EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ANDISON HILL AND VERONICA HILL,

Case No.: 2:23-CV-00349-KJM-KJN

Plaintiff,

STIPULATION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER AND ORDER

v.

CITY OF AMERICAN CANYON, CITY
OF FAIRFIELD AND FAIRFIELD POLICE
OFFICERS, DOES 1 TO 50

Defendants.

Complaint Filed: 02/24/23

Plaintiffs ANDISON AND VERONICA HILL (“Plaintiffs”) and Defendants CITY OF AMERICAN CANYON and CITY OF FAIRFIELD (“Defendants”), by and through their respective counsel, hereby stipulate and in good faith believe that documents potentially within the scope of discovery for the instant matter, including but not limited to the documents identified below that have been or will be requested by Plaintiff, are subject to protection pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). The terms of this protective order shall apply to the items listed below and any future production of confidential documents that Defendant City of American Canyon may designate in good faith to be confidential.

1 STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

2 Defendant City of American Canyon takes the position that certain materials, including but not
3 limited to its police reports and body-worn camera footage, are confidential and/or implicate privacy
4 rights, and are thus subject to protection pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). Therefore, the parties jointly 5 request a protective order be entered in this case to protect the above referenced confidential records.

6 A. DEFINITIONS

7 The following definitions shall apply to this Protective Order:

- 8 1. The “Action” shall mean and refer to the above-captioned matter and to all actions now or later
9 consolidated with the Action, and any appeal from the Action and from any other action 10 consolidated at any time under the above-captioned matter, through final judgment.
- 11 2. “Documents” or “Confidential Documents” shall mean the Documents that Defendants or 12 Plaintiffs designate as “Confidential” in the manner set forth in this Protective Order.
- 13 3. “Confidential” shall mean information designated “Confidential” pursuant to this Protective 14 Order. Information designated “Confidential” shall be information that is determined in good
15 faith by the attorneys representing the Designating Party to be subject to protection pursuant 16 to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). Confidential Documents, material, and/or information shall be used 17 solely for purposes of litigation. Confidential Information shall not be used by the non-
18 Designating Party for any business or other purpose, unless agreed to in writing by all Parties
19 to this action or as authorized by further order of the Court.
- 20 4. “Defendants” shall mean the CITY OF AMERICAN CANYON and the CITY OF 21 FAIRFIELD.
- 22 5. “Discovery Material” shall refer to all items or information that are produced or generated in 23 disclosures or responses to discovery in this Action, regardless of the medium or way it was 24 stored, generated, or maintained.
- 25 6. “Document” shall have the same meaning as provided in Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil 26 Procedure, and shall include, without limitation, all original, written, recorded, electronic,
27 visual, audio or graphic materials, including all photographic, video or audio recordings,
28 drawings or other physical renderings and all copies, duplicates or abstracts thereof including,

1 but not limited to, notes on documents including information contained therein or derived
2 therefrom.

3 7. "Information" shall include Documents as described above as well as recordings (including 4 associated metadata) whether on paper, film or other media, as discrete files stored
5 electronically, optically, or magnetically, or as a record within a database, archive, or container
6 file, including emails, messages, word processed documents, digital presentations,
7 spreadsheets, and database content and the content contained therein.

8 8. "Plaintiffs" shall mean ANDISON HILL and VERONICA HILL

9 9. "Parties" shall mean Plaintiffs and Defendants, identified above.

10 B. TERMS OF THE PROTECTIVE ORDER

11 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by, among and between the parties through their counsel of record, 12 that the following terms apply to documents designated as "Confidential" as described above, by the 13 Defendants and produced by subpoena or otherwise, subject to the following Protective Order:

14 1. The Confidential Documents shall be used solely in connection with the civil case Hill v.
15 City of American Canyon, et al. 2:23-CV-00349-KJM-KJN (E.D. Cal.) and in the 16 preparation and trial of the case. The Parties do not waive any objections to the 17 admissibility of the documents or portions thereof in future proceedings in this case, 18 including trial.

19 2. All records subject to this protective order shall be designated as confidential by affixing a 20 mark labelling them "Confidential" by the designating party.

21 3. The Confidential Documents may only be disclosed to the following persons:

22 (a) Counsel for Plaintiff, including partners and associate attorneys in their offices, as 23 counsel for Plaintiffs in this case;

24 (b) Counsel for Defendants, including partners and associate attorneys in their offices,
25 as counsel for Defendants in this case;

26 (c) Paralegal, clerical, and secretarial personnel regularly employed by counsel 27 referred to in subparts (a) and (b), including stenographic deposition reporters or 28 videographers retained in connection with this action;

- 1 (d) Court personnel, including stenographic reporters or videographers engaged in 2 proceedings as are necessarily incidental to the preparation for the trial in the civil
3 action;
- 4 (e) Any expert, consultant, or investigator retained in connection with this action,
5 however, such persons must be advised of and abide by this protective order;
- 6 (f) The finder of fact at the time of trial, subject to the court's rulings on in limine
7 motions and objections of counsel;
- 8 (g) Witnesses during their depositions in this action. If confidential documents are used 9 in the deposition, the documents must be identified as "Confidential" and the 10 portion of the deposition in which the documents are described should also be 11 considered confidential; and
- 12 (h) The parties to this action and any representatives acting on their behalf for this 13 action.

