to limit remarks to 3–5 minutes. These comments will be received both in person and through the webinar. A guide for how to publicly comment through the webinar is available on the Council website at https://s3.amazonaws.com/nefmc.org/NEFMC-meeting-remote-participation_generic.pdf.

After the lunch break, the Council will receive a report from the East Coast Climate Coordination Group about its first meeting on work following up on implementing recommendations from the East Coast Climate Change Scenario Planning Initiative. The Council will engage in a discussion about next steps. The Responsible Offshore Science Alliance (ROSA) will report on the alliance's mission, activities, and steps to support the Council's offshore wind efforts and streamline communications. The Habitat Committee report will follow. The Council will review its comments on the draft Wind Energy Areas for the Gulf of Maine (GOM) and discuss other GOM leasing/planning issues. It also will receive a presentation on other offshore wind and habitat-related updates. To close out the day, the Council will receive a NOAA General Counsel briefing on disclosure of financial interests and voting recusal regulations for regional fishery management council members.
