ORDER

Pending before the Court is Petitioner’s second motion for discovery (ECF No. 27). Like his first request, Petitioner seeks to obtain discovery, to submit evidence, and to be appointed counsel. 2d Mot. for Disc. 14, ECF No. 27. He also seeks the appointment of a social worker. Id. The Court denied Petitioner’s first request for discovery and to tender evidence as premature because Respondent had yet to respond. Order 3, May 11, 2022, ECF No. 21. This remains true, and therefore, Petitioner’s motion is DENIED.

With respect to his request for counsel, Petitioner again fails to show the “interests of justice [] require” appointing him counsel. See 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(a)(2)(B). As previously explained, should the need arise, the Court will consider appointing counsel on its own motion, and Petitioner should not file further requests. See Order 3, May 11, 2022. As for his request for a social worker, Petitioner fails to explain the need for such an appointment, let alone cite authority for the Court to do so. Accordingly, Petitioner’s request for the appointments of counsel and a social worker are DENIED.

SO ORDERED, this 27th day of June, 2022.
