

the regulatory and contractual requirements. The weekly submission of a properly executed certification, with the prescribed language set forth on page 2 of Optional Form WH-347, satisfies the requirement for submission of the required "Statement of Compliance." 29 CFR 5.5(a)(3)(ii)(C). Regulations 29 CFR 3.4(b) and 5.5(a)(3)(ii)(G) require contractors to maintain these certified payrolls for three years after all the work on the prime contract is completed.

The Department is now proposing revisions to form WH-347, to simplify and clarify certain fields and to obtain more specific information about fringe benefits. The revisions also provide for check boxes and electronically fillable fields, which will provide for efficiency, and update the instructions for form WH-347.

II. Review Focus: The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

III. Current Actions: The Department seeks approval to revise this information collection to ensure effective administration of the requirements governing the Davis-Bacon Certified Payroll.
