SENATE—Friday, January 22, 1971

The Senate met at 8 p.m. and was called to order by the Vice President.

The Chaplain, the Reverend Edward L. R. Elson, D.D., offered the following prayer:

Eternal Father, in whom we live and move and have our being, we thank Thee for all the sacred memories and hallowed recollections which cluster about the life of Thy servant, Richard Russell. We thank Thee this moment for the nobility of his character, for his gracious manners and courtly bearing, for his parliamentary skills, for his wise statesmanship and for his service to this Nation. Comfort those who mourn. Inspire and strengthen all who remain to serve Thee here.

O Lord, open our minds to Thy truth, our hearts to Thy grace, our beings to Thy love. Give wisdom and clarity to the President who speaks, understanding to all who listen, and a new dedication of all the people to the making of a better nation in a world at peace.

In the Master's name we pray. Amen.

DEATH OF SENATOR RICHARD BREVARD RUSSELL, OF GEORGIA

Mr. TALMADGE. Mr. President, it is my sad duty to advise the Senate of the passing of the senior Senator from Georgia.

The State of Georgia leads the Nation in mourning the death of RICHARD BREVARD RUSSELL—one of the greatest U.S. Senators of all times, a distinguished statesman without peer, and a fine man beloved and respected by all of us in the Senate today, and all those who served with him during his 38 years in this Chamber.

A great leader and a great statesman has fallen. I know of no other Member of the U.S. Senate throughout all the history of America who served his Nation with greater distinction. A legend in his own time, Senator RUSSELL will be enshrined in history, along with giants of the U.S. Senate such as Webster, Calhoun, and Clay, and other Americans of great stature.

For more than 50 years, Senator RUSSELL served Georgia and the Nation as State legislator, speaker of the Georgia House of Representatives, and Governor of the State. He served for 38 years in the Senate.

As President pro tempore, he was third in line for succession to the Presidency. In modern history, Senator RUSSELL was without peer in the Senate. No other Member of the Senate was more beloved and respected. Senator RUSSELL was a Senator's Senator.

He was friend and counsel to Presidents, and there is no doubt in my mind that he would have been President himself, except for the fact that he was from the South. Georgia, the Nation, the free world, mourn his passing. I have lost a devoted friend, colleague, and confidant. I am grieved by his passing.

Mrs. Talmadge joins me in extending to the members of the Russell family our deepest heartfelt sympathy.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, will the Senator from Georgia yield?

Mr. TALMADGE. I yield.

Mr. MANSFIELD. I have discussed this matter with the distinguished minority leader and we feel it only appropriate that remarks covering the passing of our late beloved colleague, the distinguished Senator from Georgia (Mr.

RUSSELL), be delivered tonight only by his own colleague from that great State.

I do wish to take this moment, though, to announce that, at the conclusion of morning business on Monday next, the remainder of that day will be devoted to eulogizing our late colleague.

I wish to join with the distinguished Senator in the remarks he has just made.

Mr. TALMADGE. Mr. President, I thank the able and distinguished majority leader.

Mr. President, I send to the desk a resolution and ask for its immediate consideration.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The resolution will be stated.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

S. RES. 7

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow and deep regret the announcement of the death of Hon. Richard B. Russell, late President pro tempore of the Senate and late a Senator from the State of Georgia.

Resolved, That the President of the Senate appoint a committee, of which he shall be a member, to attend the funeral of the deceased Senator.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That as a further mark of respect to the memory of the deceased, the Senate stands adjourned at the close of the joint session.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, the resolution is considered and unanimously agreed to.

Under the second resolving clause the Chair appoints the entire membership of the Senate as the committee on the part of the Senate to attend the funeral of the late Senator RICHARD B. RUSSELL, of Georgia.

PAYMENT OF CERTAIN COMMITTEE EXPENSES

Mr. TALMADGE. Mr. President, I send to the desk a resolution and ask for its immediate consideration.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The resolution will be stated.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

S. RES. 8

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is hereby authorized and directed to pay from the contingent fund of the Senate the actual and necessary expenses incurred by the committee appointed to arrange for and attend the funeral of the Honorable Richard B. Russell, late a Senator from the State of Georgia, on vouchers to be approved by the chairman of the Committee on Rules and Administration.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, the resolution (S. Res. 8) is considered and agreed to.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

Mr. TALMADGE. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, it is so ordered.

RECESS—JOINT SESSION OF THE TWO HOUSES

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, the Senate will stand in recess to attend the joint session.

Thereupon, at 8:38 p.m., the Senate took a recess to attend a joint session of the two Houses.

The Senate, preceded by the Secretary of the Senate (Francis R. Valeo), the Deputy Sergeant at Arms (William H. Wannall), the President pro tempore (Mr. ELLENDER), and the Vice President, proceeded to the Hall of the House of Representatives to hear the address by the President of the United States on the State of the Union.

(The address by the President of the United States delivered by him today appears in the proceedings of the House of Representatives in today's RECORD.)

ADJOURNMENT TO MONDAY, JANUARY 25, 1971

At the conclusion of the joint session of the two Houses, the Senate, in accordance with the order previously entered and, pursuant to Senate Resolution 7, as a further mark of respect to the memory of the late Senator RICHARD B. RUSSELL, at 9 o'clock and 44 minutes p.m. adjourned until Monday, January 25, 1971, at 12 o'clock meridian.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKSTUNNARD: A SOUTHERN RECORD*HON. DURWARD G. HALL

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 22, 1971

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, on August 10, 1861, the Battle of Wilson's Creek, the second major engagement of the Civil War, took place.

The site, located southwest of Springfield, Mo., was recently designated a national battlefield by President Nixon.

Willie H. Tunnard, a member of the 3d Louisiana Infantry, was a participant in that battle and, later, when the war ended, wrote a book about the action. That book has now been reissued with a new preface and an additional 200 pages of notes along with a roster of the 2,200 names and service records of the members of the 3d Louisiana Infantry. I have one of the numbered copies and have read it with absorbing personal interest.

The book is entitled "Tunnard: A Southern Record," and is published by the Morningside Bookshop in Dayton, Ohio. The additional 200 pages and the roster have been edited by Edwin C. and Margie Bearss. Mr. Bearss is an employee of the National Park Service.

A review of the work was recently printed in the Springfield, Mo., News and Leader newspaper by its former managing editor—now retired—and my personal friend.

To those who are interested in writings about the Civil War, I offer the following review:
