

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The 15-member Idaho RAC advises the Secretary of the Interior, through the BLM, on a variety of public land issues in Idaho. Their diverse perspectives are represented in commodity, non-commodity, and local area interests. The Idaho RAC serves in an advisory capacity to BLM officials concerning issues relating to land use planning and management of public land resources located within the State of Idaho.

On May 14, the RAC will tour BLM managed recreation sites. The May 15 agenda items include presentations and discussions on proposed recreation fee increases within the Coeur d'Alene District and the Salmon Field Office, updates from the State and District Offices, and a pre-season fire outlook. The July 11 agenda items include presentations on renewable energy, recreation, restoration and fuels treatments, fire status, and updates from the State and District Offices. On October 9, the RAC will tour BLM managed restoration and fuels treatments sites showcasing Bipartisan Infrastructure Law and Inflation Reduction Act projects. The October 10 agenda items include presentations and discussions on proposed recreation fee increases within the Idaho Falls and Twin Falls Districts, presentations on restoration and fuels treatments, renewable energy, recreation, a fire season recap, and updates from the State and District Offices.

All meetings and field tours are open to the public, but members of the public who wish to participate in the tours must provide their own transportation and meals. Individuals who plan to attend and need special assistance, such as sign language interpretation or other reasonable accommodations, should contact the BLM (see FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT) at least seven business days prior to the meeting to give the Department of the Interior sufficient time to process your request. All reasonable accommodation requests are managed on a case-by-case basis. Each Idaho RAC meeting will have time allocated for public comments. Depending on the number of persons wishing to speak and the time available, the amount of time for oral comments may be limited. Written public comments may be sent to the BLM Idaho State Office listed in the ADDRESSES section of this notice. All comments received at least one week prior to the meeting will be provided to the Idaho RAC. Please include "RAC comment" in your submission.

Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comments, please be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comments to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so. Detailed summary minutes for the Idaho RAC meetings will be maintained in the BLM Idaho State Office and will be available for public inspection and reproduction during regular business hours within 30 days of the meetings. Previous minutes and agendas are also available on the Idaho RAC web page listed above.

Call for Nominations for Colorado Rocky Mountain Resource Advisory Council

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of call for nominations.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this notice is to request public nominations for the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Colorado's Rocky Mountain Resource Advisory Council (RAC) to fill one existing vacancy. The RAC provides advice and recommendations to the BLM on land use planning and management of the National System of Public Lands within its geographic area.

DATES: All nominations must be received no later than May 16, 2024.

ADDRESSES: Nominations and completed applications should be sent to Levi Spellman, BLM Rocky Mountain District Office, 3028 East Main Street, Cañon City, CO 81212; phone: (719) 269–8553; email: lsPELLMAN@blm.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Kirby-Lynn Shedlowski, BLM Colorado Deputy Communications Director, Denver Federal Center, Building 40 Lakewood, CO 80215; telephone: (303) 239–3671; email: kshedlowski@blm.gov. Individuals in the United States who are deaf, deafblind, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability may dial 711 (TTY, TDD, or TeleBraille) to access telecommunications relay services for contacting Kirby-Lynn Shedlowski. Individuals outside the United States should use the relay services offered within their country to make international calls to the point-of-contact in the United States.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA) directs the Secretary of the Interior to involve the public in planning and issues related to management of lands administered by the BLM. Section 309 of FLPMA (43 U.S.C. 1739) directs the Secretary to establish 10- to 15-member citizen-based advisory councils that are consistent with the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA). As required by the applicable regulations, RAC membership must be balanced and representative of the various interests concerned with the management of the public lands. The BLM regulations governing the operation of RACs are found at 43 CFR subpart 1784.

The RAC is seeking nominations for individuals who hold State, county, or local elected office.

Individuals may nominate themselves or others. Nominees must be residents of the State of Colorado. The BLM will evaluate nominees based on their education, training, experience, and knowledge of the geographic area of the RAC. Nominees should demonstrate a commitment to collaborative resource decision-making.

The following must accompany all nominations:

- A completed RAC application, which can either be obtained through your local BLM office or online at: https://www.blm.gov/sites/default/files/docs/2022-05/BLM-Form-1120-19_RAC-Application.pdf
- Letters of reference from represented interests or organizations; and
- Any other information that addresses the nominee's qualifications.

Simultaneous with this notice, BLM Colorado will issue a press release providing additional information for submitting nominations.