- 14 4. Before any Confidential Documents may be disclosed to persons described in Subsections 15 (a)-(h) in paragraph 3 above, each person to whom such Confidential Documents are 16 disclosed, except for Court officials and employees, shall be provided with a copy of this 17 Protective Order and shall agree to be bound by and comply with the terms of this Order.
- 18 5. No notes, lists, memoranda, index, electronic images, databases or compilation prepared
19 based wholly or in part upon examination of Confidential Documents shall be disseminated
20 to anyone not authorized to have access to Confidential Documents.
- 21 6. If the Confidential Documents are filed with any motion or other pleading, a party may 22 seek permission from the Court to file the Confidential Documents under seal according to 23 Local Rule 141. If permission is granted, the Confidential Documents will be filed and 24 served in accordance with Local Rule 141.
- 25 7. The designation of the Confidential Documents as "Confidential" and the subsequent 26 production thereof is without prejudice to the right of any party to oppose the admissibility
27 of the Confidential Documents or information contained therein.
- 28 8. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time. A party or non-party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing

1 not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed. The 2 Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process by providing written notice
3 of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each challenge. The parties
4 shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by 5 conferring directly (in voice-to-voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not 6 sufficient) within seven (7) days of the date of receiving notice of the challenge. In 7 conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the 8 confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an 9 opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no
10 change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A 11 Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has 12 engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is 13 unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely manner. If the Parties
14 cannot resolve a challenge without Court intervention, the Designating Party may file and 15 serve a motion for protective order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) and E.D. Cal. L.R. 251
16 within twenty-one (21) days of the initial notice of challenge. Failure by the Designating 17 Party to make such a motion within twenty-one (21) days shall automatically waive the 18 “Confidential” designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the Challenging 19 Party may file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if there is 20 good cause for doing so. The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall 21 be on the Designating Party. Unless the Designating Party has waived the confidentiality
22 designation by failing to file a motion to retain confidentiality as described above, all
23 parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it
24 is entitled under the Designating Party’s designation until the Court rules on the challenge.

- 25 9. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 3, the Confidential Documents and 26 information contained therein may not be delivered, exhibited or otherwise disclosed to 27 any reporter, writer or employee of any trade publication, newspaper, magazine or other 28 media organization, including but not limited to radio and television media, provided that

1 the Challenging Party has not obtained, by challenge or otherwise, the removal of the 2 confidentiality designation from the Confidential Documents.

3 10. Should the Confidential Documents or any information contained therein be disclosed,
4 through inadvertence or otherwise, to any person not authorized to receive it under this 5 Protective Order, the disclosing person(s) shall promptly (a) inform counsel of the 6 recipient(s) and the circumstances of the unauthorized disclosure to the relevant producing 7 person(s) and (b) use best efforts to bind the recipient(s) to the terms of this Protective
8 Order.

9 11. The Confidential Documents shall not lose its confidential status because it was 10 inadvertently or unintentionally disclosed to a person not authorized to receive it under this 11 Protective Order.

12 12. After the conclusion of this litigation, the Confidential Documents will remain confidential,
13 unless the Challenging Party has obtained removal of the confidentiality designations.
14 “Conclusion” of this litigation means a termination of the case following a trial, settlement,
15 or dismissal of the Action with prejudice for any other reason.

16 13. This Stipulated Protective Order shall remain in full force and effect and shall continue to 17 be binding on all parties and affected persons until this litigation terminates, subject to any 18 subsequent modifications of this Stipulated Protective Order for good cause shown by this 19 Court or any Court having jurisdiction over an appeal of this action. Upon termination of 20 this litigation, the parties agree the Stipulated Protective Order shall continue in force as a
21 private agreement between the parties, unless the Challenging Party has obtained removal
22 of the confidentiality designations from certain documents.

23 14. During the pendency of this lawsuit, the Court shall (a) make such amendments,
24 modifications and additions to this Protective Order as it may deem appropriate upon good
25 cause shown; and (b) adjudicate any dispute arising under it.

2 The court has reviewed the parties' stipulated protective order. (See ECF No. 7.) The 3 stipulation comports with the relevant authorities and the court's applicable local rule. See L.R. 141.1.
4 The court APPROVES the protective order, subject to the following clarification. Once an action is 5 closed, "the court will not retain jurisdiction over enforcement of the terms of any protective order filed
6 in that action." L.R. 141.1(f); see also, e.g., MD Helicopters, Inc. v. Aerometals, Inc., 2017 WL 495778
7 (E.D. Cal., Feb. 03, 2017) (noting that courts in the district generally do not retain jurisdiction for 8 disputes concerning protective orders after closure of the case). Thus, the court will not retain 9 jurisdiction over this protective order once the case is closed.
