

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCENational Telecommunications and Information Administration*Meeting of the Multistakeholder Forum for the National Spectrum Strategy Band Studies

AGENCY: National Telecommunications and Information Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of open meeting.

SUMMARY: This notice announces a public meeting for providing input to spectrum band studies directed by the National Spectrum Strategy and National Spectrum Strategy Implementation Plan, which instructed the National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA) to establish a multistakeholder forum for non-Federal stakeholders to engage with the Federal agencies conducting the studies. This is the first of what NTIA expects will be a series of public multistakeholder meetings held approximately every other month.

In this meeting, the objectives, processes, timelines, and deliverables for obtaining input from the public will be discussed, with particular focus on the study of the 3.1–3.45 GHz and 7.125–8.4 GHz bands. In this meeting and in future meetings, NTIA will solicit targeted information from the public, including industry and academia, on spectrum use cases, coexistence scenarios, existing technology solutions, and technical inputs.

DATES: The meeting will be held on August 23, 2024, from 10:00 a.m. to Noon, Eastern Standard Time (EST).

ADDRESSES: The meeting will be held at the Herbert C. Hoover Federal Building Auditorium, Washington, DC. Use the entrance on 14th Street NW, between Constitution Ave. and Pennsylvania Ave.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Please direct questions regarding this Notice to adavenport@ntia.gov, indicating “Lower 3 and 7/8 GHz Public Multistakeholder Meeting” in the subject line, or if by mail, address inquiries to National Telecommunications and Information Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230. By telephone, contact Ashley Davenport at 240–961–1937. Please direct media inquiries to Charles Meisch, (202) 482–7002, or NTIA’s Office of Public Affairs, press@ntia.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background: The White House issued the National Spectrum Strategy on November 13, 2023, laying out a blueprint for American innovation, competition, and security in advanced wireless technologies. See National Spectrum Strategy at https://www.ntia.gov/sites/default/files/publications/national_spectrum_strategy_final.pdf. The National Spectrum Strategy directed detailed studies of certain spectrum bands to determine whether they may be repurposed for expanded or more efficient uses. To that end, NTIA and other Federal agencies are engaging in studies of the 3.1–3.45 GHz, the 7.125–8.4 GHz, and other spectrum bands. This series of meetings will ensure that the public can provide input to the spectrum band studies.

Matters To Be Considered: The planned meeting for August 23, 2024, will include discussion of the objectives, processes, timelines, and deliverables for obtaining input from the public.

Time and Date: The meeting will be held on August 23, 2024, from 10:00 a.m. to Noon, Eastern Standard Time (EST). The meeting time and the agenda topics are subject to change. Please refer to NTIA’s website, <http://www.ntia.gov>, for the most up-to-date meeting agenda and access information.

Place: The meeting will be held at the Herbert C. Hoover Federal Building Auditorium, Washington, DC. Individuals who wish to attend must register no later than one week in advance at adavenport@ntia.gov. Individuals requiring accommodations are asked to notify Ashley Davenport at 240–961–1937 or adavenport@ntia.gov at least ten (10) business days before the meeting. Attendees are encouraged to arrive early to permit sufficient time to complete security procedures.

Status: Interested parties are invited to attend the meeting. Attendance is restricted to U.S. citizens.

Records: NTIA maintains records of all Committee proceedings. Committee records are available for public inspection at NTIA’s Washington, DC office at the address above.

Sean Conway,

Acting Chief Counsel, National Telecommunications and Information Administration.

BILLING CODE PCOMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION*Renewal of the Agricultural Advisory Committee

AGENCY: Commodity Futures Trading Commission.

ACTION: Notice of renewal.

SUMMARY: The Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC or Commission) is publishing this notice to announce the renewal of the Agricultural Advisory Committee (AAC). The Commission has determined that the renewal of the AAC is necessary and in the public’s interest, and the CFTC has consulted with the General Services Administration’s Committee Management Secretariat regarding the AAC’s renewal.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: John Dunfee, Chief Counsel, Office of the Chairman, at 202–418–5396 or JDunfee@cftc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The CFTC’s advisory committees were created to provide input and make recommendations to the Commission on a variety of regulatory and market issues that affect the integrity and competitiveness of U.S. derivatives markets. The committees facilitate communication between the Commission and U.S. derivatives markets, trading firms, market participants, and end users. The AAC is one of five CFTC advisory committees. The AAC’s objectives and scope of activities are to provide the Commission with advice and recommendations on issues affecting agricultural producers; consumers; processors; lenders; other major market participants, including derivatives intermediaries, buy-side representatives, and exchanges; regulators; and others interested in or affected by the agricultural derivatives markets through public meetings. The AAC will operate for two years from the date of renewal unless the Commission directs that the AAC terminate on an earlier date. A copy of the AAC renewal charter has been filed with the Commission; the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition and Forestry; the House Committee on Agriculture; the Library of Congress; and the General Services Administration’s Committee Management Secretariat. A copy of the renewal charter will be posted on the CFTC’s website at www.cftc.gov.

Dated: August 1, 2024.

Christopher Kirkpatrick,
Secretary of the Commission.
