For example, a configured workflow might indicate that when an application is set to a specific status, an email should be sent to the lender. All components (except for very specific web pages) are maintained behind the HUD firewall and controls for securing those components are documented in the GSS. Records in the LEAP system have not run past its retention time. Per the Records Inventory Worksheet FY24, the LEAP Records are held for an indefinite period. Records in this system are housed in the LEAP database.

B. Solicitation of Public Comment

This notice is soliciting comments from members of the public and affected parties concerning the collection of information described in Section A on the following:

(1) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) The accuracy of the agency’s estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information;

(3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond; including through the use of appropriate automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

HUD encourages interested parties to submit comment in response to these questions.

C. Authority

Section 3507 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. chapter 35.

Jeffrey D. Little,

General Deputy Assistant Secretary for Housing.
