Administration for Children and Families

Submission for Office of Management and Budget Review; Fiscal Responsibility Act—Temporary Assistance for Needy Families Work Outcomes Measures (New Collection)

AGENCY: Office of Family Assistance, Administration for Children and Families, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

ACTION: Request for public comments.

SUMMARY: The Administration for Children and Families (ACF) is proposing to collect data for new Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) work outcomes measures required by the Fiscal Responsibility Act (FRA) of 2023. Information collections include the Work Outcomes of TANF Exitters Report, Secondary School Diploma or its Recognized Equivalent Rate, and the Supplemental Work Outcomes Report.

DATES: Comments due December 19, 2024. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) must decide about the collection of information between 30 and 60 days after publication of this document in the Federal Register. Therefore, a comment is best assured of having its full effect if OMB receives it within 30 days of publication.

ADDRESSES: Written comments and recommendations for the proposed information collection should be sent within 30 days of publication of this notice to www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain. Find this particular information collection by selecting “Currently under 30-day Review—Open for Public Comments” or by using the search function. You can also obtain copies of the proposed collection of information by emailing infocollection@acf.hhs.gov. Identify all emailed requests by the title of the information collection.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Description: This is a proposed new collection in response to the requirements of section 304 of the FRA, which requires states and territories to report data necessary to produce work outcome measures for work-eligible individuals who leave TANF. This collection was established in the interim final rule TANF Work Outcomes Measures, effective October 1, 2024. This collection includes three new forms: Work Outcomes of TANF Exitters

Report, Secondary School Diploma or its Recognized Equivalent Rate, and Supplemental Work Outcomes Report.

The data and information from these reports will be used for program analysis and oversight, including the calculation of the indicators of performance required by the FRA: Employment Rate—2nd Quarter After Exit, Employment Retention Rate—4th Quarter After Exit, Median Earnings—2nd Quarter After Exit, and Secondary School Diploma or its Recognized Equivalent Attainment Rate.

For the Work Outcomes of TANF Exitters Report, states will be required to submit Social Security Numbers of all work-eligible individuals who exit TANF in each quarter on a quarterly basis.

For the Secondary School Diploma Attainment Rate, states will be asked to submit their calculated rate following the definitions and formula set by ACF. The report must include documentation of methodology and data sources.

The Supplemental Work Outcomes Report will be submitted annually by interested states. The report will include documentation of data sources and methodology to assess validity and support ongoing learning and identification of best practices.

Respondents: The 50 States of the U.S., the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

Administration for Children and Families

Establishment of the National Advisory Committee on the Trafficking of Children and Youth in the United States

AGENCY: Office on Trafficking in Persons, Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services.

ACTION: Establishment of Federal advisory committee.

SUMMARY: The National Advisory Committee on the Trafficking of Children and Youth in the United States (Committee) was established on November 7, 2024, to build on the work of the previous National Advisory Committee on the Sex Trafficking of Children and Youth in the United States, authorized pursuant to section 121 of the Preventing Sex Trafficking and Strengthening Families Act. The Committee advises on practical and general policies concerning improvements in the Nation’s response to the human trafficking of children and youth in the United States, including the cooperation of Federal, State, local, and Tribal governments; child welfare agencies; social service providers; physical health and mental health providers; victim service providers; Federal, State, and local police; juvenile detention centers; State or local courts with responsibility for conducting or supervising proceedings related to child welfare or social services for children and their families; runaway and homeless youth programs; schools; technology, gaming and entertainment industry; and businesses and organizations that provide services to youth. While addressing the response to the trafficking of children and youth, the Committee shall consider recommendations related to the intersection of sex trafficking and labor trafficking among children and youth in the United States. Note that this Federal Register Notice of the Charter filing should have been published 15 days in advance.

DATES: The Committee’s charter was filed on November 7, 2024.

ADDRESSES: To learn more about the Committee, access the Committee’s website: <https://www.acf.hhs.gov/otip/partnerships/national-advisory-committee>.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Katherine Chon (Designated Federal Officer) at (202) 205–5778 or EndTrafficking@acf.hhs.gov or 330 C Street SW, Washington, DC, 20201. Additional information is available at <https://www.acf.hhs.gov/otip/partnerships/the-national-advisory-committee>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background of Committee: Following the sunset of the statutorily authorized Committee in January 2022 (pursuant to section 121 of the Preventing Sex Trafficking and Strengthening Families Act (Pub. L. 113–183) and governed by the provisions of Public Law 92–463, as amended (5 U.S.C. app. 2), this Committee is established as a discretionary committee under the authorization of Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Membership: The Committee shall consist of no more than 25 members, whose diverse experience and background enable them to provide balanced points of view with regard to carrying out the duties of the Committee. The members shall be selected by the Secretary of HHS in consultation with DOJ. At least one Committee member shall be a survivor of child sex trafficking and one Committee member shall be a survivor of child labor trafficking. Two Committee members shall be a Governor of a State, one of whom shall be a member of the Democratic Party and one of whom shall be a member of the Republican Party. Governors may send a leadership-level designee representing a State agency to attend Committee meetings. The members will be selected from among advocacy and victim service organizations; survivors of child trafficking at least 18 years of age; child welfare representatives; State, Tribal and local government human services officials; health and mental health representatives; law enforcement and judiciary; juvenile and youth development specialists; educators; the technology, entertainment and gaming industries; and the business community. The Democratic and Republican Governors shall be selected in consultation with the National Governor’s Association. The Committee shall convene at least twice a year. This is an unpaid position and Committee members will not be considered employees of the Federal Government other than reimbursement of travel expenses and a per diem allowance in accordance with Federal Government regulations.

Megan E. Steel,

Deputy Director, Office of the Executive Secretariat.

Food and Drug Administration

[Docket Nos. FDA–2023–E–2610 and FDA–2023–E–2611]

Determination of Regulatory Review Period for Purposes of Patent Extension; AGILI–C

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA or the Agency) has determined the regulatory review period for AGILI–C and is publishing this notice of that determination as required by law. FDA has made the determination because of the submission of applications to the Director of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), Department of Commerce, for the extension of a patent which claims that medical device.

DATES: Anyone with knowledge that any of the dates as published (see SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION) are incorrect must submit either electronic or written comments and ask for a redetermination by January 21, 2025. Furthermore, any interested person may petition FDA for a determination regarding whether the applicant for extension acted with due diligence during the regulatory review period by May 19, 2025. See “Petitions” in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section for more information.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments as follows. Please note that late, untimely filed comments will not be considered. The <https://www.regulations.gov> electronic filing system will accept comments until 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time at the end of January 21, 2025. Comments received by mail/hand delivery/courier (for written/paper submissions) will be considered
