Associated funerary objects were removed from CA–SAC–16 (also known as the Bennett Site) in Sacramento County, CA, over a period of more than seven decades by several institutions, agencies, and individuals. Sacramento State's collections stem from a donation made to the University by the estates of Anthony Zallio and Charles McKee, a 1950s excavation by the University under the direction of Richard Reeve, collections transferred to the University in 1977 from American River College (excavation led by Charles Gebhardt), a 1971 excavation by the University led by Ann Peak, and a 1990 excavation by Far Western Anthropological Group who donated the collection to the University. Portions of the collection have been previously published in the Federal Register and repatriated to the Shingle Springs Band of Miwok Indians, Shingle Springs Rancheria (Verona Tract), California. An additional 338,273 associated funerary objects have been identified by the Tribe and consist of baked clay objects; faunal and floral remains; flaked and ground stones; historic materials; modified bones, shells, and stones; unmodified stones; ash, column, flotation, wood, and soil samples; pigments; quartz crystals; asphaltum; unidentified objects; and manuports. Of this number, at least 1,672 objects are currently missing, and California State University, Sacramento continues to look for them.
