

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES—Wednesday, January 4, 1989

The House met at 12 noon and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore [Mr. KILDEE].

DESIGNATION OF SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC,
January 4, 1989.

I hereby designate the Honorable DALE E. KILDEE to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

JIM WRIGHT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, just as we pray for the concerns of Your whole created world, so too we pray for ourselves, our Nation, and those needs most immediate to us.

We ask Your blessing upon those elected leaders to whom great responsibility has been given by the people of our land. We especially remember the President-elect, the Speaker, and Members of this House of Representatives. May Your purpose for peace fill their hearts with a passion for justice and mercy, and may they see more clearly how they ought to use their talents and abilities in ways that promote understanding and tolerance and righteousness. Grant us all, O gracious God, a measure of Your good grace, now and evermore. Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will ask the gentleman from Texas [Mr. DE LA GARZA] if he would kindly come forward and lead the membership in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. DE LA GARZA led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will take a limited number of 1-minute speeches.

PLO INTIMIDATION OF PALESTINIANS SUPPORTING PEACE WITH ISRAEL

(Mr. LEVINE of California asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LEVINE of California. Mr. Speaker, when the United States opened a dialog with the PLO, most observers suggested that the true test would be Mr. Arafat's actions rather than Mr. Arafat's rhetoric. Regrettably, Mr. Speaker, Mr. Arafat has failed the first test of whether he is truly serious about peace in the Middle East.

Rather than renounce the PLO's practice of intimidation and assassination, yesterday, Mr. Speaker, Mr. Arafat reinforced that practice. Instead of welcoming an initiative by a prominent West Bank mayor, Elias Freij, for a 1-year truce between Israelis and Palestinians, Mr. Arafat stated that, "Any Palestinian leader who proposes an end to the intifada exposes himself to the bullets of his own people and endangers his life. The PLO will know how to deal with him."

Mr. Speaker, rather than renouncing terror, Arafat embraced it. Arafat clearly wants to retain and to use his longstanding weapon of assassination of his own people as an important weapon in the PLO's arsenal for controlling local Arab leaders.

Mr. Speaker, the world either does not see or chooses to ignore the intimidation and terror Palestinians and the PLO have long inflicted upon those of their brethren who seek coexistence and cooperation with Israel.

For real progress in this troubled region, Mr. Speaker, these terrorist methods must be renounced and removed.

QADHAFI AGAIN SHOWS HE IS A LITTLE TYRANT

(Mr. GEKAS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GEKAS. Mr. Speaker, Qadhafi has done it again. He has provoked the United States into a defensive action off the coast of Libya, way deep into international waters, with the intent again to show that he is a little tyrant who feels he can do anything he wants even to a superpower like the United States.

Mr. Speaker, the evidence, although not completely in, indicates that this was a purely defensive action on the part of the United States military establishment in the Mediterranean, and I for one, and I know most of us, will support the President of the United States, not only in defending the action but in insisting on further action if necessary to demilitarize that chemical weapons factory now in existence in Libya.

WORLD WAR I VETERANS' SERVICE PENSION ACT

(Mr. ANDERSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ANDERSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce, again, the World War I Veterans' Service Pension Act for the veterans of the First World War and their widows.

Almost 5 million American soldiers fought in World War I. Under 100,000 are still alive today. We have never honored our historical responsibilities to these veterans.

From the beginning of this Nation, through the Spanish-American War, our Government provided an old-age pension to all wartime veterans, in just recognition of their service in defending our freedoms.

After World War II, we realized a need to compensate veterans much sooner after their service, and we established home loans, educational benefits, and a variety of other programs.

Under current programs, however, nearly 60 percent of our World War I veterans are not eligible for these benefits from the Veterans' Administration, because their incomes are too high. Too high at $6,200 a year? How many people do you know who can survive on $6,200 a year?

Do not these veterans deserve better? Each day we postpone this legislation, 200 of these valiant men will die, in need and forgotten—forgotten by the country which they did not forget in its time of need.

My bill will provide $150 a month for veterans and $100 a month for their widows. It is hardly a magnificent sum. However, it will make a substantial difference to most of these veterans. It will make a moral difference to all of them, whether they receive it or not.

World War I veterans, their families and I would greatly appreciate your support in the 101st Congress. I am all too aware that time is running out on these great patriots. Hopefully, this will be the year that Congress decides to honor the veterans of World War I by passing my legislation, the World War I Veterans' Service Pension Act.

COUNTING ELECTORAL VOTES—JOINT SESSION OF THE HOUSE AND SENATE HELD PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 1

At 1 o'clock p.m., the Doorkeeper, the Honorable James T. Molloy, announced the Vice President and the Senate of the United States.

The Senate entered the Hall of the House of Representatives, headed by the Vice President and the Secretary of the Senate, the Members and officers of the House rising to receive them.

The VICE PRESIDENT took his seat as the Presiding Officer of the joint convention of the two Houses, the Speaker of the House occupying the chair on his left.

The joint session was called to order by the Vice President.

