TREATY BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
AND
THE GOVERNMENT OF MALAYSIA
ON MUTUAL LEGAL ASSISTANCE IN CRIMINAL MATTERS

The Government of the United States of America and the Government of Malaysia (hereinafter referred to singularly as the "Party" and collectively as the "Parties"):

DESIRING to improve the effectiveness of the law enforcement authorities of the Parties in the investigation of crime and in proceedings pertaining to criminal matters through cooperation and mutual legal assistance in criminal matters,

HAVE AGREED as follows:

ARTICLE 1
SCOPE OF ASSISTANCE

1. The Parties shall, in accordance with this Treaty, render to one another the widest measure of mutual legal assistance in connection with investigations and proceedings pertaining to criminal matters.

2. Mutual legal assistance to be rendered in accordance with this Treaty shall include:

- (a) taking of evidence, including testimony, documents, records and items or things, by way of judicial process;
- (b) taking of voluntary statements of persons;
- (c) providing documents, records and items or things;

- (d) making arrangements for persons to give evidence or to assist in criminal investigations, including the transfer of persons in custody;
- (e) effecting service of judicial documents;
- (f) executing searches and seizures;
- (g) locating and identifying persons or items or things and examining objects and sites;
- (h) freezing and forfeiting assets or property and collecting fines;
- (i) identifying or tracing proceeds of crime and property and instrumentalities derived from or used in the commission of an offence; and
- (j) any other form of assistance not prohibited by the laws of the requested state.

3. This Treaty applies solely to the provision of mutual legal assistance between the Parties. The provisions of this Treaty shall not create any right on the part of any private person to obtain, suppress or exclude any evidence or to impede the execution of any request for assistance.

ARTICLE 2 DESIGNATION OF CENTRAL AUTHORITIES

1. Each Party shall designate a Central Authority to make and receive requests pursuant to this Treaty. Requests from the United States shall be transmitted through the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Malaysia to the Malaysia Central Authority. Requests from Malaysia shall be transmitted through the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Malaysia directly to the United States Central Authority.

2. For Malaysia, the Central Authority shall be the Attorney General or a person designated by the Attorney General.

3. For the United States of America, the Central Authority shall be the Attorney General or a person designated by the Attorney General.

4. Each Party shall expeditiously notify the other of any change in the designation of its Central Authority.

5. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph 1, the Central Authorities shall communicate directly with one another for the purposes of this Treaty.

ARTICLE 3
LIMITATIONS ON ASSISTANCE

1. The Central Authority of the requested state may refuse assistance if, in the opinion of the Central Authority of the requested state-

- (a) the request relates to a political offence;
- (b) the request relates to an offence under military law that if it had occurred in the requested state would not be an offence under ordinary criminal law in the requested state;
- (c) there are substantial grounds for believing that the request was made for the purpose of investigating, prosecuting, or punishing a person on account of the person's race, religion, sex, ethnic origin, nationality or political opinions;
- (d) the request relates to the investigation or prosecution of a person for an offence in a case where the person has been convicted or acquitted by a court in the requested state in respect of the same offence;
- (e) the request relates to an act or omission that, if it had occurred in the requested state, would not have constituted an offence against the laws of the requested state punishable under the laws of that state by deprivation of liberty for a period of one year or more, or by a more severe penalty;
- (f) the execution of the request would prejudice the sovereignty, security, public order or other essential interest of the requested state;
- (g) the Central Authority of the requesting state has, in respect of that request, failed to comply with any material terms of this Treaty or failed to agree to reasonable conditions imposed under paragraph 4 of this Article;
- (h) the facts constituting the offence to which the request relates do not indicate an offence of sufficient gravity;
- (i) the item or thing requested is of insufficient importance to the investigation or could reasonably be obtained by other means.

2. Without prejudice to any other offences which satisfy dual criminality, a request that relates to an offence identified in the Annex to this Treaty shall not be refused pursuant to subparagraph (1)(e) of this Article as the Parties have determined that dual criminality exists for such offences. The Annex to this Treaty may be modified by the Parties by an exchange of notes.

