

Congress directed the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to implement a comprehensive program for the safe management of hazardous waste. In addition, Congress wrote that “[a]ny person may petition the Administrator for the promulgation, amendment or repeal of any regulation” under RCRA (section 7004(a)). 40 CFR parts 260 and 261 contain provisions that allow regulated entities to apply for petitions, variances, exclusions, and exemptions from various RCRA requirements.

The following are some examples of information required from petitioners under 40 CFR part 260. Under 40 CFR 260.20(b), all rulemaking petitioners must submit basic information with their demonstrations, including name, address, and statement of interest in the proposed action. When a petition is submitted, the Agency reviews materials, deliberates, publishes its tentative decision in the Federal Register, and requests public comment. The EPA also may hold informal public hearings (if requested by an interested person or at the discretion of the Administrator) to hear oral comments on its tentative decision. After evaluating all comments, the EPA publishes its final decision in the Federal Register.

With this renewal, this ICR will no longer include the burden associated with the disposal of coal combustion residuals (CCR) from electric utilities as solid waste under Subtitle D of RCRA, found at 40 CFR part 257, subpart D. That burden is covered by OMB Control Number 2050–0223.

Form Numbers: None.

Respondents/affected entities: Entities potentially affected by this action are the private sector, as well as State, Local, or Tribal Governments.

Respondent's obligation to respond: Required to obtain or retain a benefit (RCRA Sections 1008, 4004, 4005(a)).

Estimated number of respondents: 2,603.

Frequency of response: On occasion.

Total estimated burden: 62,778 hours. Burden is defined at 5 CFR 1320.03(b).

Total estimated cost: $11,679,180, which includes $8,860,784 in annualized capital and O&M costs.

Changes in the estimates: There is total decrease of 240,430 hours in the total estimated respondent burden compared with the ICR currently approved by OMB. There is a decrease of 175,319 hours as the hours associated with the information collection requirements for the disposal of CCR from this ICR were transferred to 2050–0223 in order to better align the collection requirements as they relate to RCRA and the disposal of CCR; specifically, as they relate to 40 CFR part 257. In addition, there was a decrease of $7,538,452 in capital/O&M costs to 2050–0223 as part of this realignment.

The remaining decrease of approximately 65,111 hours and $1,775,173 is an adjustment to the existing estimates based on data gathered through consultations with EPA Regional and State Offices and the regulated community, not due to program changes.

Director, Regulatory Support Division.

Abstract: The New Source Performance Standards (NSPS) for the regulations published at 40 CFR part 60, subpart TT were proposed on January 5, 1981, promulgated on November 1, 1982, and most recently amended on October 17, 2000. These regulations apply to existing and new metal coil surface coating facilities with the following surface coating lines: each prime coat operation; each finish coat operation; and each prime and finish coat operation cured simultaneously, where the finish coat is applied wet-on-wet over the prime coat. New facilities include those that commenced construction, modification, or reconstruction after the date of proposal.

This information is being collected to assure compliance with 40 CFR part 60, subpart TT.

Form Numbers: None.

Respondents/affected entities: Metal coil surface coating facilities.

Respondent's obligation to respond: Mandatory (40 CFR part 60, subpart TT).

Estimated number of respondents: 158 (total).

Frequency of response: Initially, quarterly, occasionally, semiannually, and annually.

Total estimated burden: 16,200 hours (per year). Burden is defined as 5 CFR 1320.3(b).

Total estimated cost: $2,200,000 (per year), which includes $151,000 in annualized capital/startup and/or operation & maintenance costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is no change in burden from the most-recently approved ICR as currently identified in the OMB Inventory of Approved Burdens. This is due to two considerations: (1) the regulations have not changed over the past three years and are not anticipated to change over the next three years; and (2) the growth rate for this industry is very low or non-existent, so there is no significant change in the overall burden. Although there are no changes in the regulatory requirements and there is no significant industry growth, there is a decrease in the operation and maintenance (O&M) costs due to a calculation correction to the number of respondents using temperature monitoring systems.

Director, Regulatory Support Division.
