

deadline. Any person wishing to comment on ANR's request for an extension of time may do so. No reply comments or answers will be considered. If you wish to obtain legal status by becoming a party to the proceedings for this request, you should, on or before the comment date stated below, file a motion to intervene in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (NGA) (18 CFR 157.10).

As a matter of practice, the Commission itself generally acts on requests for extensions of time to complete construction for NGA facilities when such requests are contested before order issuance. For those extension requests that are contested,¹ the Commission will aim to issue an order acting on the request within 45 days.² The Commission will address all arguments relating to whether the applicant has demonstrated there is good cause to grant the extension.³ The Commission will not consider arguments that re-litigate the issuance of the certificate order, including whether the Commission properly found the project to be in the public convenience and necessity and whether the Commission's environmental analysis for the certificate complied with the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA).⁴ At the time a pipeline requests an extension of time, orders on certificates of public convenience and necessity are final and the Commission will not re-litigate their issuance.⁵ The Director of the Office of Energy Projects, or his or her designee, will act on all of those extension requests that are uncontested.

[Docket No. CP17-41-001]

Eagle LNG Partners Jacksonville LLC; Notice of Request for Extension of Time

Take notice that on July 29, 2024, Eagle LNG Partners Jacksonville LLC (Eagle LNG) requested that the Commission grant an extension of time, until September 19, 2029, to construct and place into service its Jacksonville Project (Project) located in Jacksonville, Florida as authorized by the Commission in Docket No. CP17-41-000.¹ The Order required Eagle LNG to complete construction of the Project and make it available for service within five years of the date of the Order, or by September 19, 2024.

Eagle LNG states that the Jacksonville Project has been impacted substantially by the COVID-19 pandemic, which began only six months after the issuance of the Order. The COVID-19 pandemic created an extremely challenging environment for the negotiation and execution of contracts. Those impediments continued for some time after the effects of the pandemic had begun to subside in 2022.

Eagle LNG affirms that inflation and supply chain issues brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic have increased the total installed cost of the Jacksonville Project from what was forecast when Eagle LNG first submitted the Jacksonville Project application to the Commission. Since many construction companies are focused on larger scale projects, and those willing to take on a more modestly sized project are finding it virtually impossible to hire skilled tradesmen, Eagle LNG has found it difficult to secure the services of a contractor that will devote time to the Jacksonville Project. Eagle LNG anticipates that the construction of the Jacksonville Project will take 24 to 36 months, with construction commencing following a final investment decision to be made. In order to make that final investment decision, Eagle LNG and its investors must be able to conclude that the project's FERC authorization provides enough time to complete construction of the Jacksonville Project. This is the reason why Eagle LNG requests that the FERC construction completion deadline be extended to September 19, 2029.
