U.S. Customs and Border Protection

Increase in the NEXUS Application Fee and Change in the NEXUS Application Fee for Certain Minors

AGENCY: U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Department of Homeland Security.

ACTION: General notice.

SUMMARY: In this document, CBP is announcing an increase in the application fee for the NEXUS program and a change in the NEXUS application fee for certain minors. This change to the NEXUS program is being made simultaneously with changes to the Global Entry and Secure Electronic Network for Travelers Rapid Inspection (SENTRI) programs in order to harmonize the fees, application procedures and standard for exempting minors from payment of the application fee. CBP is simultaneously issuing a separate final rule updating the Global Entry and SENTRI regulations to be consistent with the changes herein.

DATES: New applicants and participants applying for renewal, including specified minors under the age of 18, who submit applications to the NEXUS program on or after October 1, 2024, must pay a $120 non-refundable application fee at the time of the application submission.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Rafael E. Henry, Branch Chief, Office of Field Operations, (202) 344-3251, Rafael.E.Henry@cbp.dhs.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) operates several trusted traveler programs at land, sea, and air ports of entry that allow dedicated processing for entry into the United States for certain pre-approved, low-risk travelers. Three of those programs are the Secure Electronic Network for Travelers Rapid Inspection (SENTRI) program, the Global Entry program, and the NEXUS program.¹ Each of these three programs

¹ The Free and Secure Trade (FAST) program is another CBP trusted traveler program that allows pre-approved commercial truck drivers dedicated processing at select commercial ports of entry at the originally had different application fees and a different policy as to whether minors² were charged an application fee. CBP is now harmonizing the application fees and establishing a uniform standard for exempting minors from payment of the application fee. In this document, CBP is announcing that, to harmonize the NEXUS application fee with the Global Entry and SENTRI application fees, the NEXUS application fee will be raised to $120 and certain minors, who are currently exempt from the payment of the application fee, will be required to pay the application fee. CBP is simultaneously issuing a separate final rule updating the Global Entry and SENTRI regulations to make those provisions consistent with the changes herein.³

Overview of the NEXUS Program

The NEXUS program is a joint trusted traveler program between U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and the Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) that allows certain pre-approved, low-risk travelers dedicated processing by both U.S. and Canadian officials at designated lanes at certain northern land border ports of entry, at automated kiosks at Canadian preclearance airports, and at NEXUS marine reporting locations.

An individual is eligible to apply for the NEXUS program if he or she is a citizen or lawful permanent resident of the United States or Canada or is a qualified Mexican national.⁴ Reasons northern and southern land borders. This program has different vetting standards, is offered to a different type of traveler, and does not have the same benefits as the Global Entry, SENTRI, and NEXUS programs. TSA PreCheck is a Department of Homeland Security (DHS) trusted traveler program administered by the Transportation Security Administration (TSA).

² For the purposes of this notice, we use the term "minor" to mean a person who is under the age of 18. The choice of this age range for a minor is based on the standard age of adulthood in the United States (18) as well as the age previously used and currently agreed to by Canada concerning exemption of minors from payment of the NEXUS fee.

³ CBP published a notice of proposed rulemaking in the Federal Register on September 9, 2020, proposing the changes to harmonize the Global Entry and SENTRI application fees and fees for minors consistent with the changes herein. See 85 FR 55597. After review of comments received on that NPRM, CBP is publishing a final rule implementing those proposed changes concurrent with this notice.

⁴ Pursuant to a Memorandum of Understanding between the Department of Public Safety of Canada, the Secretariat of Governance of the United Mexican States, and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Mexican nationals who are members of the Mexican Trusted Traveler Program "Viajero Confiable" are eligible to apply for NEXUS membership. CBP and CBSA will continue to make all eligibility and membership determinations.
