1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; POLICY.

2 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-3 ings:

4 (1) Support for human rights is the cornerstone
 5 of American foreign policy, and the advance of wom-6 en’s rights and the advance of liberty are ultimately 7 inseparable.

8 (2) A number of international human rights in-9 struments, as well as several international declara-10 tions, have recognized the equal rights of men and 11 women and articulated specific aspects of women’s 12 human rights, including the Universal Declaration of 13 Human Rights, the Charter of the United Nations, 14 the International Covenant on Civil and Political 15 Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, 16 Social and Cultural Rights, the Convention on the 17 Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against

1 Women, the Inter-American Convention on the Pre-
2 vention, Punishment and Eradication of Violence
3 Against Women, the Declaration on the Elimination
4 of Violence against Women, and the Beijing Dec-
5 laration and Platform for Action.

6 (3) Article 1 of the Universal Declaration of 7 Human Rights recognizes that “all human beings 8 are born free and equal in dignity and rights”, and 9 Article 7 recognizes that “all are equal before the 10 law and are entitled without any discrimination to 11 equal protection of the law”. Article 3 of the Inter-
12 national Covenant on Civil and Political Rights rec-13 ognizes that the State Parties to the Covenant “un-14 dertake to ensure the equal right of men and women 15 to the enjoyment of all civil and political rights set 16 forth in the Covenant”. Article 26 of the Covenant 17 provides that “all persons are equal before the law 18 and are entitled without any discrimination to the 19 equal protection of the law. In this respect, the laws
20 of each State Party shall prohibit any discrimination 21 and guarantee to all persons equal and effective pro-22 tection against discrimination on any ground such as 23 race, color, sex, language, religion, political or other 24 opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or 25 other status”. The Preamble of the Charter of the 1 United Nations affirms the equal rights of men and 2 women. Governments have the responsibility to pro-3 tect the fundamental rights of their citizens and to 4 pursue justice for all. Women’s rights are funda-5 mental rights, regardless of race, country, creed, or 6 nationality, and should never be arbitrarily abridged 7 by any government.

8 (4) Barbaric treatment of women persists in 9 many parts of the world. Women suffer both govern-
10 ment-sponsored and government-tolerated violations 11 of their human rights. In countries where women are 12 subject to particularly severe restrictions, women
13 cannot work outside the home, cannot attend schools
14 or universities, cannot drive, cannot leave the home
15 without a male companion, may only use segregated
16 transportation, cannot obtain a passport or travel 17 without the permission of a male relative, must wear 18 particular clothing, must black out house windows in 19 public view, cannot obtain quality health education, 20 and have limited access to health care because a 21 male relative must be present or because male doc-22 tors are not allowed to touch female patients. The 23 “In-depth study on all forms of violence against 24 women” conducted by the Secretary General of the 25 United Nations found that in many countries, wom-

1 en's economic opportunities are severely limited be-2 cause of discrimination in employment, property
3 rights, and access to resources. These inequalities
4 work to limit women's independence and make them
5 more vulnerable to further discrimination, including 6 violence.

7 (5) Violence against women is a form of dis-
8 crimination which is pervasive throughout all parts
9 of the world. In many countries, governments con-
10 done or perpetrate violence against women. Women 11 are subject to various manifestations of brutal vio-
12 lence, including female genital mutilation, honor 13 killings, domestic violence, gender-based murders,
14 rape, trafficking, forced early marriage, and the mal-15 treatment of widows. Perpetration of violence by the 16 country can include custodial violence, forced steri-17 lization, sexual violence during armed conflict, and 18 policies on forced pregnancy and forced abortion. Vi-19 olence against women has consequences for their 20 health and well-being, their economic security, and 21 the economic development of their communities and 22 countries.

23 (6) Though not confined to a particular region
24 or regime, violations of women's rights are often 25 particularly widespread, systematic, and heinous

1 under totalitarian governments and in countries with 2 militant, politicized religious majorities or with 3 strong tribal traditions.

4 (7) Congress has recognized and denounced 5 international violations of women's rights through 6 the adoption of the following resolutions:

7 (A) Senate Resolution 68 of the 106th
8 Congress, expressing the sense of the Senate re-9 garding the treatment of women and girls by 10 the Taliban in Afghanistan.

11 (B) Senate Concurrent Resolution 42 of 12 the 107th Congress, condemning the Taliban
13 for their discriminatory policies towards women.

14 (C) Senate Concurrent Resolution 86 of 15 the 107th Congress, expressing the sense of 16 Congress that women from all ethnic groups in 17 Afghanistan should participate in the economic 18 and political reconstruction of Afghanistan.

