CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the gratitude of the Congress for the service of the District of Columbia Army National Guard and the Capitol Police in protecting the Congress and increasing security around the Capitol complex.

Whereas the District of Columbia Army National Guard has served alongside the Capitol Police in Task Force Capitol Guardian providing perimeter security, barricade support, and vehicle inspections 24 hours per day, seven days per week, since November 15, 2001;

Whereas National Guard units involved in this task force included the 260th Military Police Command, the 74th Troop Command, the 104th Maintenance Company and Legal Support Office, the 260th Regional Training Institute, the 121st Criminal Investigation Detachment, the 33rd Civil Support Team, and the Headquarters District Area Regional Command;

Whereas these National Guard units will complete their service on April 10, 2002;

Whereas these National Guard units worked continuously through Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Years Day, Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, Presidents Day, and Easter;

Whereas these National Guard units coordinated and completed training with the Capitol Police and the District of Columbia Metropolitan Police Department;

Whereas these National Guard units provided security for the President, his staff, and the Congress during the State of the Union Address on January 29, 2002;

Whereas the contribution of these National Guard units in assisting the Capitol Police has allowed Congress to continue to function with ease and security;

Whereas the contribution of these National Guard units has allowed members of the Capitol Police to spend more time with their families; and

Whereas the District of Columbia Army National Guard has fulfilled its slogan of being “always ready, always there” in the months since the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001: Now, therefore, be it