3. Assistance shall not be refused solely on the ground of secrecy of banks and similar financial institutions or that the offence is also considered to involve fiscal matters.

4. Before denying assistance pursuant to this Article, the Central Authority of the requested state shall consult with the Central Authority of the requesting state to consider whether assistance can be given subject to such conditions as it deems necessary. If the requesting Party accepts assistance subject to these conditions, it shall comply with the conditions.

5. If the Central Authority of the requested state refuses assistance, it shall promptly inform the Central Authority of the requesting state of the grounds of refusal.

ARTICLE 4 FORM OF REQUESTS

Requests for assistance shall be made in writing, including, where possible, by electronic means that are capable of establishing authenticity. In urgent situations, requests may be made orally or by any other means, but in such cases the requests shall be confirmed in writing as soon as possible, but not later than ten days thereafter, unless the Central Authority of the requested state agrees otherwise.

ARTICLE 5 CONTENTS OF REQUESTS

1. A request shall contain the following:
  - (a) the name of the competent authority conducting the investigation or proceedings to which the request relates;
  - (b) the purpose of the request and the nature of the assistance sought;
  - (c) a description of the offence to which the request relates, including the applicable penalty, and a statement or text of the relevant laws;
  - (d) a description of the facts alleged to constitute the offence; and

- (e) a description of the evidence, information or other assistance sought.

2. Requests for assistance shall also, to the extent necessary, contain the following information:

- (a) the identity and location of any person from whom evidence is sought;
- (b) a list of questions to be asked of a witness;
- (c) the identity and location of a person to be served, that person's relationship to the criminal proceedings, and the manner in which service is to be made;
- (d) a precise description of the place or person to be searched and of the items or things to be seized;
- (e) information on the identity and suspected whereabouts of a person to be located;
- (f) a description of the property, asset or items or things to which the request relates, including its identity and location;
- (g) in the case of a request for the enforcement of a forfeiture order or any other court order, a certified copy of the court order relating to the assistance requested and a statement relating to the finality of that order;
- (h) a description of any particular procedure to be followed;
- (i) specification of any time limit within which compliance with the request is desired;
- (j) any special requirement for confidentiality and the reasons for it; and
- (k) such other information or requirement as is necessary for the proper execution of the request.

3. Requests, supporting documents and other communications made pursuant to this Treaty shall be in the English language.

4. If the Central Authority of the requested state considers that the information contained in the request is not sufficient to enable the request to be executed, the Central Authority may request additional information. The requesting Party shall supply such additional information as the requested Party considers necessary to enable the request to be fulfilled.

ARTICLE 6 EXECUTION OF REQUESTS

1. The Central Authority of the requested state shall promptly execute the request or, when appropriate, shall transmit it to the authority having jurisdiction to do so. The competent authorities of the requested state shall do everything in their power to execute the request. The courts of the requested state shall have authority to issue subpoenas, search warrants or other orders necessary to execute the request.

2. Requests shall be executed in accordance with the laws of the requested state except to the extent that this Treaty provides otherwise. Procedures specified in the request shall be followed except to the extent that those procedures cannot lawfully be followed in the requested state. Where neither the Treaty nor the request specifies a particular procedure, the request shall be executed in accordance with the appropriate procedure under the laws applicable for criminal investigations or proceedings in the requested state.

3. The Central Authority of the requested state shall represent the interests of the requesting Party or may, if requested to do so, make other arrangements for the representation of the requesting Party in the requested state in any proceedings arising out of a request for assistance.

4. The Central Authority of the requested state shall respond within a reasonable period to reasonable inquiries by the Central Authority of the requesting state concerning progress toward execution of the request.

5. If the Central Authority of the requested state determines that execution of a request would interfere with an ongoing investigation or proceeding pertaining to a criminal matter in that state, it may postpone execution, or make execution subject to conditions determined necessary after consultations with the Central Authority of the requesting state. If the requesting Party accepts the assistance subject to the conditions, it shall comply with the conditions.

