

for the remainder of the predecessor's term. A member who serves less than half of the predecessor's term will serve an interim appointment. A member may serve up to 180 days after the expiration of that member's term if a successor has not been appointed. After 180 days, the member's term will be vacant until a successor is appointed. Council members may be reappointed for a second consecutive three-year term. Members who serve an interim appointment remain eligible to serve two consecutive three-year terms.

The Chair appoints members to the Council in consultation with the Vice Chair, consistent with Department of Commerce policy.

Meetings of the Council will be held at the call of the Chair. The location of Council meetings, including the decision to hold a virtual meeting, will be set by, and is at the discretion of, the Chair. The Council is expected to meet four times per year, but may meet more or less frequently, as determined by the Chair. The Council may participate in public roundtable discussions, convened by the USPTO, to gather information from stakeholders and the public. Council members who participate in the public roundtable discussions will do so in their individual capacities.

The USPTO will provide support services for the Council, including administrative support and meeting space.

Compensation for Members

Members of the Council serve without compensation.

Solicitation of Nominations

The Chair, in consultation with the Vice Chair, is seeking to fill one or more member positions. The Chair, in consultation with the Vice Chair, will consider nominations of all qualified individuals to ensure that the Council includes the areas of experience noted above. Individuals may nominate themselves or other individuals. Professional associations and organizations may also nominate one or more qualified persons for Council membership. Nominations shall state that the nominee is willing to serve as a Council member and carry out the duties outlined above. All nominations should include the following information:

1. A letter of nomination stating the name, affiliation, and contact information of the nominee and the nominee's area(s) of interest and/or experience; and
2. The name of the nominator and the mailing address, email address, and daytime telephone number at which the nominator can be contacted.

All nomination information should be provided in a single email submission (see ADDRESSES above).

The Council aims to have a balanced representation among its members, considering such factors as geography, technical expertise, community involvement, and knowledge of programs and/or activities related to the Council. Individuals will be selected based on their interest and/or experience in or representation of specific areas as needed by the Council. The diverse membership of the Council assures perspectives reflecting the breadth of the Council's responsibilities.

Privacy Act Statement

Authority: The collection of information concerning nominations to the Council for Inclusive Innovation is authorized under 35 U.S.C. 2(a)(2) and 2(b)(11) and in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, (Privacy Act) 5 U.S.C. 552a.

Purpose: The collection of names, contact information, and professional information is required in order for the Chair, in consultation with the and Vice Chair, to appoint members to the Council.

Routine Uses: The USPTO will use the nomination information for the purpose set forth above. The Privacy Act of 1974 authorizes disclosure of the information collected to Department and USPTO staff for work-related purposes and for other purposes only as set forth in the Privacy Act and for routine uses published in the Privacy Act System of Records Notice COMMERCE/DEPT-11, Candidates for Membership, Members, and Former Members of Department of Commerce Advisory Committees, available at <https://www.commerce.gov/opog/privacy/SORN/SORN-DEPT-11>.

Disclosure: Furnishing the nomination information is voluntary; however, if the information is not provided, the individual may not be considered for appointment to the Council.
