Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records

AGENCY: Department of Justice.

On May 25, 2022, the President issued an Executive Order, Advancing Effective, Accountable Policing and Criminal Justice Practices to Enhance Public Trust and Public Safety (the “Executive Order”). Section 5 of the Executive Order directs the Attorney General to establish a National Law Enforcement Accountability Database (the “NLEAD”) documenting instances of law enforcement officer misconduct, commendations, and awards. The Attorney General shall also ensure that the NLEAD is consistent with all applicable laws, including the Privacy Act, and respects appropriate due process protections for law enforcement officers.

DATES: In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11), this notice is effective upon publication, subject to a 30-day period in which to submit comments. Please submit any comments by January 2, 2024.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In Executive Order 14074, the President declared a policy that strives to “strengthen public safety and the bonds of trust between law enforcement and the community and build a criminal justice system that respects the dignity and equality of all in America.” As explained in the Executive Order, one of the many ways to advance that policy is to “commit to new practices in law enforcement recruitment, hiring, promotion, and retention, as well as training, oversight, and accountability.” In furtherance of these goals, Section 5 of the Executive Order directs the Attorney General to establish the NLEAD for official records documenting law enforcement officer misconduct, commendations, and awards. Section 5 provides that the NLEAD include, to the maximum extent permitted by law, the following categories of records documenting: criminal convictions; suspension of a law enforcement officer’s enforcement authorities, such as de-certification; terminations; civil judgments related to official duties, including amounts if publicly available; resignations or retirements while under investigation for serious misconduct;