19 (D) House Resolution 393 of the 108th
20 Congress, commending Afghan women for their 21 participation in Afghan government and civil 22 society, encouraging the inclusion of Afghan 23 women in the political and economic life of Af-24 ghanistan, and advocating the protection of the 1 human rights of all Afghans, particularly 2 women, in the Afghanistan Constitution.

3 (E) Senate Resolution 74 of the 109th
4 Congress, designating March 8, 2005, as Inter-
5 national Women’s Day.

6 (b) POLICY.—It shall be the policy of the United 7 States to do the following:

8 (1) To condemn violations of women’s rights, 9 and to promote, and to assist other governments in 10 promoting, the fundamental human rights of women.

11 (2) To seek to channel United States security 12 and development assistance to governments other 13 than those found to be engaged in gross violations 14 of the rights of women, as set forth in the Foreign 15 Assistance Act of 1961, in the International Finan-16 cial Institutions Act, and in other formulations of 17 United States human rights policy.

18 (3) To be vigorous and flexible, reflecting both 19 the unwavering commitment of the United States to 20 women’s rights and the desire of the United States 21 for the most effective and principled response, in 22 light of the range of violations of women’s rights by 23 a variety of persecuting regimes, and the status of 24 the relations of the United States with different na-25 tions.

1           (4) To work with foreign governments that af-
2 firm and protect women’s rights, in order to develop 3 multilateral documents and initiatives to combat vio-4 lations of women’s rights and promote the right of 5 women to enjoy their human rights abroad.

6           (5) Standing for liberty and standing with the 7 disadvantaged, to use and implement appropriate 8 tools in the United States foreign policy apparatus, 9 including diplomatic, political, commercial, chari-10 table, educational, and cultural channels, to promote 11 respect for women’s rights by all governments and 12 peoples.

8           (2) BASIS OF ACTIONS.—Each action taken

23               described in subsection (a) by the government of a 24               foreign country—

1           (A) take one or more of the actions de-2           scribed in paragraphs (1) through (15) of sec-

25          ACTIONS.—The President may delay action that is

1 described in any of paragraphs (9) through (15) of 2 section 405(a) (or commensurate action in substi-

4 (A) if the President determines and cer-

8 tion 402(c)(3); and

9 (B) only until the expiration of that addi-
10 tional period.

11 (c) IMPLEMENTATION.—

12 (1) IN GENERAL.—In carrying out subsection 13 (b), the President shall—

14 (A) take the action or actions that most 15 appropriately respond to the nature and sever-
16 ity of the violations of women’s rights;

17 (B) seek to the fullest extent possible to 18 target action as narrowly as practicable with re-19 spect to the agency or instrumentality of the 20 foreign government, or specific officials thereof, 21 that are responsible for such violations; and

22 (C) when appropriate, make every reason-
23 able effort to conclude a binding agreement 24 concerning the cessation of such violations in

1 countries with which the United States has dip-

17 TICULARLY SEVERE VIOLATIONS OF WOM-
18 EN'S RIGHTS.

19 (a) RESPONSE TO PARTICULARLY SEVERE VIOLA-
20 TIONS OF WOMEN'S RIGHTS.—

21 (1) UNITED STATES POLICY.—It shall be the 22 policy of the United States—

23 (A) to oppose particularly severe violations
24 of women's rights that are or have been en-

1 gaged in or tolerated by the governments of for-2 eign countries; and

3 (B) to promote the rights of women in 11 and promote women’s rights through one or more of 12 the actions described in subsection (c).

13 (b) DESIGNATIONS OF COUNTRIES OF PARTICULAR
14 CONCERN FOR WOMEN’S RIGHTS.—

15 (1) ANNUAL REVIEW.—

16 (A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than Sep-
17 tember 1 of each year, the President shall re-18 view the status of women’s rights in each for-19 eign country to determine whether the govern-
20 ment of that country has engaged in or toler-21 ated particularly severe violations of women’s 22 rights in that country during the preceding 12 23 months or since the date of the last review of 24 that country under this subparagraph, which-25 ever period is longer. The President shall des-

1           ignite each country the government of which 2           has engaged in or tolerated violations described 3           in this subparagraph as a country of particular
4           concern for women’s rights.

5           (B) BASIS OF REVIEW.—Each review con-6           ducted under subparagraph (A) shall be based 7           upon information contained in the latest Coun-8           try Reports on Human Rights Practices, the 9           Annual Report, and on any other evidence 10          available, and shall take into account any find-11          ings or recommendations of the Commission 12          with respect to the foreign country.

