Purpose(s) of the System: The primary purpose of this system of records is the furtherance of the Department of State's responsibilities to provide consular protection and services for U.S. citizens overseas, as well as its responsibilities as the United States Central Authority under the Hague Adoption and Abduction Conventions. Such responsibilities relate to matters including but not necessarily limited to: adjudication of claims relating to acquisition (providing Consular Report of Birth Abroad and passport services) or loss of U.S. citizenship; assistance to individuals abroad, including in death cases, loan and destitution cases, welfare and whereabouts cases, prisoner (including prisoner transfer) cases, arrest cases, hostage and kidnapping cases; assistance to minors, including to children who may be victims of abuse, neglect, or who are abandoned or runaways; assistance to individuals involved in child support enforcement proceedings; persons collecting federal benefits overseas; resolution of property, estate, and benefits claims arising under pertinent law; assistance to individuals involved in intercountry adoption cases and in possible or actual international child custody disputes and/or international parental child abduction cases, including the fulfillment of the Department's obligations and duties as the United States Central Authority under the Hague Adoption and Abduction Conventions and related authorities; and oversight of accredited and approved adoption service providers and the designated accrediting entities for intercountry adoption.

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System: Individuals, assisted by or who otherwise interact with the Department of State's Directorate of Overseas Citizens Services (OCS), within the Bureau of Consular Affairs, or by or with consular personnel overseas, who: (a) seek to establish a claim to U.S. nationality or inquire about possible loss of U.S. nationality;

(b) apply for U.S. passports and/or Consular Reports of Birth of a U.S. Citizen Abroad; (c) register as U.S. persons living, studying, working, or traveling abroad to include U.S. persons who have demonstrated an intention to travel outside the United States through registering in the Department of State's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program; (d) request and/or receive information or assistance regarding travel abroad; (e) seek assistance from U.S. embassies and/or consulates overseas or from OCS; (f) initiate requests relating to another U.S. citizen's welfare and whereabouts or are themselves the subjects of such requests; (g) are reported as or are otherwise believed to be missing or held hostage overseas; (h) are or may be a victim of a crime abroad; (i) are involved in a case of child welfare abroad, including children who may be victims of abuse, neglect, or who are abandoned or are runaways; (j) are involved in a child support enforcement proceeding; (k) request and/or receive temporary refuge in a U.S. embassy or consulate; (l) request to be and/or are evacuated to the United States or a third country as a result of a civil disorder, natural disaster, or other emergency overseas; (m) request and/or receive assistance, including financial assistance, for repatriation and/or emergency needs; (n) are detained, arrested, or incarcerated overseas and/or their families; (o) request and/or receive notarial or authentication services or judicial assistance; (p) die overseas or are involved in the disposition of a decedent's personal estate; (r) have or assert an interest in property (real or personal) abroad; (s) are living overseas and claim or receive federal benefits; (t) have sought or received assistance or benefits by virtue of having been held hostage overseas or because of their relationship with a person held hostage overseas; (u) vote in U.S. federal and/or state elections while overseas; (v) register with the U.S. Selective Service System while living overseas; (w) are seamen inquiring about consular services; (x) request and/or receive information or assistance regarding the Children's Passport Issuance Alert Program, and/or other international parental child abduction prevention programs; (y) are involved in a possible or actual international child custody dispute and/or international parental child abduction case (covered individuals may include parents and/or guardians, child(ren), and/or any other parties to the case or dispute), including but not limited to a Hague Abduction Convention proceeding for return of or access to a child; (z) seek to adopt and/or adopt a child from a foreign country; (aa) participate in the intercountry adoption process; (bb) are children who are eligible for intercountry adoption and/or are adopted, and either immigrate to or emigrate from the United States, whether or not such adoption is covered by the Hague Convention on Protection of Children and Co-operation in Respect of Intercountry Adoption, Treaty Doc. 105–51, signed May 29, 1993 (Hague Adoption Convention) and its implementing legislation (Intercountry Adoption Act of 2000 (IAA), (42 U.S.C. 14901 et seq.)) and related regulations; (cc) seek to provide, have provided, and/or do provide intercountry adoption services, in connection with an intercountry adoption case whether or not such case is covered by the Hague Adoption Convention and the IAA; and (dd) contribute to, or are a subject of, a complaint in the Complaint Registry created pursuant to 22 CFR 96.68 et seq. Records may also pertain to individuals who are otherwise involved in the discussion, establishment, execution, or definition of United States foreign policy. The Privacy Act defines an individual at 5 U.S.C. 552a(a)(2) as a United States citizen or lawful permanent resident.

