Risk Management Agency

Title: General Administrative Regulations; Subpart V-Submission of Policies, Provisions of Policies, Rates of Premium, and Non-Reinsured Supplemental Policies.

OMB Control Number: 0563-0064.

Summary of Collections: The Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC) is a wholly owned Government corporation created February 16, 1938, (7 U.S.C. 1501). The program was amended previously, but Public Law 96-365, dated September 26, 1980, provided for nationwide expansion of a comprehensive crop insurance program. The Federal Crop Insurance Act (Act), as amended in 1994, 1996, and 1998, further expanded the role of the crop insurance program to be the principal tool for risk management by producers of farm products. The Act further required that the crop insurance program operate on an actuarially sound basis. The Act allows any person to prepare a submission or propose to the FCIC Board of Directors (Board) a policy, provision of a policy, or rates of premium. The Act as amended June 20, 2000, by Public Law 106-224 provides for independent reviews of insurance products by persons experienced as actuaries and in underwriting. The Act, as amended by Public Law 110-246, dated June 18, 2008, provided the opportunity for the submission of a concept proposal to the Board for approval for advance payment of estimated research and development expenses. The Act, as amended by the 2014 Agricultural Act, dated February 7, 2014, requires FCIC to provide instructions for index-based weather insurance products, a consultation report for submissions of products for specialty crops; additional review and approval criteria for submissions; and additional advanced payment for research and development costs for concept proposals.

Need and Use of the Information: An applicant has the option to submit a concept proposal or a submission package for a crop insurance product and have it presented to the Board. The Board will review an applicant's submissions to determine, if the interests of agricultural producers and taxpayers are protected; the submission is actuarially appropriate; appropriate insurance principles are followed; the requirements of the Act are met; and that sound, reasonable and appropriate underwriting principals are followed. If the information is incomplete, the submission will be disapproved.

Description of Respondents: Business or other-for-profit.

Number of Respondents: 138.

Frequency of Responses:

Recordkeeping; Reporting; Other.

Total Burden Hours: 30,921.
