[Docket No.: 240826-0227]

Revisions to the Fee Schedule for the Data Privacy Framework Program

AGENCY: International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Final notice of implementation of revisions to the fee schedule for the Data Privacy Framework Program.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Commerce (DOC) published the Revisions to the Fee Schedule for the Data Privacy Framework Program on July 9, 2024. We gave interested parties an opportunity to comment on the revisions to the fee schedule. No comments were received; therefore, the revised fee schedule is considered the final fee schedule subject to future review in accordance with OMB Circular A-25 and will become effective October 1st, 2024.

DATES: This fee schedule will become effective October 1, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Requests for additional information regarding the DPF program should be directed to Isabella Carlton, Department of Commerce, International Trade Administration, Room 11018, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC, tel. (202) 482-1512 or via email at dpf.program@trade.gov. Additional information on ITA fees is available at trade.gov/fees.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Consistent with the guidelines in OMB Circular A-25, Federal agencies are responsible for implementing cost recovery program fees. The role of ITA is to strengthen the competitiveness of U.S. industry, promote trade and investment, and ensure fair trade through the rigorous enforcement of U.S. trade laws and agreements. ITA works to promote privacy policy frameworks to facilitate the trusted flow of data across borders with strong privacy protections, which in turn supports international trade.

The U.S., EU, UK, and Switzerland share a commitment to enhancing privacy protection, the rule of law, and a recognition of the importance of transatlantic data flows to our respective citizens, economies, and societies, but have different legal systems and take different approaches to doing so. Given those differences, the DOC developed the EU-U.S. DPF, the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF, and the Swiss-U.S. DPF in consultation with the European Commission, the UK Government, the Swiss Federal Administration, industry, and other stakeholders. These arrangements were respectively developed to provide U.S. organizations reliable mechanisms for personal data transfers to the U.S. from the EU, UK, and Switzerland that are consistent with EU, UK, and Swiss law.

The DOC has issued the EU-U.S. DPF Principles and the Swiss-U.S. DPF Principles, including the respective sets of Supplemental Principles (collectively, the Principles) and Annex I to the Principles, as well as the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF under its statutory authority to foster, promote, and develop international commerce (15 U.S.C. 1512).

To participate in the EU-U.S. DPF and, as applicable, the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF, and/or the Swiss-U.S. DPF an organization must: (1) be subject to the investigatory and enforcement powers of the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), the Department of Transportation (DOT), or another statutory body that will effectively ensure compliance with the Principles; (2) publicly declare its commitment to comply with the Principles; (3) publicly disclose its privacy policies in line with the Principles; and (4) fully implement the Principles.

While the decision by an organization to self-certify its compliance and to participate in the DPF is voluntary; effective compliance is compulsory: organizations that self-certify to the DOC and publicly declare their commitment to adhere to the Principles must comply fully with the Principles. Organizations that only wish to self-certify their compliance pursuant to the EU-U.S. DPF and/or the Swiss-U.S. DPF may do so; however, organizations that wish to participate in the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF must participate in the EU-U.S. DPF. Such organizations' commitment to comply with the Principles with regard to transfers of personal data from the EU and, as applicable, the UK, and/or Switzerland must be reflected in their self-