Categories of Records in the System: Emergency Medical and Dietary Assistance loan applications; repatriation and evacuation loan applications; past applications for benefits for hostages and/or their families; seamen services records; welfare and whereabouts records; records related to missing persons and hostage cases; Reports of Presumptive Death Abroad; records of U.S. citizens who register as visiting or residing overseas; records related to federal benefits and property claims; records related to arrest cases, death and estate cases, evacuation cases, prisoner, transfer cases, refuge cases, victims of crime cases, child abuse and neglect cases, abandoned children and runaway cases, ; records related to marriage; records related to publicly available attorney and medical professional lists; records related to judicial assistance cases; records related to intercountry adoption cases (including those covered under the Hague Intercountry Adoption Convention and the Intercountry Adoption Act of 2000); records related to possible or actual international child custody disputes and/or international parental child abduction cases, including but not limited to Hague Abduction Convention proceedings for return of or access to a child; and records related to minors entered into the Children’s Passport Issuance Alert Program and other abduction prevention programs. OCS records may also include completed “Local American Citizens Skills/Resources Survey” forms; registration cards; interview worksheets; case notes; fingerprint cards; documents of identity; passenger manifests; and various related forms not otherwise stated. Records in the system may also include communications to and from: U.S. embassies, U.S. consulates, and consular agencies; federal, state, and local government agencies; members of Congress; officials of foreign governments; U.S. and foreign courts; U.S. and foreign nongovernmental organizations, including disaster or emergency relief organizations such as the International Red Cross, Red Crescent and others; the subject(s) of the records, their relatives, and other interested parties; records involving other legal matters; and other administrative records. In addition, the system may contain applications for passports and registration as U.S. citizens; Consular Reports of Birth Abroad; Certificates of Loss of Nationality of the United States; and Consular Reports of Death Abroad. Such records are maintained, stored, subject to and preserved as Passport Records, State–26.

Record Source Categories: These records contain information that is primarily obtained from the individual who is the subject of the records. Information may also be obtained from federal, state, local and foreign government entities and nongovernmental authorities and other relevant entities, commercial sources, and individuals in accordance with the fulfillment of consular responsibilities.

This information may also be released on a need-to-know basis to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to maintain such information. Disclosure of passport applications, Consular Reports of Birth Abroad, Certificates of Loss of Nationality of the United States, Consular Reports of Death, and related documentation, is subject to the routine uses specified in this notice as well as to the routine uses set forth in the System of Records Notice for Passport Records, STATE-26.

The Department of State periodically publishes in the Federal Register its standard routine uses that apply to all its Privacy Act systems of records. These notices appear in the form of a Prefatory Statement (published in Volume 73, Number 136, Public Notice 6290, on July 15, 2008). All these standard routine uses apply to Overseas Citizens Services Records and Other Overseas Records, State-05.

Policies and Practices for Storage of Records: Records are stored both in hard copy and on electronic media. A description of standard Department of State policies concerning storage of electronic records is found here <https://fam.state.gov/FAM/05FAM/05FAM0440.html>. All hard copies of records containing personal information are maintained in secured file cabinets in restricted areas, access to which is limited to authorized personnel only.

Policies and Practices for Retrieval of Records: By individual name, birth date, or other personal identifier if available.

Policies and Practices for Retention and Disposal of Records: Records are retired and destroyed in accordance with published Department of State Records Disposition Schedules as approved by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) and outlined here <https://foia.state.gov/Learn/RecordsDisposition.aspx>. The retention period for Overseas Citizens Services Records and Other Overseas Records spans from two years to permanent, depending on the specific purpose of the collection and the nature of the information. Some files related to requests for government benefits and miscellaneous facilitative services are destroyed six months or one year after issuance. In some instances, files with historical significance are permanent records. Most files related to American Citizens Services consular assistance cases are stored in the Consular Consolidated Database and are retained for 20 years after closure of the case. More specific information may be obtained by writing to the following address: U.S. Department of State; Director, Office of Information Programs and Services; A/GIS/IPS; 2201 C Street NW; Room B-266; Washington, DC 20520.

