SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), Federal agencies must obtain approval from the OMB for each collection of information that they conduct or sponsor. “Collection of information” is defined in 44 U.S.C. 3502(3) and 5 CFR 1320.3(c) to include agency requests or requirements that members of the public submit reports, keep records, or provide information to a third party. The OCC asks the OMB to extend its approval of the collection in this notice.

Title: Computer-Security Incident Notification.

OMB Control No.: 1557–0350.

Type of Review: Regular.

Affected Public: Businesses or other for-profit.

Description: Pursuant to 12 CFR part 53, the OCC has established certain computer-security incident notification requirements applicable to banking organizations<sup>1</sup> and bank service providers.<sup>2</sup> Specifically, 12 CFR 53.3

requires a banking organization to notify the OCC about a “notification incident” as soon as possible but no later than 36 hours after the banking organization determines that a notification incident has occurred. The regulation defines a “notification incident” as “a computer-security incident that has materially disrupted or degraded, or is reasonably likely to materially disrupt or degrade, a banking organization’s—(i) [a]bility to carry out banking operations, activities, or processes, or deliver banking products and services to a material portion of its customer base, in the ordinary course of business; (ii) [b]usiness line(s), including associated operations, services, functions, and support, that upon failure would result in a material loss of revenue, profit, or franchise value; or (iii) [o]perations, including associated services, functions and support, as applicable, the failure or discontinuance of which would pose a threat to the financial stability of the United States.”<sup>3</sup>

Additionally, a bank service provider must notify at least one bank-designated point of contact at each affected banking organization customer as soon as possible when the bank service provider determines that it has experienced a computer-security incident that has materially disrupted or degraded, or is reasonably likely to materially disrupt or degrade, covered services provided to such banking organization for four or more hours.