13          (C) IMPLEMENTATION.—Any review under 14          subparagraph (A) of a foreign country may 15          take place singly or jointly with the review of 16          one or more countries and may take place at 17          any time before September 1 of the respective 18          year.

19          (2) DETERMINATIONS OF RESPONSIBLE PAR-
20          TIES.—For the government of each country des-21          ignated as a country of particular concern for wom-
22          en’s rights under paragraph (1)(A), the President 23          shall seek to determine the agency or instrumen-24          tality and specific officials of the government that 25          are responsible for the particularly severe violations

1 of women’s rights engaged in or tolerated by that 2 government in order to appropriately target Presi-3 dential actions under this section in response to the 4 violations.

5 (3) CONGRESSIONAL NOTIFICATION.—Whenever 6 the President designates a country as a country of 7 particular concern for women’s rights under para-
8 graph (1)(A), the President shall, as soon as prac-9 ticable after the designation is made, transmit to the 10 appropriate congressional committees—

11 (A) the designation of the country, signed 12 by the President; and

13 (B) the identification, if any, of responsible 14 parties determined under paragraph (2).

15 (c) PRESIDENTIAL ACTIONS WITH RESPECT TO 16 COUNTRIES OF PARTICULAR CONCERN FOR WOMEN’S 17 RIGHTS.—

18 (1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to paragraphs (2), 19 (3), (4), and (5), with respect to each country of 20 particular concern for women’s rights designated 21 under subsection (b)(1)(A), the President shall, after 22 the requirements of sections 403 and 404 have been 23 satisfied, but not later than 90 days after the date 24 of designation of the country under that subsection,

1 carry out one or more of the following actions under 2 subparagraph (A) or subparagraph (B):

3 (A) PRESIDENTIAL ACTIONS.—One or 4 more of the Presidential actions described in 5 paragraphs (9) through (15) of section 405(a),

7 (B) COMMENSURATE ACTIONS.—Commen-
8 surate action in substitution for any action de-9 scribed in subparagraph (A).

10 (2) SUBSTITUTION OF BINDING AGREE-
11 MENTS.—

12 (A) IN GENERAL.—In lieu of carrying out
13 action under paragraph (1), the President may 14 conclude a binding agreement with the respec-
15 tive foreign government as described in section 16 405(c). The existence of a binding agreement
17 under this paragraph with a foreign government
18 may be considered by the President before mak-
19 ing any determination or taking any action
20 under this title.

21 (B) STATUTORY CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing
22 in this paragraph may be construed to author-23 ize the entry of the United States into an 24 agreement covering matters outside the scope of 25 violations of women’s rights.

1           (3) AUTHORITY FOR DELAY OF PRESIDENTIAL 2           ACTIONS.—If, on or before the date that the Presi-
3           dent is required (but for this paragraph) to take ac-
4           tion under paragraph (1), the President determines 5           and certifies to the Congress that a single, addi-
6           tional period of time not to exceed 90 days is nec-
7           essary—

8                   (A) for a continuation of negotiations that 9                   have been commenced with the government of 10                  that country to bring about a cessation of the 11                  violations by the foreign country,

12                  (B) for a continuation of multilateral nego-
13                  tiations into which the United States has en-14                  tered to bring about a cessation of the viola-15                  tions by the foreign country, or

16                  (C)(i) for a review of corrective action
17                  taken by the foreign country after designation
18                  of that country as a country of particular con-19                  cern, or

20                  (ii) in anticipation that corrective action 21                  will be taken by the foreign country during that 22                  additional period of time,
23                  then the President shall not be required to take 24                  action until the expiration of that additional pe-25                  riod of time.

1           (4) EXCEPTION FOR ONGOING PRESIDENTIAL 2 ACTION UNDER THIS ACT.—The President shall not 3 be required to take action under this subsection in 4 the case of a country of particular concern for wom-
5 en’s rights, if, with respect to that country—

6           (A) the President has taken action pursu-
7 ant to this Act in a preceding year;

8           (B) such action is in effect at the time the 9 country is designated as a country of particular 10 concern for women’s rights under this section; 11 and

12           (C) the President reports to the Congress
13 the information described in paragraphs (1), 14 (2), (3), and (4) of section 404(a) regarding the 15 actions in effect with respect to that country.

16           (5) EXCEPTION FOR ONGOING MULTIPLE 17 BROAD-BASED SANCTIONS IN RESPONSE TO HUMAN 18 RIGHTS VIOLATIONS.—If, at the time the President 19 determines a country to be a country of particular 20 concern for women’s rights, that country is already 21 subject to multiple, broad-based sanctions imposed 22 in significant part in response to human rights
23 abuses, and such sanctions are ongoing, the Presi-
24 dent may determine that one or more of these sanc-25 tions also satisfies the requirements of this sub-

1 section. In the report to the Congress under section 2 404(a), and, as applicable, in the information pub-
3 lished under section 408, the President shall des-4 ignate the specific sanction or sanctions which the 5 President determines satisfy the requirements of this 6 subsection. The sanctions so designated shall remain 7 in effect as provided in section 409.