Administrative, Technical, and Physical Safeguards: All users are given cyber security awareness training which covers the procedures for handling Sensitive but Unclassified information, including personally identifiable information (PII). Annual refresher training is mandatory. In addition, all Department OpenNet users are required to take the Foreign Service Institute's distance learning course instructing employees on privacy and security requirements, including the rules of behavior for handling PII and the potential consequences if it is handled improperly. Before being granted access to Overseas Citizens Services Records and Other Overseas Records, a user must first be granted access to the Department of State computer system. Employees and contractors are instructed that, as a general matter, any disclosure of Department-maintained information about an individual should be of the minimum amount of information reasonably necessary to accomplish the Department objective and undertaken in accordance with guidance contained in the Foreign Affairs Manual.

Department of State employees and contractors may remotely access this system of records using non-Department owned information technology. Such access is subject to approval by the Department's access program and is limited to information maintained in unclassified information systems. Remote access to the Department's information systems is configured in compliance with OMB Circular A-130 multifactor authentication requirements and includes a time-out function.

All Department of State employees and contractors with authorized access to records maintained in this system of records have undergone a thorough background security investigation. Access to the Department of State, its annexes and posts abroad is controlled by security guards and admission is limited to those individuals possessing a valid identification card or individuals under proper escort. Access to computerized files is password-protected and under the direct supervision of the system manager. The system manager has the capability of printing audit trails of access from the computer media, thereby permitting regular and ad hoc monitoring of computer usage. When it is determined that a user no longer needs access, the user account is disabled.

The safeguards in the following paragraphs apply only to records that are maintained in government-certified cloud systems. All cloud systems that provide IT services and process Department of State information must be specifically authorized by the Department of State Authorizing Official and Senior Agency Official for Privacy.

Information that conforms with Department-specific definitions for FISMA low, moderate, or high categorization are permissible for cloud usage and must specifically be authorized by the Department's Cloud Management Office and the Department of State Authorizing Official. Specific security measures and safeguards will depend on the FISMA categorization of the information in a given cloud system. In accordance with Department policy, systems that process more sensitive information will require more stringent controls and review by Department cybersecurity experts prior to approval. Prior to operation, all Cloud systems must comply with applicable security measures that are outlined in FISMA, FedRAMP, OMB regulations, National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Special Publications (SP) and Federal Information Processing Standards (FIPS) and Department of State policies and standards.

All data stored in cloud environments categorized above a low FISMA impact risk level must be encrypted at rest and in-transit using a federally-approved encryption mechanism. The encryption keys shall be generated, maintained, and controlled in a Department data center by the Department key management authority. Deviations from these encryption requirements must be approved in writing by the Department of State Authorizing Official. High FISMA impact risk level systems will additionally be subject to continual auditing and monitoring, multifactor authentication mechanisms utilizing Public Key Infrastructure (PKI) and NIST 800-53 controls concerning virtualization, servers, storage, and networking, as well as stringent measures to sanitize data from the cloud service once the contract is terminated.

Record Access Procedures:

Individuals who wish to gain access to or to amend records pertaining to themselves should write to U.S. Department of State; Director, Office of Information Programs and Services; A/GIS/IPS; 2201 C St. NW, Room B-266; Washington, DC 20520. The individual must specify that he or she wishes Overseas Citizens Services Records and Other Overseas Records to be checked. At a minimum, the individual must include: full name (including maiden name, if appropriate) and any other names used; current mailing address and zip code; date and place of birth; notarized signature or statement under penalty of perjury; a brief description of the circumstances that caused the creation of the record (including the city and/or country and the approximate dates) which gives the individual cause to believe that Overseas Citizens Services Records and Other Overseas Records include records pertaining to him or her. A request to search Overseas Citizens Services Records and Other Overseas Records, STATE-05, will be directed to the Passport Office when it pertains to passport, registration, citizenship, birth or death records, and any records transferred from STATE-05 to STATE-26. Detailed instructions on Department of State procedures for accessing and amending records can be found at the Department's FOIA website (<https://foia.state.gov/Request/Guide.aspx>).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Regulations for Federal and Federally Assisted Programs.

Background: This program implements 42 U.S.C. 4602, concerning acquisition of real property and relocation assistance for persons displaced by Federal and federally-assisted programs. It prohibits the provision of relocation assistance and payments to persons not legally present in the United States (with certain exceptions). The information collected consists of a certification of residency status from affected persons to establish eligibility for relocation assistance and payments. Displacing agencies will require each person who is to be displaced by a Federal or federally-assisted project, as a condition of eligibility for relocation payments or advisory assistance, to certify they are lawfully present in the United States.

Respondents: Federal agencies, 50 State Transportation Departments, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, and the Virgin Islands, local government agencies, persons administering projects or
