

Scoping Comments and the Objection Process. This notice of intent initiates the scoping process. Comments submitted in response to this notice will be considered and will guide the development of the proposed amendment and draft environmental impact statement which will be accompanied by a 90-day comment period. In this scoping period, the Agency is requesting comments on potential alternatives and impacts, and identification of any relevant information, studies, or analyses concerning impacts that may affect the quality of the environment. It is important that reviewers provide their comments at such times and in such manner that they are useful to the agency's preparation of the environmental impact statement. Therefore, comments should be provided prior to the close of the comment period and should clearly articulate the reviewer's concerns and contentions. The agency is planning several webinars to share information about the Northwest Forest Plan and potential proposed actions. See DATES section above for a link to dates, times and links will be https://www.fs.usda.gov/detail/r6/landmanagement/planning/?cid=fsbdev2_026990.

The proposed action is subject to the objection process identified in 36 CFR 219, subpart B (219.50–219.62). Commenting during the opportunity to comment provided by the Responsible Official as prescribed by the applicable regulations will establish eligibility to object once the final environmental impact statement and draft record of decision have been published. Only individuals or entities who submit substantive written comments during the designated comment periods will be eligible to participate in the objection process (36 CFR 219.53(a)). Substantive written comments should be within the scope of the proposed action, have a direct relationship to the proposed action, and include supporting reasons for the Responsible Official to consider. Comments submitted anonymously will be accepted and considered; however, they cannot be used to establish eligibility for the objection process. Comments received in response to this solicitation, including names (and addresses, if included) of those who comment, will be part of the public record for this proposed action.

This preliminary proposed action and other related documents are available for comment on the project website listed in the ADDRESSES section above, and additional information regarding this proposal can be found at <https://> Individuals who use telecommunication devices for the deaf and hard-of-hearing (TDD) may call the Federal Relay Service at 1-800-877-8339, 24 hours per day, every day of the week, including holidays.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act of 2000, as amended, 16 U.S.C. 7125, directs the Secretary of Agriculture to create Secure Rural Schools Advisory Committees to provide advice and recommendations to the Forest Service concerning projects and funding consistent with SRS Title II of the Act. The duties of SRS RACs include monitoring projects, advising the Secretary on the progress and results of monitoring efforts, and making recommendations to the Forest Service for any appropriate changes or adjustments to the projects being monitored by the SRS RACs.

This charter renewal will establish six new committees as follows: Helena-Lewis and Clark RAC in Region 1 by consolidating the Central Montana and Missouri River RACs; the Southern Utah RAC in Region 4 by consolidating Dixie, Fishlake, and Manti-La Sal RACs; Nevada RAC in Region 4 by consolidating Rural Nevada and Lyon-Mineral RACs; the Mt. Baker-Snoqualmie National Forest RAC in Region 6 by consolidating Snohomish-South Mt. Baker-Snoqualmie and North Mt. Baker-Snoqualmie RACs; Umatilla Washington RAC in Region 6 by consolidating Columbia County and Southeast Washington RACs; El Yunque RAC in Region 8.

Meetings for the Secure Rural Schools Advisory Committees will be published on the Federal Register website at least 15 days prior to the meeting date at: www.federalregister.gov. The SRS RACs will be comprised of 15 members. Members must be approved by the Secretary of Agriculture. The SRS RACs shall include representation from the following interest areas:

1. Five persons who represent:
 - a. Organized Labor or Non-Timber Forest Product Harvester Groups,
 - b. Developed Outdoor Recreation, Off Highway Vehicle Users, or Commercial Recreation Activities,
 - c. Energy and Mineral Development, or Commercial or Recreational Fishing Interests,
 - d. Commercial Timber Industry, or
 - e. Federal Grazing or Other Land Use Permits, or Represent NonIndustrial Private Forest Land Owners, within the area for which the committee is organized.
 2. Five persons who represent:
 - a. Nationally Recognized Environmental Organizations,
 - b. Regionally or Locally Recognized Environmental Organizations,
 - c. Dispersed Recreational Activities,
 - d. Archaeological and Historical Interests, or
 - e. Nationally or Regionally Recognized Wild Horse and Burro Interest Groups, Wildlife or Hunting Organizations, or Watershed Associations.
 3. Five persons who represent:
 - a. State Elected Office (or a designee),
 - b. County or Local Elected Office,
 - c. American Indian Tribes within or adjacent to the area for which the committee is organized,
 - d. Area School Officials or Teachers, or
 - e. Affected Public at Large.
- Each member will serve a 4-year term. Balanced representation: In appointing committee members from the 3 categories above, the Secretary shall provide for balanced and broad representation from within each category. In addition, SRS RACs membership will be balanced in terms of the points of view represented and functions to be performed.

Of these members, one will become the Chairperson who is recognized for their ability to lead a group in a fair and focused manner and who has been briefed on the mission of the RAC. A chairperson is selected by a majority of RAC members. The Committee will meet on an annual basis or as needed and determined by the Agency.

In the event that a vacancy arises, the Designated Federal Officer (DFO) may fill the vacancy in the manner in which the original appointments were made. In accordance with the SRS Act, members of the SRS RAC shall serve without compensation. SRS RAC members may be allowed travel and per diem expenses for attendance at committee meetings, subject to approval of the DFO responsible for administrative support to the SRS RAC.

Any interested person or organization may nominate qualified individuals for membership. Interested candidates may nominate themselves. Individuals who wish to be considered for membership on the Secure Rural Schools Advisory Committee must submit a nomination with information, including a background disclosure form (Form AD-755). Nominations should be typed and include the following:

(1) If nominating an individual, a brief summary, no more than two pages, explaining the nominee's qualifications to serve on the Secure Rural Schools Advisory Committee and addressing the membership composition and criteria described above.

(2) A resume providing the nominee's background, experience, and educational qualifications.

(3) A completed background disclosure form (Form AD-755) signed by the nominee. <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/ad-755.pdf>.

(4) Letters of endorsement are optional.

Equal opportunity practices in accordance with USDA policies shall be followed in all appointments to the SRS RACs. To ensure that the recommendations of the SRS RACs have taken into account the needs of the diverse groups served by USDA, membership will, to the extent practicable, include individuals with demonstrated ability to represent all racial and ethnic groups, women and men, and persons with disabilities.

Dated: December 13, 2023.

Cikena Reid,

USDA Committee Management Officer.