6. Where, in the opinion of the requested Party, the provision of assistance pursuant to a request is likely to create a significant safety risk in the requested state, the Parties shall consult on reasonable measures to address the safety concern.

7. The Central Authority of the requested state shall promptly inform the Central Authority of the requesting state of the outcome of the execution of the request. If execution of the request is denied, delayed or postponed, the Central Authority of the requested state shall inform the Central Authority of the requesting state of the reasons for the denial, delay or postponement.

ARTICLE 7
LIMITATIONS ON USE OF EVIDENCE OBTAINED AND PROTECTION OF CONFIDENTIALITY

1. The requesting Party shall not, without the consent of the requested Party and subject to such terms and conditions as the requested Party considers necessary, use or transfer information or evidence provided by the requested Party for investigations or proceedings pertaining to a criminal matter other than those stated in the request.

2. The requested Party shall, upon request and to the extent permitted by its laws, use its best efforts to keep confidential the request for assistance, its contents and its supporting documents, the fact of granting of such assistance and any action taken pursuant to the request. If the request cannot be executed without breaching the confidentiality requirements stated in the request, the requested Party shall so inform the requesting Party, which shall then determine whether the request should nevertheless be executed.

3. The Central Authority of the requested state may request that information or evidence furnished under this Treaty be kept confidential or be used only subject to terms and conditions it may specify. If the requesting Party accepts the information or evidence subject to such conditions, the requesting Party shall use its best efforts to comply with the conditions.

4. Nothing in this Article shall preclude the use or disclosure of information to the extent that there is an obligation to do so under the Constitution of the requesting state in a criminal prosecution. The requesting Party shall notify the requested Party in advance of any such proposed disclosure.

5. Information or evidence, the contents of which have been disclosed in a public judicial or administrative proceeding, may thereafter be used for any purpose.

ARTICLE 8
OBTAINING OF EVIDENCE

1. A person in the requested state from whom evidence is requested pursuant to this Treaty shall appear and provide a statement, or sworn or affirmed testimony, or produce documents, records or items of evidence. The person may provide such evidence voluntarily or the requested Party may compel the testimony or production of such evidence, as may be necessary.

2. The requested Party shall, as necessary, authorize the use of compulsory process to execute a request for testimony or evidence for use in a proceeding pertaining to a criminal matter regardless of whether such a proceeding takes place in a court.

3. Upon request, the requested Party shall permit the presence of persons set forth in the request during the execution of the request and, to the extent permitted by its laws, shall allow specified persons to question the person giving the testimony or evidence.

4. Evidence that has been produced in the requested state pursuant to this Article or that has been the subject of testimony taken under this Article shall, upon request, be authenticated, in the case of requests by Malaysia, as required under Malaysian laws and specified in the request, and in the case of requests by the United States of America, by use of Form A or Form B, as the case may require, appended to this Treaty.

5. If a person who is required to give sworn or affirmed testimony or produce documents, records or items of evidence under this Article claims that there is a right to decline to do so under the laws of the requested state, the claim shall be resolved by the authorities of the requested state. If such a claim is made regarding a right under the laws of the requesting state, the requesting Party shall, if so requested, provide a statement to the requested Party of its views as to the validity of the claim and whether the evidence shall nonetheless be taken and forwarded and the claim resolved by the authorities of the requesting state.

6. For the purpose of executing a request for the taking of testimony, the Parties may agree on a case by case basis to the use of live video or television links or other appropriate communications facilities in accordance with the laws and procedures of the requested state if it is expedient and in the interests of justice to do so.

