

All deliverables will be submitted to the Designated Federal Official (DFO) at USDA Forest Service, 1220 Southwest 3rd Avenue, Ste. G015, Portland, OR 97204.

The Committee will meet approximately four to six times annually or as often as necessary and at such times as designated by the DFO. Subcommittees may meet more frequently. Attendance may be in-person, by telephone, or by other electronic means. Meetings of the Committee whether in person, by telephone or electronic means shall be announced 15 calendar days in advance in the Federal Register. As required by the FACA, the Committee will hold open meetings unless the Secretary determines that a meeting or a portion of a meeting may be closed to the public in accordance with subsection C of section 522(b) of title 5, United States Code. All proceedings and relevant documents will be posted and made accessible to the public. No individual who is currently registered as a Federal lobbyist is eligible to serve as a member of the Committee.

Overview and Membership

The Committee will be comprised of up to 23 members approved by the Secretary of Agriculture, and each will serve a two-year term. The Committee membership will be fairly balanced in terms of the points of view represented and functions to be performed. Members of the Committee will serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for travel expenses while performing duties on behalf of the Committee, subject to approval by the DFO and the Department. The Committee should represent to the extent possible, a balance across the three states covered by the NWFP (Oregon, Washington, and California) and reflect the demographic diversity of the NWFP area. The Committee shall include representation from experts in the following interest areas:

(1) Science: Up to 9 members who represent the scientific community, and have an understanding in the following disciplines and how they relate to the NWFP area:

- (a) Forest ecology
- (b) Vegetation management
- (c) Fire ecology
- (d) Terrestrial wildlife ecology
- (e) Aquatic and riparian ecosystems and species
- (f) Climate change
- (g) Social science
- (h) Adaptive management and planning
- (i) Indigenous Traditional Ecological Knowledge (ITEK) practitioners

(2) Organizations: Up to 8 members who represent a broad array of organizations with an interest in NWFP forests:

- (a) National, regional, or local conservation organizations with staff and active programs in the Pacific Northwest
- (b) Forest products industry
- (c) Recreation organization
- (d) Organization involved in outreach with underserved communities
- (e) Forest collaborative groups
- (f) Wildlife organization
- (g) Watershed organization

(3) Government and public: Up to 6 members who represent governmental entities or the public at large:

- (a) Member of the affected public at large
- (b) Represent state governments
- (c) Represent counties
- (d) Represent American Indian Tribes

Meeting locations will be compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the USDA provides reasonable accommodation to individuals with disabilities where appropriate. If you are a person requiring reasonable accommodation, please make requests in advance for sign language interpretation, assistive listening devices, or other reasonable accommodation to the person listed under the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section or contact USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

Equal opportunity practices in accordance with USDA policies shall be followed in all membership appointments to the Committee. To ensure that the recommendations of the Committee have taken into account the needs of the diverse groups served by USDA, membership shall include, to the extent practicable, individuals with demonstrated ability to represent the many communities, identities, races, ethnicities, backgrounds, abilities, cultures, and beliefs of the American people, including underserved communities. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the responsible agency or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English. USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.
