SENATE

WEDNESDAY, MAY 19, 1943

The Chaplain, Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our fathers' God, author of liberty, across the struggling years, again and again hast Thou used human voices as the silver trumpets of Thy purposes and decrees. As here this day in this shrine of each patriot's devotion is heard the clarion tones of a great captain of his time, the pillar of a people's hope, we give Thee hearty thanks that Thou hast raised him up for such a time as this. We remember with gratitude that in dark days of crisis and alarm the words of this mighty man of valor—winged words which girdled the earth—dispelled panic and despair; that his phrases have kept men on their feet; that it has been given to him to utter words gushing from the deepest springs of our common language, words of faith, fortitude, memory, hope, pride, humility, terrible as an army with banners, as they have voiced the righteous wrath of outraged peoples and pronounced the sure doom of those who have defiled and blasphemed the holy of holies in the temple of human freedom.

As partners in this crusade to make men free, may Thy blessing rest upon Britain and America, and upon all the global strategy now being planned by the leaders of the two Commonwealths. We thank Thee for our shared ideals of decency, honor, and chivalry, for the roots of our Christian culture reaching deep into the rich soil of the storied island which is the garden whence came the seeds of our own freedom. Through our shared blood and sweat and tears bring us the common victory for the inalienable rights of all men everywhere. Amen.

"Whereas at the conclusion of this war a great number of the oppressed and down-trodden people of Europe will find themselves homeless, despoiled, and desperately in need of a refuge to reconstruct their shattered lives; and

"Whereas the Jewish people of Europe are victims of Nazi oppression and attempted extermination, not only in occupied Europe but also within Nazi Germany; and

"Whereas pursuant to the treaties of peace terminating the First World War a mandate was issued and approved by 52 nations, including the United States, for a Jewish national home in Palestine; and

"Whereas this policy was concurred in by a joint resolution adopted unanimously by both Houses of the Congress of the United States on June 30, 1922, and approved by the President on September 21, 1922: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Sixty-second General Assembly of Missouri (the senate concurring therein) express its most profound sympathy toward the victims of Nazi religious persecution and racial hatred; and be it further

Resolved, That we urge the fullest cooperation of the United States in punishing those responsible for this horrible crime against humanity and to alleviate suffering through an international rescue agency; and be it further

Resolved, That we favor the continued development of a Jewish national home in Palestine for the absorption of as many Jews as may be required by the urgent need of the Jewish people and the development thereof as a Jewish commonwealth as an integral part of the new democratic world order in accordance with the principles for which the United Nations are now fighting; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the President of the United States, the Secretary of State, the President

"Whereas on the basis of authentic information in the hands of the United States Department of State, at least 2,000,000 Jews have been ruthlessly annihilated, and the remainder of the Jewish communities in Europe stand in immediate danger of similar extermination unless prompt action is taken by the United Nations to provide havens of refuge for them; and

"Whereas tens of thousands of Jews are stranded in European ports desperately seeking rescue; and

"Whereas the Balfour Declaration of November 2, 1917, guaranteeing the establishment of a Jewish National Homeland in Palestine was approved by 52 nations, including the United States, and incorporated into the treaties of peace terminating the First World War; and

"Whereas this policy was concurred in by a joint resolution adopted by both Houses of the Congress of the United States on June 30, 1922, and approved by the President on September 21, 1922, and implemented by the Anglo-American treaty of December 3, 1924: Therefore be it

Resolved, That the United Nations be urged to take steps to find even temporary havens of refuge, through an international rescue agency, for those homeless and hounded Jews who can be rescued immediately; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded to the President of the United States, Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the National House of Representatives, and to the British Embassy in Washington for transmission to the proper authorities in London.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, MAY 19, 1943

The House met at 12 o'clock noon, and was called to order by the Speaker.

The Chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O God of all power and mercy, whose years never fail, open afresh the fountain of inspiration and revitalize our land with its cleansing waters. Only the onrush of Thy spiritual power can save this poor, sick world; can plant orchards for hungry wayfarers and turn deserts into gardens. Make us channels of strength and might for crushing the plagues of anarchy and for the slavery of the human spirit.

In the name of Him whose cross is the center of the dome of God, we pray for all councils and the appointed advisers who are toiling for the peace and comfort of a world broken with its shattered sanctuaries of faith. Unite their dreams, unify their hopes, direct their aspirations, and when all is completed, O give us the chivalry of our fathers that we may pass on, unimpaired, to our children's children the institutions they founded and achieved in sacrifice and blood. We pray for our own dear country; unified by a common truth and inspired with one spirit may all our citizens assemble again in industry, home, and church and magnify the name of the Lord for His goodness and wonderful
