

individuals entering the data, the collection and storage of applicant demographic data would come to approximately $353,802,267 per year. The foregoing assumptions likely are over-inclusive because many employers have electronic job application processes that should be able to capture applicant flow data automatically.

While the burden hours and costs for the UGESP recordkeeping requirement seem large, the average burden per employer is relatively small. UGESP applies to an estimated 887,869 employers, or about 13.5% of employers in the U.S., and these employers employ about 86.2% of employees in the U.S.¹² Therefore, the estimated cost per covered employer is about $398. Additionally, 36.4% of employees work for firms with at least 5,000 employees,¹³ for which the burden of data entry is transferred to the applicants via use of electronic application systems. Finally, UGESP allows for simplified recordkeeping for employers with more than 15 but less than 100 employees.¹⁴

For the Commission.

OMB Control Number: 3060–0715.

Title: Telecommunications Carriers’ Use of Customer Proprietary Network Information and Other Customer Information.

Form Number: N/A.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Business or other for-profit entities, and state, local, or tribal government.

Number of Respondents and Responses: 2,935 respondents; 91,735,200 responses.

Estimated Time per Response: 0.1–120 hours.

Frequency of Response: On occasion, annual, and one-time reporting requirements; recordkeeping; and third party disclosure requirements.

Obligation to Respond: Mandatory. Statutory authority for these collections are contained in Sections 201 and 222 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. 201, 222.

Total Annual Burden: 269,534 hours.

Total Annual Cost: No Cost.

Needs and Uses: Section 222 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. 222, establishes the duty of telecommunications carriers to protect the confidentiality of its customers’ proprietary information. This proprietary information includes personally identifiable information derived from a customer’s relationship with a provider of telecommunications services. This information collection implements the statutory obligations of Section 222. These regulations impose safeguards to protect Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI) and other customer proprietary information against unauthorized access and disclosure.

On November 16, 2023, the FCC released the SIM Swap and Port-Out Fraud Order (88 FR 85794 (December 8, 2023)), which adopted a baseline framework to combat SIM swap fraud by amending section 64.2010 of the CPNI rules to add paragraph (h) on Subscriber Identity Module (SIM) changes and adds new information collection requirements in paragraphs (h)(3), (h)(5), (h)(6), and (h)(8) of that rule. A SIM swap involves the fraudulent transfer (or “swap”) of an account from a device associated with one SIM to a device associated with a different SIM, allowing a bad actor to control the victim’s mobile account and access the victim’s CPNI. The new rules establish a uniform framework that gives wireless providers flexibility to implement customer authentication and security methods to address SIM swap fraud. The SIM Swap and Port-Out Fraud Order modifies the existing CPNI collection requirements to require wireless providers to: (1) immediately notify customers of any requests for a SIM change associated with the customer’s account before the SIM change is completed; (2) provide customers with advance notice of any account protection measures offered; (3) maintain a clear process for customers to report SIM fraud and promptly provide customers with documentation of fraud involving their accounts; and (4) track and maintain for three years a record of SIM change requests and authentication measures used.

On December 21, 2023, the Commission released the Data Breach Report and Order (89 FR 9968 (February 12, 2024)), which modifies the scope of customer data and reportable breaches covered by the Commission’s rules, and also modifies the Commission’s data breach notification rules to require covered service providers to electronically notify the FCC of a reportable data breach through a link to a central reporting facility, contemporaneously with the existing obligation to notify the United States Secret Service Bureau (Secret Service) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and adopts equivalent requirements for Telecommunications Relay Services (TRS) providers. Covered service providers include providers of telecommunications, interconnected Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP), and TRS. All covered providers are required to maintain a record, electronically or in some other manner, of any breaches discovered, and notifications made. Covered providers are also required to submit, via the central reporting facility, an annual reporting of certain small breaches.

OMB Control Number: 3060–0742.

Title: Sections 52.21 through 52.37, Telephone Number Portability, 47 CFR part 52, subpart (C), and CC Docket No. 95–116.

Form Number: N/A.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Business or other for profit entities.

Number of Respondents and Responses: 1,626 respondents; 13,672,050 responses.

Estimated Time per Response: 0.0666 hours–60 hours.

Frequency of Response: On occasion and one-time reporting requirements, recordkeeping requirement, and third party disclosure requirement.

Obligation to Respond: Required to obtain or retain benefits. Statutory authority for this information collection is contained in 47 U.S.C. 151, 152, 154(i), 201–205, 215, 251(b)(2), 251(e)(2) and 332 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

Total Annual Burden: 792,235 hours.

Total Annual Cost: No cost.

Needs and Uses: Section 251(b)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, requires LECs to “provide, to the extent technically feasible, number portability in accordance with requirements prescribed by the Commission.” Through the LNP process, consumers have the ability to retain their phone number when switching telecommunications service providers, enabling them to choose a provider that best suits their needs and enhancing competition. In the Porting Interval Order and Further Notice, the Commission mandated a one business day porting interval for simple wireline-to-wireline and intermodal port requests. The information collected in the standard local service request data fields is necessary to complete simple wireline-to-wireline and intermodal ports within the one business day porting interval mandated by the Commission and will be used to comply with Section 251 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996.

On November 16, 2023, the FCC released a Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (88 FR 85794 (Dec. 8, 2023)) (SIM Swap and Port-Out Fraud Order), which adds new information collection requirements. The SIM Swap and Port-Out Fraud Order adopted baseline measures to increase protections for customers against fraudulent port-outs by adding new section 52.37 in Part 52, and adds new information collection requirements in paragraphs (c), (e), and (g), of that rule. Port-out fraud occurs where a bad actor impersonates a customer of a wireless provider and convinces the provider to port the real customer’s telephone number to a new wireless provider and a device that the bad actor controls, allowing a bad actor to control the victim’s mobile account and receive text messages and phone calls intended for the victim. The new rules establish a uniform framework that gives wireless providers flexibility to implement customer authentication and security methods to address port-out fraud. Wireless providers are required to comply with the new or modified rules except where the Safe Connections Act requires alternate procedures to be used. The SIM Swap and Port-Out Fraud Order modifies the existing Local Number Portability collection requirements to require wireless providers to: (1) immediately notify customers of any requests for a port-out request associated with the customer’s account before effectuating the request; (2) provide customers with advance notice of any account protection measures offered; and (3) maintain a clear process for customers to report fraudulent number ports, and promptly provide customers with documentation of fraudulent ports involving their accounts.