8 (d) STATUTORY CONSTRUCTION.—A determination
9 under this Act, or any amendment made by this Act, that 10 a foreign country has engaged in or tolerated particularly 11 severe violations of women’s rights shall not be construed 12 to require the termination of assistance or other activities 13 with respect to that country under any other provision of 14 law, including section 116 or 502B of the Foreign Assist-15 ance Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. 2151n, 2304).

16 SEC. 403. CONSULTATIONS.

17 (a) IN GENERAL.—As soon as practicable after the 18 President decides under section 401 to take an action
19 under any of paragraphs (9) through (15) of section 20 405(a) (or commensurate action in substitution therefor)
21 with respect to a country in response to violations of wom-22 en’s rights, or not later than 90 days after the President 23 designates a country as a country of particular concern 24 for women’s rights under section 402, as the case may

2 in this section.

3 (b) DUTY TO CONSULT WITH FOREIGN GOVERN-
4 MENTS BEFORE TAKING PRESIDENTIAL ACTIONS.—

5 (1) IN GENERAL.—The President shall—

6 (A) request consultation with the govern-7 ment of the country concerned regarding the 8 violations giving rise to the designation of that 9 country as a country of particular concern for 10 women’s rights, or to Presidential action under 11 section 401, as the case may be; and 12 (B) if agreed to, enter into such consulta-

13 tions, privately or publicly.

14 (2) USE OF MULTILATERAL FORA.—If the 15 President determines it to be appropriate, consulta-16 tions under paragraph (1) may be sought and may 17 occur in a multilateral forum, but, in any event, the 18 President shall consult with appropriate foreign gov-19 ernments for the purposes of achieving a coordinated 20 international policy on actions that may be taken 21 with respect to a country described in subsection (a), 22 before implementing any such action.

23 (3) ELECTION OF NONDISCLOSURE OF NEGO-
24 TIATIONS TO PUBLIC.—If negotiations are under-25 taken or an agreement is concluded with a foreign

1 government regarding steps to cease the pattern of 2 violations by that government, and if public disclo-
3 sure of such negotiations or agreement would jeop-4 ardize the negotiations or the implementation of 5 such agreement, as the case may be, the President 6 may refrain from disclosing such negotiations and 7 such agreement to the public, except that the Presi-
8 dent shall inform the appropriate congressional com-
9 mittees of the nature and extent of such negotiations 10 and any agreement reached.

11 (c) DUTY TO CONSULT WITH HUMANITARIAN ORGA-
12 NIZATIONS.—The President should consult with appro-
13 priate humanitarian and human rights organizations con-14 cerning the potential impact of United States policies to 15 promote women’s rights in countries described in sub-16 section (a).

17 (d) DUTY TO CONSULT WITH UNITED STATES IN-18 TERESTED PARTIES.—The President shall, as appro-19 priate, consult with interested parties in the United 20 States, including the Commission on International Wom-21 en’s Rights, with respect to the potential impact of in-22 tended Presidential action or actions in countries de-23 scribed in subsection (a) on economic or other interests
24 of the United States.

1 SEC. 404. REPORT TO CONGRESS.

2 (a) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subsection (b), not 3 later than 90 days after the President decides under sec-
4 tion 401 to take action under paragraphs (9) through (15)
5 of section 405(a) (or commensurate action in substitution 6 therefor) with respect to a country, in response to viola-7 tions of women’s rights by that country, or not later than 8 90 days after the President designates a country as a 9 country of particular concern for women’s rights under

11 a report to the Congress containing the following:

12 (1) IDENTIFICATION OF PRESIDENTIAL AC-
13 TIONS.—An identification of the action or actions

2           and (d) of section 403, and whomever else the 3           President deems appropriate, of the effects of 4           the action or actions on—

6                   country;

7                   (ii) the population of the country; and

8                   (iii) the United States economy and 9                   other interested parties.

10           (B) AUTHORITY TO WITHHOLD DISCLO-
11           SURE.—The President may withhold part or all 12           of such evaluation from the public but shall 13           provide the evaluation to the Congress in its en-14           tirety.

15           (5) STATEMENT OF POLICY OPTIONS.—A state-16           ment that noneconomic policy options designed to

20           (6) DESCRIPTION OF MULTILATERAL NEGOTIA-
