SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), Federal agencies must obtain approval from the OMB for each collection of information that they conduct or sponsor. "Collection of information" is defined in 44 U.S.C. 3502(3) and 5 CFR 1320.3(c) to include agency requests or requirements that members of the public submit reports, keep records, or provide information to a third party. Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of title 44 generally requires Federal agencies to provide a 60-day notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information, including each proposed extension of an existing collection of information, before submitting the collection to OMB for approval. To comply with this requirement, the OCC is publishing notice of the renewal/revision of this collection.

Title: Bank Appeals Follow-Up Questionnaire.

OMB Control No.: 1557-0332.

Type of Review: Regular.

Affected Public: Businesses or other for-profit.

Description: The OCC's Office of the Ombudsman (Ombudsman) is committed to assessing its efforts to provide a fair and expeditious appeal process to institutions under OCC supervision. To perform this assessment, it is necessary to obtain feedback from individual appellant institutions on the effectiveness of the Ombudsman's efforts to provide a fair and expeditious appeals process and suggestions on ways to enhance the bank appeals process. For each Bank Appeals Follow-Up Questionnaire submitted, the Ombudsman uses the information gathered to assess the OCC's adherence to OCC Bulletin 2013-15, "Bank Appeals Process," dated June 7, 2013, and to enhance its bank appeals program.

Estimated Burden:

Estimated Frequency of Response: On occasion.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 5.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: 85.

Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and included in the request for OMB approval. All comments will become a matter of public record. Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the OCC, including whether the information has practical utility; (b) The accuracy of the OCC's estimate of the burden of the collection of information; (c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; (d) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and (e) Estimates of capital or start-up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information.

Patrick T. Tierney,

Assistant Director, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.

Title: Customer Complaint Form.

OMB Control No.: 1557–0232.

Type of Review: Regular.

Affected Public: Individuals.

Description: The customer complaint form was developed as a courtesy for customers who contact the OCC’s Consumer Assistance Group (CAG) and wish to file a formal written complaint. The form offers a template for consumers to use to focus their issues and identify the information necessary to provide a complete picture of their concerns. Use of the form is entirely voluntary; however, use of the form does help avoid the processing delays associated with incomplete complaints and allows CAG to process complaints more efficiently.

CAG uses the information included in a completed form to create a record of the consumer’s contact, capture information that can be used to resolve the consumer’s issues, and provide a database of information that is incorporated into the OCC’s supervisory process.

Estimated Burden:

Estimated Frequency of Response: On occasion.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 10,000.

Total Annual Responses: 10,000.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: 3,300.
