

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF IDAHO

NEZ PERCE TRIBE and IDAHO RIVERS UNITED,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES FOREST SERVICE,

Defendant,

RESOURCES CONSERVATION
COMPANY INTERNATIONAL,

Applicant Defendant-
Intervenor.

Case No. 3:13-cv-00348-BLW

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO INTERVENE AS DEFENDANT BY APPLICANT-INTERVENOR
RESOURCES CONSERVATION
COMPANY INTERNATIONAL

THIS MATTER having come before the Court on the Motion to Intervene as Defendant by Applicant-Intervenor Resources Conservation Company International (Dkt. 21), the Court having reviewed the record before it in this matter and having found that sufficient grounds exist to permit intervention either as a matter of right under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 24(a), or permissibly under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 24(b);

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion to Intervene as Defendant by Applicant-Intervenor Resources Conservation Company International (Dkt. 21) is GRANTED. Defendant-Intervenor Resources Conservation Company International may defer filing an answer to Plaintiffs' Complaint until such time as the Court enters a scheduling order in this matter setting the time for the filing of same.

DATED: August 30, 2013

B. Lynn Winmill
Chief Judge
United States District Court