information you consider to be Confidential Business Information (CBI), Proprietary Business Information (PBI), or other information whose disclosure is restricted by statute. Multimedia submissions (audio, video, etc.) must be accompanied by a written comment. The written comment is considered the official comment and should include discussion of all points you wish to make. The EPA will generally not consider comments or comment contents located outside of the primary submission (i.e., on the web, cloud, or other file sharing system). II. Information About the Documents

Two sections of the Clean Air Act (CAA or the Act) govern the establishment and revision of the NAAQS. Section 108 directs the Administrator to identify and list certain air pollutants and then issue “air quality criteria” for those pollutants. The air quality criteria are to “accurately reflect the latest scientific knowledge useful in indicating the kind and extent of all identifiable effects on public health or welfare which may be expected from the presence of such pollutant in the ambient air . . .” (CAA section 108(a)(2)). Under section 109 of the Act, the EPA is then to establish primary (health-based) and secondary (welfare-based) NAAQS for each pollutant for which the EPA has issued air quality criteria. Section 109(d)(1) of the Act requires periodic review and, if appropriate, revision of existing air quality criteria. Revised air quality criteria are to reflect advances in scientific knowledge on the effects of the pollutant on public health and welfare. Under the same provision, the EPA is also to periodically review and, if appropriate, revise the NAAQS, based on the revised air quality criteria.

The Act additionally requires appointment of an independent scientific review committee that is to periodically review the existing air quality criteria and NAAQS and to recommend any new standards and revisions of existing criteria and standards as may be appropriate (CAA section 109(d)(2)(A)–(B)). Since the early 1980s, the requirement for an independent scientific review committee has been fulfilled by the Clean Air Scientific Advisory Committee (CASAC).

Presently the EPA is reviewing the air quality criteria and NAAQS for Pb.¹ The document announced in this notice has been developed as a follow-up to Volume 3 of the IRP. Like the IRP, this Update has been prepared by the EPA’s Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards, within the Office of Air and Radiation. This document will be available on the EPA’s website at <https://www.epa.gov/naaqs/lead-pb-air-quality-standards>, accessible under “Planning Documents” for the current Pb NAAQS review.

The IRP for the current review of the lead NAAQS is comprised of three volumes. Volume 3 is the planning document for quantitative analyses to be considered in the policy assessment (PA), including exposure and risk analyses. Volume 3 was the subject of a consultation with the CASAC Lead Panel on June 14, 2023, and is available on the EPA’s website.² The Update provides additional updated detail on two aspects of the approach planned for quantitative human exposure and health risk analyses being performed in this NAAQS review. Comments on the Update should be submitted to the docket, as described above, by December 9, 2024. A separate Federal Register notice provided details about the CASAC Lead Panel consultation meeting and the process for participation in the consultation meeting on this document (89 FR 86801, October 31, 2024). The EPA will consider the consultation comments from the CASAC Lead Panel and public comments on this Update in its preparation of quantitative exposure and risk analyses for the PA. This document does not represent and should not be construed to represent any final EPA policy, viewpoint, or determination.

Director, Health and Environmental Impacts Division.
