OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

[Docket ID: OPM-2024-0017]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Office of the Executive Secretariat and Privacy and Information Management, Office of Personnel Management.

ACTION: Notice of a new system of records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974, the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) proposes to establish a new OPM system of records titled, "OPM/Internal—29, Federal Register Comments." This system of records contains information about individuals who submit a public comment (a comment and/or supplementary materials provided to OPM in response to an OPM publication in the Federal Register).

DATES: Submit comments on or before February 18, 2025. This new system is effective upon publication in the Federal Register, except for the routine uses, which are effective February 18, 2025.

ADDRESSES: You may submit written comments using the following method:

- Federal eRulemaking Portal: <https://www.regulations.gov>. All submissions received must include the agency name and docket number for this Federal Register document. The general policy for comments and other submissions from members of the public is to make these submissions available for public viewing on the internet at <https://www.regulations.gov> without change, including any personal identifiers.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Kayyonne Marston, Federal Register Liaison, Office of the Executive Secretariat, Privacy, and Information Management, Office of Personnel Management, at 202-936-2308 or Regulatory.Information@opm.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974, OPM proposes to establish a new OPM system of records titled, "OPM/Internal—29, Federal Register Comments." This system of records supports OPM's public notice and comment process.

When OPM publishes a rulemaking, guidance, or notice document in the Federal Register, anyone can visit Regulations.gov (<https://www.regulations.gov>) to access that document and submit a public comment. Commenters may choose to respond anonymously or provide personal identifiers.

The comments and identifying information submitted on Regulations.gov are maintained in the Federal Docket Management System (FDMS), a government-wide platform. Although the General Services Administration eRulemaking Program Office manages Regulations.gov and FDMS, each Federal agency manages its own dockets and public comments within FDMS.

OPM uses FDMS to search, review, organize, analyze, and download the comments, and address them, as appropriate, when finalizing their publications. This system of records will enable OPM to identify individuals who submitted a public comment in response to a request for comments on an OPM document published in the Federal Register. If the commenter provided identifying information, OPM may use that information to ask the commenter to clarify their comment, as appropriate, or for other needs connected to the notice and comment process.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), OPM has provided a report of this new system of records to the Office of Management and Budget and to Congress. This new system of records will be included in OPM's inventory of record systems.
