

supervisory information, in order to determine if they have any conflict of interests. The 1400E has four main sections: Financial Interests, Outside Employment or Consulting in Banking or Economic Industries, Work with Foreign Governments, and Relatives in Related Businesses. Applicants are asked to list assets that they, their spouse, or their minor children hold that might be conflicts of interest. The potential contractor is also asked to list any outside employment that is relevant to the Board, including any employment for or with a foreign government, within the past three years. Lastly, the applicant is asked to specify any position their spouse, child, parent, or sibling currently holds at a financial institution (such as a bank, bank holding company, savings and loan holding company, thrift or savings and loan association, or affiliate of any such entity; consulting or law firm advising financial institutions; economic forecasting or consulting firm; or a vendor/contractor) that works with the Federal Reserve System.

Final Approval Under OMB Delegated Authority of the Extension for Three Years, Without Revision, of the Following Information Collection Collection title: Interagency Guidance on Managing Compliance and Reputation Risks for Reverse Mortgage Products.

Collection identifier: FR 4029.

OMB control number: 7100–0330.

General description of collection: In August 2010, the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council FFIEC, on behalf of its member agencies, published a Federal Register notice adopting supervisory guidance titled “Reverse Mortgage Products: Guidance for Managing Compliance and Reputation Risks.” The guidance is designed to assist financial institutions with risk management and efforts to ensure that their reverse mortgage lending practices adequately address consumer compliance and reputation risks. The reverse mortgage guidance discusses the disclosures and recordkeeping required by federal laws and regulations and also discusses consumer disclosures that financial institutions typically provide as a standard business practice. Certain portions of the guidance are information collections subject to PRA requirements and are what are included in the FR 4029.

Frequency: Event-generated.

Respondents: State member banks, Edge and Agreement corporations, bank holding companies, savings and loan holding companies, foreign banking organizations, and branches and agencies of foreign banks.

Total estimated number of respondents: 5.

Total estimated annual burden hours: 72.

Current actions: On March 29, 2024, the Board published a notice in the Federal Register (89 FR 22148) requesting public comment for 60 days on the extension, without revision, of the FR 4029. The comment period for this notice expired on May 28, 2024. The Board did not receive any comments.