□ 1300

The VICE-PRESIDENT, Mr. Speaker and Members of Congress, the Senate and the House of Representatives, pursuant to the requirements of the Constitution and the laws of the United States, are meeting in joint session for the purpose of opening the certificates and ascertaining and counting the votes of the electors of the several States for President and Vice President.

Under well-established precedents, unless a motion shall be made in any case, the reading of the formal portions of the certificates will be dispensed with. After ascertainment has been had that the certificates are authentic and correct in form, the tellers will count and make a list of the votes cast by the electors of the several States.

The tellers on the part of the two Houses will take their places at the Clerk's desk.

The tellers, Mr. STEVENS and Mr. FORD on the part of the Senate, and Mr. ANNUNZIO and Mr. FRENZEL on the part of the House, took their places at the desk.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Chair hands to the tellers the certificates of the electors for President and Vice President of the State of Alabama, and they will count and make a list of the votes cast by that State.

Senator FORD (One of the tellers). Mr. President, the certificate of the electoral vote of the State of Alabama seems to be regular in form and authentic, and it appears therefrom that GEORGE BUSH of the State of Texas received 9 votes for President and Dan Quayle of the State of Indiana received 9 votes for Vice President.

The VICE PRESIDENT. If there is no objection, the Chair will omit in the further procedure the formal statement just made, and we will open the certificates in alphabetical order and pass to the tellers the certificates showing the votes of the electors in each State; and the tellers will then read, count, and announce the result in each State as was done with respect to the State of Alabama.

Is there objection?

The Chair hears no objection.

There was no objection.

The tellers then proceeded to read, count, and announce, as was done in the case of the State of Alabama, the electoral votes of the several States in alphabetical order.

□ 1320

The VICE PRESIDENT. Members of the Congress, the certificates of all the States have now been opened and read, and the tellers will make final ascertainment of the result and deliver the same to the President of the Senate.

ALBERT CROSS RETIRES AS PRESIDENT OF THE MONTEREY PENINSULA HERALD

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. MONTGOMERY). Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from California [Mr. PANETTA] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. PANETTA. Mr. Speaker, I want to bring to the attention of my colleagues the retirement of Albert Cross, the president of the Monterey Peninsula Herald in Monterey, CA.

Al Cross has served as president of the Herald since 1984, and the paper has thrived under his leadership. The Monterey Peninsula relies on the Herald as an indispensable source of local, State, and national news, and Al Cross can take a lot of credit for its status. The Herald is my home town newspaper, and I am proud of the work done by its reporters and editors as well as those who run the business side of the paper.

Al Cross was born in Missouri and began his newspaper career on a weekly newspaper in Weston, MO, in 1948. He subsequently worked on several newspapers in New Mexico and then joined the Blade in Toledo, OH, in 1952. The Blade and the Herald are both owned by Block Newspapers.

After 19 years with the Blade, Al joined the Herald as managing editor in October 1971. He was named executive editor of the paper in May 1980, and was elected a vice president of the company that same year. In November 1981 he returned to the Blade as executive editor, a position he held for 20 months, after which he returned to Monterey as general manager of the Herald. In December 1984, he was elected president of the Monterey Peninsula Herald Co.

Al is a director of the California Newspaper Carrier Foundation and a past director of the California Newspaper Publishers Association. He has also been active in the Associated Press Managing Editors Association and the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

Al and his wife, Mildred, reside in Monterey. Mr. Speaker, I know my colleagues join me in wishing Al Cross a comfortable and productive retirement. He has certainly earned it.

NOISE REDUCTION IN ALAMEDA, CA

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from California [Mr. STARK] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, today I am introducing a bill to encourage the Port of Oakland to reduce noise in residential areas near the Oakland International Airport.

A simple solution to the noise problem exists that will satisfy residents without unduly impeding airport operations. By diverting night flights to runways with an approach over the San Francisco Bay, the airport can promote peace and quiet in residential neighborhoods while still accommodating air traffic. For years, the Port of Oakland has dragged its feet in addressing the airport noise problem. It is now time that Oakland International join with airports around the Nation in becoming a responsible neighbor to the surrounding communities.

H.R. —

A bill to prohibit the Secretary of Transportation from making airport development grants to the Port of Oakland until the Port of Oakland enters into an agreement with the Secretary relating to air traffic at Oakland International Airport

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. GRANT AGREEMENT.

The Secretary of Transportation shall not make a grant under the Airport and Airway Improvement Act of 1982 for an airport development project involving the Oakland International Airport, Oakland, California, until the Port of Oakland enters into an agreement satisfactory to the Secretary which ensures that all aircraft which use such airport between the hours of 10 o'clock post meridian and 7 o'clock anti meridian land only at runways 27L, 27R, and 29 and take off from runways 9L, 9R, and 29.

SEC. 2. EFFECTIVE PERIOD OF AGREEMENT.

An agreement entered into under section 1 must remain in effect during the longer of—

(1) the period beginning on the date of approval of the grant application under the Airport and Airway Improvement Act of 1982 and ending on the last day of the useful life of the project for which such grant is sought; and

(2) the 20-year period beginning on such date of approval.