ARTICLE 9
PROVISION OF PUBLICLY AVAILABLE DOCUMENTS AND OTHER
RECORDS

1. The requested Party shall provide the requesting Party with copies of publicly available records, including documents or information in any form, in the possession of government departments and agencies in the requested state.
2. The requested Party may, to the extent permitted by its laws, provide the requesting Party with copies of any records, including documents or information in any form, that are in the possession of a government department or agency in the requested state but that are not publicly available. The requested Party may in its discretion deny, entirely or in part, a request pursuant to this paragraph.
3. Records produced in the requested state pursuant to this Article shall, upon request, be authenticated, in the case of requests by Malaysia, as required under Malaysian laws and specified in the request, and in the case of requests by the United States of America, by use of Form C or Form D, as the case may require, appended to this Treaty.

ARTICLE 10
ATTENDANCE OF PERSON IN THE REQUESTING STATE

1. The requested Party shall, upon request, invite a person to attend in the requesting state as a witness or expert in proceedings pertaining to a criminal matter or to assist in an investigation and where the person consents, assist in arranging that person's attendance.
2. The requesting Party shall indicate the extent to which the person's expenses will be paid. A person who agrees to attend in the requesting state may ask that the requesting Party advance money to cover these expenses. This advance may be provided through the Embassy or a Consulate of the requesting Party.
3. Where a person is asked to attend in the requesting state, the request shall contain information on the following matters:
  - (a) the fees, allowances and expenses, if any, to which he will be entitled;
  - (b) the arrangements for his security, if any, while he is traveling to and from the requesting state and while he is in the requesting state; and

- (c) the arrangements for his accommodation, if any, while he is in the requesting state.

ARTICLE 11
ATTENDANCE OF PERSON IN CUSTODY IN THE REQUESTING STATE

1. The requested Party may, upon request, agree to allow a person in custody in the requested state, subject to his consent and if the Central Authorities agree, to be temporarily transferred to the requesting state to give evidence or to assist in an investigation.
2. The requesting Party shall hold the person in custody, unless otherwise authorized by the requested Party, and shall return that person in custody to the requested Party at the conclusion of the matter, or as soon as circumstances permit or otherwise agreed by both Central Authorities.
3. The requesting Party shall not require the requested Party to initiate extradition or any other proceedings for the return of the person transferred.
4. The period during which such person was under the custody of the requesting Party shall count towards the period of his imprisonment or detention in the requested state.

ARTICLE 12
SAFE CONDUCT

1. The Central Authority of the requesting state may, in its discretion, determine that a person attending in the requesting state pursuant to Article 10 or 11 shall not be subject to service of process or be detained or subjected to any restriction of personal liberty by reason of any acts or convictions that preceded his departure from the requested state. Nothing in this Article shall preclude the requesting Party from holding a person in custody pursuant to Article 11(2).
2. The safe conduct provided for by this Article shall cease seven days after the Central Authority of the requesting state has notified the Central Authority of the requested state that the person's presence is no longer required, or when the person, having left the requesting state, voluntarily returns to that state. The Central Authority of the requesting state may, in its discretion, extend this period up to fifteen days if it determines that there is good cause to do so.

ARTICLE 13
TRANSIT OF PERSONS IN CUSTODY

1. The requested Party may, upon request, authorize the transit through its territory of a person held in custody by the requesting Party or a third state whose attendance has been requested by the requesting Party in an investigation or proceedings pertaining to a criminal matter.
2. The requested Party shall have the authority and the obligation to keep the person in custody during transit unless otherwise agreed between the Parties.
3. Where a person is being held in custody in the requested state on transit and the person's transportation is not continued within a reasonable time, the person may be returned to the state from which the person was first transported.

ARTICLE 14
SEARCH AND SEIZURE

1. The requested Party shall, upon request, execute a request for the search, seizure and delivery of any documents, records or items or things to the requesting Party if the request includes the information justifying such action under the laws of the requested state.
2. The Central Authority of the requested state may require that the requesting Party agree to terms and conditions related to any seized documents, records or items or things which may be delivered to the requesting Party that are considered necessary by the requested Party to protect the documents, records or items or things to be transferred.
3. Upon request, every official who has custody of a seized article shall certify the identity of the article, the continuity of custody, and any changes in condition, in the case of requests by Malaysia, as specified in the request, and in the case of requests by the United States of America, by use of Form E appended to this Treaty. No further certification shall be required. The form shall be admissible in evidence in the requesting state.

ARTICLE 15
LOCATION OR IDENTIFICATION OF PERSONS OR ITEMS OR THINGS

The requested Party shall, upon request, use its best efforts to ascertain the location or identity of a person or item or thing specified in the request and reasonably believed to be within its territory.

ARTICLE 16
SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS

1. The requested Party shall, upon request, use its best efforts to effect service of any document relevant to an investigation or proceeding pertaining to a criminal matter arising in the requesting state that is transmitted to it for this purpose by the requesting Party.
2. If the document pertains to a response or appearance in the requesting state, it shall be transmitted a reasonable time before the scheduled response or appearance.
3. The requested Party shall return a proof of service in the manner mutually agreed by the Parties.

ARTICLE 17
ASSISTANCE IN FORFEITURE PROCEEDINGS

1. The requested Party shall, upon request and to the extent permitted by its laws, endeavor to locate, trace, restrain, freeze, seize, forfeit or confiscate the proceeds of crime and the instrumentalities of crime or recover pecuniary penalties.
2. A Party in control of forfeited or confiscated property or assets or pecuniary penalties recovered shall dispose of them according to its laws. To the extent permitted by its laws, that Party may transfer all or any part of such property or the proceeds of its sale or the pecuniary penalties recovered to the other Party upon mutually acceptable terms.
3. In the application of this Article, the rights of bona fide third parties shall be respected.

ARTICLE 18
COMPATIBILITY WITH OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

Nothing in this Treaty shall prevent the Parties from providing assistance to each other pursuant to other treaties, arrangements, practices or the provisions of their national laws.

ARTICLE 19 COSTS

1. The requested Party shall assume all ordinary expenses of fulfilling the request for assistance, except that the requesting Party shall bear -

- (a) the fees of other counsel retained at the request of the requesting Party;
- (b) the fees and reasonable expenses of expert witnesses;
- (c) the costs of translation, interpretation and transcription;
- (d) the expenses associated with conveying any person to or from the territory of the requested state and any fees, allowances and expenses payable to the person concerned while that person is in the requesting state pursuant to a request made under Article 10 or 11 of this Treaty; and
- (e) the travel expenses of custodial or escorting officers as agreed between the Parties.

2. The costs of utilizing live video or television links or other appropriate communications facilities shall be borne by the requesting Party, unless the Parties mutually agree otherwise.

3. If during the execution of the request it becomes apparent that resources, including expenses, of an extraordinary or substantial nature are required to fulfill the request, the Parties shall consult to determine the terms and conditions under which the execution of the request is to be effected or continued.

ARTICLE 20 CONSULTATION

1. The Central Authorities shall consult, at times mutually agreed upon by them, to promote the most effective use of this Treaty.

2. The Central Authorities may develop such practical measures as may be necessary to facilitate the implementation of this Treaty.

ARTICLE 21
SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Any difference or dispute between the Parties arising from the interpretation or implementation of the provisions of this Treaty shall be resolved through the diplomatic channel if the Central Authorities are not able to reach accommodation after a reasonable period.

ARTICLE 22
RATIFICATION, ENTRY INTO FORCE AND TERMINATION

1. This Treaty shall be subject to ratification and the instruments of ratification shall be exchanged as soon as possible.
2. This Treaty shall enter into force upon the exchange of instruments of ratification.
3. This Treaty shall apply to requests presented after the date of its entry into force whether the relevant acts or omissions constituting the offence occurred before or after that date.
4. Either Party may terminate this Treaty by written notification to the other. Termination shall take effect six months following the date of notification.
5. Termination of this Treaty shall be without prejudice to the completion of any requests made pursuant to this Treaty before or up to the date of termination.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorized by their respective Governments, have signed this Treaty.

Done at Kuala Lumpur on this 28th day of July 2006 in two original copies in the English language.
